Ordered, on Motion, that the Judges be covered.

The Houſe re-aſſumes.

Lord Lieutenant enters the Houſe.

His Grace James Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, entered the Houſe, with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Roſcomon bearing the Cap of Maintenance; the Earl of Meath carrying the Sword of State; John Hamilton, Eſq; ſecond Son to the Lord Viſc. Strabane, and George Hamilton, Eſq; third Son to the Lord Viſc. Strabane, and William Fitzmaurice, Eſq; eldeſt Son to the Lord Baron of Kerry and Lixnawe, bearing the Train; and his Grace, making his Congé to the Cloth of State, ſeated himſelf in the Chair under the Canopy.

Commons ſent for;

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, kneeling, confers with his Grace; and then, ſtanding on the Right hand of the Chair of State, ordered the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to acquaint the Commons, that it was his Grace's Pleaſure, they ſhould attend him in this Houſe immediately, with their Speaker.

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod returns, and acquaints this Houſe, that the Commons are at the Door.

The Commons called in, and appear at the Bar.

they preſent their Speaker,

Allan Brodrick, Eſq; her Majeſty's Solicitor General, makes a Speech, mentioning his being choſen by the Commons of Ireland as their Speaker, and declaring his own Unfitneſs for that Truſt and Place, requeſts his Grace, that he would be pleaſed to order the Commons to return to their Houſe, and chooſe a fitter Perſon.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, confers with his Grace; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, acquaints the Houſe of Commons, as followeth:

who is approved of.

THE Knowledge his Grace my Lord Lieutenant has of you, and the Character you have in the World, do fully ſatisfy his Grace, that you are a Perſon fitly qualified for the great Truſt repoſed in you; and therefore his Grace has readily approved of the Choice, which the Commons have made of you, to be their Speaker.

It is a Circumſtance of great Satisfaction to his Grace, that your Election was unanimous; for his Grace cannot look upon this good Agreement in the Beginning, but as a certain Preſage of a happy Concluſion of this Seſſion of Parliament.

The Speaker moves for freedom of Speech, &c.

Then the Speaker moves, in the Name of the Commons of Ireland, and humbly demands the Commons may have Freedom of Speech in their Debates, may be protected in their Perſons, Eſtates and Attendants, and have free Acceſs to his Grace on all Occaſions.

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, kneeling, confers with his Grace; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, acquaints the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons as followeth:

Mr. Speaker,

HIS Grace my Lord Lieutenant has that Opinion of your Wiſdom, that he believes you will never aſk any thing of him, which his Reaſon or his Inclination will prompt him to deny. As for the Petitions you have now made, his Grace has granted them all, with this farther Aſſurance, that her Majeſty does deſire, and his Grace will endeavour, that the Privileges of the Commons be preſerved to them, and their Poſterity, for ever.

The Commons withdraw.

L^d Lieutenant retires. His Grace retires from this Houſe, attended as he entered.

Lords take the Oaths, &c. Edward Lord Biſhop of Kilmore and Ardagh, William Lord Biſhop of Clonfert and Kilmacduagh, Tobias Lord Biſhop of Dromore and Sir Richard Pyne, Knight, Lord Chief Juſtice of her Majeſty's Court of Queen's Bench, delivered their Writs, in the accuſtomed manner, to the Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, who delivered them to the Clerk of the Houſe; and afterwards took the Oaths, and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Chancellor report his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech; whereupon his Lordſhip delivered, in Writing, a Copy of the ſaid Speech at the Clerk's Table.

Ordered, that the Lord Lieutenant's Speech be read.

Read accordingly, in hæc verba:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech. THE Queen could not more effectually manifeſt her tender Concern for you, than by calling you at this time to meet in Parliament, whereby you have an Opportunity of paſſing thoſe gracious Bills, already ſent over, and of making ſuch other Laws as may yet be wanting for the Eſtabliſhment of the Proteſtant Religion, and the Welfare of the Kingdom.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

IT is to be wiſhed, that you were in Condition to provide for ſuch Fortifications, as would much conduce to the Safety of the Kingdom, and particularly at Limerick, and for building Barracks in this City, and where elſe they are wanting; but that which her Majeſty expects, at this Time, is only, that the publick Debts be diſcharged, and the Revenue made equal to the Expences of the Government, which is much increaſed by the Charge of the Barracks; and they are found ſo uſeful and ſo great an Eaſe to the Country, that they ought not to be neglected.

I have ordered all the Accounts to be laid before you, by which you will perceive that the Government has expended a very conſiderable Sum towards the building of Barracks, more than was given by the Parliament for that Purpoſe; and, when you are fully informed of Particulars, I have no doubt, but you will give as great Teſtimonies of Reſpect and Affection to her Majeſty, as have been given to any of her royal Predeceſſors.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

SINCE the Queen has done me the Honour to place me in this Station, as my Duty and Gratitude oblige me to ſerve her Majeſty, with the utmoſt Diligence and Fidelity, ſo my Inclination and Intereſt, and the Examples of my Anceſtors, are indiſpenſible Obligations upon me to improve every Opportunity, the moſt I can, to the Advantage and Proſperity of this my native Country.

I have all the Aſſurances that can be given, that the Regiments in the Weſt-Indies, on the Eſtabliſhment, ſhall ſoon return; and I will uſe my utmoſt Endeavours, that the whole Revenue may be expended in this Kingdom. And ſince I can have no other Deſign, than what you all aim at, the Queen's Service and the Good of our Country, I ſhall only recommend to you, that we may unite and agree in the ſame Meaſures to compaſs them; and that we may purſue them with that Wiſdom and Temper, which Matters of ſuch Importance require.

Order for printing Speech. Ordered, that the Clerk of this Houſe cauſe his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed.

Addreſs voted. Ordered, on Motion, that this Houſe make an Addreſs of Thanks to the Lord Lieutenant for his excellent Speech; and that the Lords under-named be a Committee to prepare the ſame, who are to withdraw immediately into the Committee-Chamber.

The Houſe re-aſſumes.

The Earl of Mount Alexander, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee appointed to draw up an Addreſs of Thanks from this Houſe to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant for his excellent Speech, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which was read at the Clerk's Table, in hæc verba:

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to the Lord Lieutenant. WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do unanimouſly render your Grace our moſt humble and hearty Thanks for your moſt excellent Speech, delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

We have a juſt and grateful Senſe of her Majeſty's Goodneſs, in calling us to meet together at this Time, and we cannot but admire her Majeſty's Wiſdom, in appointing your Grace to repreſent her royal Perſon upon this Occaſion, ſince only your Grace could, in this Juncture of Difficulty and Diſtreſs, compoſe the Minds of her People, and raiſe their Hopes, that ſome Relief is intended them.

We

We have an intire Confidence in your Grace, becauſe of your Grace's and your noble Anceſtors' conſtant Loyalty and Adherence to the Crown, and Zeal for the Proteſtant Religion, as by Law eſtabliſhed; the long Experience we have had of your generous and affectionate Inclinations to this Kingdom; and becauſe your great Intereſt in it, will oblige your Grace always to promote the Proſperity of this your native Country.

And we cannot omit to return our moſt humble Thanks to your Grace, for the Aſſurances you have been pleaſed to give us, That the Regiments in the Weſt Indies, on the Eſtabliſhment, ſhall ſoon return, and the Encouragement we have from your Grace to hope, that the whole Revenue of this Kingdom ſhall, for the future, be expended in it, which is abſolutely neceſſary for the Welfare thereof.

And ſince we cannot give a more effectual Teſtimony of the Honour and Eſteem we have for your Grace, than by paying all imaginable Regard to your Advice, we aſſure your Grace, that we ſhall be always ready to unite and agree in ſuch Meaſures, as ſhall be thought expedient for her Majeſty's Service and the Good of this Kingdom; and ſhall never be wanting to expreſs as much Duty, Loyalty and Reſpect to her Majeſty, as ever was done to any of her royal Predeceſſors.

Which is agreed to by the Houſe.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Chancellor do forthwith wait on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to know his Pleaſure, when and where this Houſe, with their Speaker, may attend him, with an Addreſs of Thanks for his excellent Speech.

Ordered, on Motion, that an Addreſs be made to the Queen's Majeſty, congratulating her Acceſſion to the Crown.

Addreſs to the Queen, voted.

Ordered, on Motion, that an Addreſs of Thanks be made to the Queen's Majeſty, for her great Care of her Subjects of this Kingdom, in ſending his Grace the Duke of Ormond to be Lord Lieutenant thereof.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lords undernamed, or any three of them, be a Committee to draw an Addreſs to the Queen's Majeſty, congratulating her Acceſſion to the Crown; and alſo an Addreſs of Thanks to her Majeſty, for her great Care of her Subjects of this Kingdom, in ſending his Grace the Duke of Ormond to be Lord Lieutenant thereof; and that this Committee do meet in the Committee-Chamber To-morrow Morning, at Nine of the clock.

The Addreſs, congratulating her Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Crown of England, agreed to with ſome Amendments, in hæc verba:

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the Queen.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do offer up our unfeigned Thanks to Almighty God, for placing your Majeſty upon the Throne of your royal Anceſtors, and bleſſing us with a Queen of ſuch great Piety and Wiſdom, who alone can repair the Loſs of the Reſtorer of our common Liberties, our late Sovereign King William of glorious Memory, and make us ſtill hope to be a flouriſhing and happy People.

Your Majeſty's unparalelled Reſolution, in adhering to the Proteſtant Religion and Intereſt, when Popery and arbitrary Power had almoſt overwhelmed both, muſt, to your Majeſty's Glory be ever remembered, in all the Proteſtant Countries of Europe, but more particularly in this your Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland.

The great Care your Majeſty, upon all Occaſions, ſhews for the Welfare of your People, and your tender Commiſeration of ſuch of them as are in Diſtreſs, do give us of this Kingdom, reaſon to hope, that we ſhall always enjoy the Benefit of thoſe royal Qualities, ſince we can, with the greateſt Truth, affirm, that none of your Subjects think themſelves more happy in being under your Majeſty's Government, than we, who are moſt zealouſly devoted to your Service and Intereſt, and that of the Proteſtant Religion, as by Law eſtabliſhed.

And we beg Leave to take this Opportunity of aſſuring your Majeſty, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, ſupport and defend your Majeſty's Crown and Government, and the Succeſſion of the ſame in the Proteſtant Line. And, as we are ſenſible, that our Preſervation is owing to our being united to the Crown of England, ſo we are convinced it would tend to our further Security and Happineſs, to have a more comprehenſive and intire Union with that Kingdom.

Letter of Thanks agreed to.

The Addreſs of Thanks, by way of Letter, to her Majeſty, for her great Care of her Subjects of this Kingdom, in ſending his Grace the Duke of Ormond to be Lord Lieutenant thereof, agreed to.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Committee appointed to draw an Addreſs of Thanks, by way of Letter, to her Majeſty, for her great Care of her Subjects of this Kingdom, in ſending his Grace the Duke of Ormond to be Lord Lieutenant thereof, do meet To-morrow Morning, at Nine of the clock, in the Committee-Chamber, to conſider of a Concluſion to the ſaid Letter, and how it muſt be ſent to her Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Letter of Thanks.

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and obedient Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do, as in Duty bound, return our Praiſes to God, and Thanks to your Majeſty, for your royal and ſingular Care over us, and Affection towards us, ſo ſignally manifeſted in your happy Choice of James Duke of Ormond, to be your Lieutenant and Chief Governor over this your Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland, which hath always flouriſhed under the Government of his noble Anceſtors.

Never did any People ſtand more in need of a Governor of ſuch heroic Virtues, and never did this Nation conceive greater Hopes of having the preſent Difficulties, they labour under, removed; and your Majeſty's, and the Engliſh Intereſt of this Kingdom, promoted, than under his Government.

In the Adminiſtration whereof, we doubt not but his Grace will ſignalize his Prudence at home, under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Influence, as he has his Military Conduct abroad, in the glorious Cauſe of the Liberties of Europe: And that he may do ſo, and that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous over us, ſhall be the conſtant Prayers and Endeavours of

Your Majeſty's moſt loyal, moſt dutiful and moſt obedient Subjects and Servants.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Judges be covered.

Simon Lord Biſhop of Elphin, Nathaniel Lord Biſhop of Waterford and Liſmore, and William Lord Biſhop of Killala, delivered their Writs, in the accuſtomed manner, to the Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, who delivered them to the Clerk of the Houſe, and then took the Oaths and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration.

The Lord Chancellor, in his Place, reports, that he had waited on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to know his Grace's Pleaſure, when and where this Houſe, with their Speaker, ſhould attend him with an Addreſs to the Queen's Majeſty, congratulating her Acceſſion to the Crown; and that his Grace appointed this Afternoon, at One of the clock, at the Caſtle of Dublin.

The Earl of Mount Alexander, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee, appointed to conſider of a Concluſion to the Letter to her Majeſty, for her great Care of her Subjects of this Kingdom, in ſending his Grace the Duke of Ormond, to be Lord Lieutenant thereof, that they had agreed thereto, which was read at the Clerk's Table.

Which Letter is agreed to, and ſigned by all the Lords of this Houſe, and dated this Day, and the Superſcription to be,

To the Queen's moſt excellent Majeſty.

Which follows, in hæc verba:

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Letter of Thanks.

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and obedient Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do, as in Duty bound, return our Praiſes to God, and Thanks to your Majeſty, for your royal and ſingular Care over us, and Affection towards us, ſo ſignally manifeſted in your happy Choice of James Duke of Ormond, to be your Lieutenant and Chief Governor over this your Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland, which hath always flouriſhed under the Government of his noble Anceſtors.

Never did any People ſtand more in need of a Governor of ſuch heroic Virtues, and never did this Nation conceive greater Hopes of having the preſent Difficulties, they labour under, removed; and your Majeſty's, and the Engliſh Intereſt of this Kingdom, promoted, than under his Government.

In the Adminiſtration whereof, we doubt not but his Grace will ſignalize his Prudence at home, under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Influence, as he has his Military Conduct abroad, in the glorious Cauſe of the Liberties of Europe: And that he may do ſo, and that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous over us, ſhall be the conſtant Prayers and Endeavours of

Your Majeſty's moſt loyal, moſt dutiful and moſt obedient Subjects and Servants.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Judges have the Leave of this Houſe to give an Anſwer, in in Writing, to the two Orders, ſent them by the Commons; one whereof is for the ſaid Judges to give an Account to the Commons, what Regulars and Perſons of the Popiſh religion, exerciſing eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction, have at any time been brought before them, together with their Proceedings thereupon; and the other, for the Judges to give an Account, what Applications have been made to them by Grand Juries, or otherwiſe, relating to the Popiſh Regulars, and others exerciſing eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction, together with their Proceedings thereupon.

Report on the Succeſſion Bill.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee appointed to conſider of the Meſſage from the Commons, in relation to the Heads of a Bill, to make it high Treaſon in this Kingdom, by Word or Writing, to impeach the Succeſſion of the Crown, as limited by ſeveral Acts of Parliament, that they met, and on reading a Precedent in their Journals, in 1695, reported by the ſaid Lord Archbiſhop to this Houſe Yeſterday, came to this Reſolution:

Order to preſerve Correſpondence with Commons.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that to continue a Correſpondence and good Underſtanding between this Houſe, and the Commons, in relation to the drawing up Heads of Bills, ſo as both Houſes may be apprized thereof, before the ſaid Heads be offered to the Government, to be laid before the Council-Board, that it may be a proper way to preſerve the ſaid Correſpondence, that when this Houſe have agreed upon the Heads of any Bill, of ſuch Nature and Importance, that they judge the Concurrence of the Commons, may conduce to the paſſing them into a Law, that they communicate the ſaid Heads to the Commons by a Meſſage; and that this Houſe receive and conſider ſuch Heads of Bills, as ſhall be ſent up by the Houſe of Commons, for the Concurrence of this Houſe.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Debate relating to the Meſſage, brought up by Mr. Clayton from the Commons, be adjourned until To-morrow Morning, at Ten of the clock, and nothing to intervene.

Prayers read by the Right Rev. Father in God, Dive Lord Biſhop of Cork.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor acquaints this Houſe, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant has received her Majeſty's gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe, congratulating her Acceſſion to the Crown, and an Addreſs of Thanks, by Way of Letter, for her Great Care of her Subjects of this Kingdom, in ſending the Duke of Ormond to be Lord Lieutenant and Chief Governor over them, and that his Grace appointed Twelve of the clock this Day, for this Houſe, with their Speaker, to attend him.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Armagh, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Lords appointed to conſider of the Petition of the Baron of Corthny Rouſell; that they met, and prepared a Recommendation to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, in favour of the ſaid Baron of Corthny Rouſell, which was read at the Clerk's Table, in hæc verba:

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs in behalf of Ld Rouſell.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, in Conſideration of the good Services of the Baron of Corthny Rouſell his extraordinary Charity to diſtreſſed Proteſtants in the late Troubles, his Sufferings and Loſſes for his late Majeſty's Service, and the Proteſtant Intereſt, and his preſent poor and miſerable Condition, do moſt earneſtly recommend the ſaid Baron to your Grace, as a very proper Object of her Majeſty's Charity and Compaſſion, humbly praying your Grace, as effectually and ſpeedily as you can, to procure him and his diſtreſſed Family, ſomething for their preſent Relief, they being reduced to the laſt Extremity, and to recommend him to her Majeſty, to be ſupported by a ſettled Penſion. And whereas it fully appears to us, that his late Majeſty intended for him a Grant of £200 a Year for ever, out of the forfeited Eſtates, upon the Recommendation of this Houſe, for his Relief; and that he never had any Benefit of this his late Majeſty's royal Compaſſion to him, the Act of Reſumption paſſing about that time: We are humble Petitioners in his behalf, that in Lieu of the Eſtate deſigned him, your Grace will ſo effectually recommend him to her Majeſty's royal Charity, that he may have a Penſion of £200 a Year, ſettled upon himſelf, his Lady and Daughter, and this to be continued to the Survivor of them.

Ordered, on Motion, that this Houſe, with their Speaker, do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant immediately, to receive her Majeſty's gracious Anſwer.

Ordered,

Ordered, on Motion, that this Houſe, at the ſame time, when they attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant to receive her Majeſtys gracious Anſwer, do deliver unto his Grace the Recommendation from this Houſe, in behalf of the Baron of Corthny Rouſell.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs in behalf of Clerks, &c. to Lord Lieutenant.

WE humbly repreſent that the Officers attending the Houſe of Lords, have had no Gratuity or Reward for their Pains and Attendance, ſince the late Revolution; that the Fees allowed them are very ſmall, and no way proportionable to their Labour; that they have been diligent in their Service, and do deſerve a Conſideration for it: That Addreſſes have been made to this Effect by the Lords, in every Parliament held ſince the Revolution: That a Reward has been promiſed upon all ſuch Addreſſes, but nothing has yet been given to the ſaid Officers. We therefore humbly and earneſtly apply ourſelves to your Grace in their behalf, that £1230 may be given, out of ſuch Funds as your Grace ſhall think fit, for the Labour and Service of the ſaid Officers.

The Managers for this Houſe return.

Report from Conference,

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, ſtanding in his Place, reports from the Lords, appointed to manage the Conference with the Commons, that they received from the Commons, who managed the ſaid Conference, by Thomas Brodrick, Eſq; a written Paper, which was read in hæc verba:

Paper delivered by Commons.

"THE Commons, intending to keep a per-"fect good Correſpondence between the two "Houſes, think fit to put your Lordſhips in "mind, that a Committee of the Commons, "appointed to manage a Conference with "your Lordſhips, did, on the 13th Day of "October laſt, deliver a Paper to your Lord-"ſhips, ſignifying, that the Commons had "received Information, that Nicholas Lawleſs, "being ſummoned to appear as a Witneſs in "a Cauſe, to be heard at the Bar of their "Houſe, on Tueſday the 12th Day of that inſt. "October, after being examined, was, on Re-"turn to his Lodging, taken into the Cuſtody "of the Serjeant at Arms of the Houſe of "Lords, in Breach of the Privilege of the "Houſe of Commons; and that the Commons, "being deſirous to preſerve a good Correſ-"pondence with the Houſe of Peers, thought "fit to acquaint your Lordſhips therewith, "before they would proceed againſt the ſaid "Serjeant at Arms, for ſuch his Breach of the "Privilege of the Houſe of Commons.

"And that your Lordſhips, at a further "Conference between the two Houſes, on the "14th Day of the ſame Month of October, did "deliver a Paper, in anſwer to the aforeſaid "Paper, delivered by the Commons, thereby "ſignifying your Deſire to preſerve a good "Correſpondence with the Commons; and "being informed by your Managers, at a "Conference that Day, that Nicholas Lawleſs "had

" had been ſummoned as a Witneſs, to give " Evidence at the Bar of the Houſe of Com- " mons, of which your Lordſhips could not " be apprized, before the ſaid Information, " your Lordſhips had diſcharged the ſaid " Lawleſs without Fees; that he may have " the Privilege belonging to Witneſſes, ſum- " moned in ſuch Caſes, to come and return " in convenient Time: And, although the " Commons were ſenſible, that the ſaid An- " ſwer could not be ſatisfactory, in regard " your Lordſhips do therein expreſs your- " ſelves in ſuch a Manner, as may ſeem to " aſſume a Power of judging of and limiting " what Time Perſons, ſummoned as Witneſſes " at the Bar of the Houſe of Commons, ought " to enjoy by the Privilege of the Commons; " and as if the Diſcharge of Lawleſs were a " Conceſſion of your Lordſhips, rather than a " Right due to the Commons, yet the Houſe " of Commons did not think fit, at that Time, " to preſs your Lordſhips for any further Satiſ- " faction. But the Commons having received " a Meſſage from your Lordſhips, the 25th " Day of this inſt. November, acquainting " them, that your Lordſhips had received no " Anſwer to a Paper, delivered to the Mana- " gers for the Commons, at a Conference, on " the 16th Day of October laſt, containing, that " the Lords do conceive themſelves to be the " only Judges of their own Privileges; and " therefore if Bryan M'Manus his Excuſe for " the Breach of Privilege complained of, had " been made out at the Bar of the Lords' " Houſe, their Lordſhips (out of a due Re- " gard to a Member of the Houſe of Commons, " whoſe Servant he is ſaid to be) might have " been induced to have remitted the ſame; " but, until that be done, they cannot think " the ſame Regard is ſhewn to their Lordſhips' " Privileges, as their Lordſhips have upon this " Occaſion, and will, upon all others, ſhew " to the Privileges of the Commons: By " which it ſeems your Lordſhips remain unſa- " tisfied with a Paper, delivered at a Confe- " rence with your Lordſhips, by the Managers " for the Commons, on the 14th Day of Oct. " laſt, concerning the ſaid Bryan M'Manus.

" The Commons, on this Occaſion, think it " neceſſary to acquaint your Lordſhips, that " they conceive themſelves to be the only " Judges of their own Privileges; and there- " fore, if the Serjeant at Arms attending the " Houſe of Peers his Excuſe for the Breach of " Privilege, complained of, in taking Lawleſs, " (a Witneſs, at the Bar of the Houſe of Com- " mons) into Cuſtody, had been made out at " the Bar of the Houſe of Commons, that " Houſe, out of a due Regard to a Servant of " of the Houſe of Peers, might have been " induced to have remitted the ſame. But, " until that be done, they cannot think the " ſame Regard is ſhewn to the Privileges of " the Commons, as your Lordſhips do expect " the Commons ſhould ſhew to the Privileges " of your Lordſhips."

Order for an Anſwer thereto.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lords appointed Managers for this Houſe, at the laſt Conference with the Commons, be a Committee to prepare an Anſwer to the Paper, delivered by the Commons at the ſaid Conference; and that they do meet in the Committee-Chamber, on Monday Morning next, at Nine of the clock.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin reports, that his Grace and the Lord Biſhop of Ferns, purſuant to the Order of this Houſe, waited on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the Heads of a Bill for the Eaſe of the Subject, in proving, on Trials at Law, their having taken ſuch Oaths, and having made and ſubſcribed ſuch Declaration, as by Law required, and deſired the ſame may be laid before the Council-Board, in order to be tranſmitted into England. To which his Grace made Anſwer, He would lay them before the Council-Board.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin reports, that his Grace and the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam, purſuant to the Order of this Houſe, waited on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, with the Heads of a Bill for Exchange of Glebes, and deſired the ſame to be laid before the Council-Board, in order to be tranſmitted into England: To which his Grace made Anſwer, He would lay them before the Council-Board.

To the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Addreſs.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, out of a grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy by your wiſe and juſt Adminiſtration at home, and the proſperous Succeſſes of your Arms abroad, humbly beg Leave to declare our Deteſtation of the pernicious Deſigns, which have lately been carried on in Scotland, by Emiſſaries from France, to diſturb the Happineſs of your glorious Reign.

And we aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, at all times, uſe our utmoſt Care to prevent, and our moſt hearty Endeavours to defeat, all traitorous Conſpiracies againſt your Majeſty, and to defend your royal Perſon and Government, and maintain the Succeſſion of the Proteſtant Line, as limited by Law, againſt all Oppoſers.

And ſince your Majeſty has been pleaſed to expreſs a juſt Concern for the Preſervation of the Monarchy, and zealous Regard to the Welfare of the eſtabliſhed Church, we further declare our unanimous Reſolution of aſſiſting your Majeſty in tranſmitting them, ſecurely ſettled, to all Poſterity, being fully perſuaded, that as the one is the moſt happy Form of Government, ſo the other is the beſt conſtituted Church in the World.

Ordered,

To the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Addreſs to the Queen. WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to lay before your Majeſty, our moſt humble Acknowledgments and hearty Thanks, for your Majeſty's tender Care of this your Kingdom of Ireland, and for thoſe happy Effects of your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, in the many excellent Bills, by your Order, tranſmitted to us this Seſſion of Parliament. And as we doubt not, but theſe good Laws will advance the Proſperity of the Engliſh Intereſt in this Kingdom, and be a laſting Security to the Proteſtant Religion, by Law eſtabliſhed; ſo we think ourſelves obliged, in Gratitude and Duty, to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will contribute all we can to thoſe glorious Ends, that we and our Poſterity may celebrate your Majeſty's Reign, which has been diſtinguiſhed by ſuch effectual Marks of your royal Favour, and which we earneſtly pray may be long and happy over us.

Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant To his Grace James Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland:

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do, with great Satisfaction, behold your Grace following the Example of your illuſtrious Anceſtors, in your eminent Loyalty to the Crown, your conſtant Adherence to the Religion, by Law eſtabliſhed, and your ſincere and hearty Endeavours for the Proſperity of this your native Country.

We now attend your Grace, to acknowledge and congratulate, in the Concluſion of this Seſſion, the good Effects of your indefatigable Application, as well in the framing, as in obtaining, the Return of ſo many good Bills from her Majeſty, now ready for the royal Aſſent: We can never ſufficiently expreſs our Gratitude to our moſt Religious and Gracious Queen, for ſo many Inſtances of her Goodneſs, at one time beſtowed upon us, but eſpecially for the Bill to prevent the Growth of Popery.

And we are ſo ſenſible of the great Part your Grace had in the diſpenſing thoſe Favours to us, that as we are obliged by Intereſt and Duty, to ſupport her Majeſty's Crown and Dignity; ſo we ſhall always endeavour to contribute to your Grace's Honour and Eaſe, in the Adminiſtration of this Government.

The Lord Biſhop of Cork, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports, from the Committee, appointed to draw up an Anſwer to a Paper, delivered by the Commons, at a Conference, on the 27th of November laſt; that they met, and had prepared an Anſwer which was read, in hæc verba:

Anſwer to the Paper from Commons.

THE Lords, intending to keep, upon all Occaſions, a good Correſpondence with the Commons, did ſhew ſuch a Reſpect to that Hon. Houſe, by diſcharging Mr. Nicholas Lawleſs, as ſoon as they were informed, that the ſaid Lawleſs had been attending, as a Witneſs, to be examined at the Bar; and he, being diſcharged without Fees, as was mentioned by a Meſſage from this Houſe, on the 14th of October laſt, they did not expect to have heard any further Obſervation on the Proceedings againſt Mr. Lawleſs, on a Breach of Privilege againſt this Houſe. Their Lordſhips were much ſurprized to find it alledged in the Commons' Anſwer, of 27th of November, that their Lordſhips had limited any time to Mr. Lawleſs to return home, their Lordſhips having named no Time, nor did their Lordſhips take upon them to argue with the Commons, upon the Breach of Privilege complained of by them (tho' it appeared to proceed only from the Ignorance of the Serjeant at Arms) but immediately gave all the Satisfaction to the Commons that was poſſible; whilſt, on the contrary, the Commons have thought fit to aſſume to themſelves the Liberty of debating the Breach of Privilege, committed againſt their Lordſhips; and have had no Anſwer from the Commons, to the Meſſage from this Houſe, of the 16th of November, 'till the 27th of the ſame Month; and in that Anſwer, they have given no Satisfaction to this Houſe, as to the Breach of Privilege, committed by Bryan M'Manus.

To which the Houſe agrees.

Meſſage to Commons for Conference.

Ordered, on Motion, that Dr. Uſher and Dr. White, two of the Maſters in Chancery, do repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint them, that this Houſe deſire a Conference with them immediately, in the Conference-Chamber, on the Subject-matter of the laſt Conference.

Report from Conference.

The Lord Biſhop of Kilmore reports from the Managers, at a Conference with the Commons, that they delivered to the Commons the Anſwer to a Paper, delivered at a Conference with the Commons, on the 27th of November laſt, which was agreed to by this Houſe this Day.

The Lord Chancellor reports, that this Houſe, with their Speaker, had attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the two Addreſſes; one, to her Majeſty, for her great Kindneſs to this Nation; and the other, to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his ſincere Endeavours for the Proſperity of this Kingdom: To which his Grace made Anſwer, "I "will lay before her Majeſty the Addreſs; and "I thank you heartily for your kind Addreſs "to me; and I will always endeavour to de- "ſerve your good Opinion."

Ld Lieutenant preſent.

His Grace James Duke of Ormond, Ld Lieut. General, and General Governor of Ireland, enters the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Roſcomon bearing the Cap of Maintenance; the Earl of Londonderry carrying the Sword of State; William Fitzmaurice, Eſq; eldeſt Son to the Lord Baron of Kerry and Lixnawe, and Charles Henry Caulfield, Eſq; youngeſt Son to the Lord Viſc. Charlemont, bearing the Train; and his Grace, making his Congé, to the Cloth of State, ſeated himſelf in the Chair under the Canopy.

Commons ſent for.

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, kneeling, confers with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, orders the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to acquaint the Commons, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant commands their Attendance in this Houſe immediately.

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod returns, and acquaints this Houſe, that the Commons are at the Door.

Ordered, that they be called in.

The

Commons enter with a Money-Bill.

The Commons enter the Houſe, with their Speaker before them, being conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher, with the uſual Ceremonies.

His Grace the Lord Lieutenant made an excellent Speech, in hæc verba:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

YOU gave me Reaſon to believe, when I put an end to the laſt Seſſion, that the many good Bills that were then paſſed, gave intire Satisfaction: And as I have ſince performed the Promiſe I then made you, to repreſent to her Majeſty the true State of this Kingdom, and with what Chearfulneſs her faithful Commons gave ſuch Supplies as their Circumſtances would then permit; ſo I am now to aſſure you, her Majeſty is fully ſatisfied of the Loyalty and good Affections of her Subjects here, and therefore depends upon your having always the ſame good Diſpoſition to ſupport her Government, and that you will never want the Regard you ought to have to our common Safety.

Her Majeſty is ſenſible of the preſent ill Condition of Trade; and though that be chiefly owing to the War, and cannot be entirely removed, until the further Succeſs of her victorious Arms forces her Enemies to an honourable Peace; yet I have Reaſon to hope, that we ſhall ſoon find the good Effects of her Majeſty's gracious Endeavours for our Relief.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

HER Majeſty's Honour and the Intereſt of this Kingdom, are ſo much concerned in the punctual Payment of the Army, and other neceſſary Charges of the Government, that I cannot doubt but you will make a ſuitable Proviſion for the ſame; and, that you may have a perfect View of what is owing by the Queen to her Eſtabliſhment, and what may be expected out of the ſeveral Branches of the Revenue, I have ordered the proper Officers to lay their Accounts before you, which, when you have conſidered, you will find, that the Arrears of the preceding Year muſt always be applied to make good the Payments of the preſent Year; and that, in this time of War and Danger, there is a Neceſſity of having Money in the Treaſury, to anſwer ſudden Emergencies.

It will likewiſe be very well worth your Conſideration, that Care be taken of the Fortifications, and of ſuch a Supply of Arms and Ammunition, as may ſecure the Publick from any Inſult of our Enemies.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I HAVE nothing more to recommend to you, but that you will make uſe of this favourable Opportunity, that her Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to allow you, to conſider of ſuch Laws as may be further neceſſary for the publick Peace and Proſperity; and that you will chearfully concur in bringing this Seſſion to ſuch a happy Concluſion, as may be for the Honour of her Majeſty and the Good of this Nation.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Addreſs to the Queen.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do humbly congratulate the glorious Victory obtained by your Majeſty's Forces, in Conjunction with thoſe of your Allies, under the Command of the Duke of Marlborough, and we do adore the Goodneſs of God, for the many great Succeſſes with which he has bleſſed your Majeſty's Arms, ſince your happy Acceſſion to the Throne.

We are highly ſenſible, how much we owe to your Majeſty, for thoſe many good Laws, you were graciouſly pleaſed to give the royal Aſſent to, the laſt Seſſion: And we eſteem it our greateſt Happineſs, that we have a Queen whoſe Delight is in the Safety and Proſperity of her People and who daily ſhews ſuch tender Care of them.

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer in behalf of the Officers.

The Lord Chancellor reports, that he waited on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and acquainted him, that this Hon. Houſe had directed him to move his Grace, in behalf of the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, that the Gratuity or Reward may be given them, for which this Houſe had addreſſed his Grace on the 25th of November, 1703; who made this Anſwer, That his Grace, when he was in England, did lay the Addreſs of this Houſe before my Lord Treaſurer, to be preſented to her Majeſty, and he will take Care to repreſent this Memorial in the moſt effectual manner he can.

Report of Precedents to puniſh abſent Lords.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee appointed to inſpect the Journals of this Houſe and find out by what Means the Lords of this Houſe may be puniſhed for not giving their due Attendance in this Houſe; that they met, and directed him to report their Proceedings therein, which he did, in hæc verba:

THAT they have inſpected the Journals of this Houſe, and find, by that of 1692, * (folio 20) that the Lords, neglecting to attend the Service of the Houſe, have been fined reſpectively to their Degrees of Honour, viz. an Earl £150, a Viſcount £100, and a Baron 100 Marks.

And by the Journal of 1695, † (folio 61) every Lord of this Houſe, who hath, or ſhall have, the Leave of this Houſe to be abſent, ſhall take out from the Clerk of this Houſe the Order for his being ſo abſent; or, in Default thereof, ſuch Lord ſhall be eſteemed to be abſent, without the Leave of this Houſe.

The Lord Biſhop of Cork acquaints this Houſe, that he finds recorded in the Rolls' Office, a Writ, bearing Date the 20th of June, in the 51ſt Year of Edward III. by which it appears, that the Abbot of Tractim, having received the King's Writ, requiring him to appear, together with the other Prelates, great Men, &c. in the laſt Parliament, held in Dublin; for his not appearing, according to the Writ, was amerced in £10 in the Parliament aforeſaid, which £10 were eſtreated into the Exchequer: Upon which the aforeſaid Abbot made his Supplication to the King, that his Majeſty would be pleaſed to pardon and remit the ſaid Amercement; upon which, Supplication the King directs his Writ to the Treaſurer and Barons of the Exchequer, ſignifying, that (ſince the aforeſaid Amercement or Fine was impoſed in Parliament, and could not be remitted, without the Conſent of Parliament) it was his Majeſty's Pleaſure, that the levying the ſaid Amercement ſhould be reſpited till Quindena Paſchæ next, to the intent the ſaid Abbot might, in the mean time, ſue in the Parliament, or great Council, for the Remittal of the ſaid Amercement. And that in the 27th Year of King Henry VI. it appears, alſo on Record, in the Rolls' Office, that, upon the Supplication of the Biſhop of Leighlin, who had been amerced in £20, for not appearing in the great Council, held in the 26th Year of the ſame King Henry VI. it was ordained, by the Authority of the ſaid Parliament, that the ſaid Biſhop ſhould be diſcharged of the ſaid £20 againſt the King and his Officers, for the time to come.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Chief Juſtice Doyne do inform this Houſe, what he knows relating to the fining or puniſhing of Lords, for not giving their due Attendance in the Houſe of Lords, which he did accordingly, in hæc verba:

Lord Chief Juſtice Doyne's Report of Precedents.

Report from Committee of Privileges.

The Earl of Mount Alexander, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee of Privileges, to whom the Breach of Privilege, committed againſt this Houſe by Samuel Eyre, Eſq; William Kearaghan, Edward Betagh, and William Kelly, in arreſting of John Bolton, a Servant to the Lord Biſhop of Elphin, was committed; that they met, and it appeared unto them, that John Bolton is now, and has been, menial Servant to the Right Rev. Father in God, the Lord Biſhop of Elphin, theſe two Years laſt paſſed.

It alſo appears to this Committee, that the ſaid John Bolton, on the 10th of January laſt, ſhewed a Certificate, under the Biſhop of Elphin's Hand and Seal, to Samuel Eyre, Eſq; High Sheriff of the Co. Galway, of his being menial Servant to the ſaid Lord Biſhop.

It likewiſe appears, that the ſaid Bolton was, notwithſtanding, arreſted on the 19th of the ſaid Month of January, by Edward Betagh, William Kelly, and William Kearaghan, at the Suit of John Kelly of Feddan, by Virtue of a Warrant from the ſaid High Sheriff.

It further appears, that, notwithſtanding the ſaid Certificate was ſhewn to the aforeſaid Betagh, Kelly, and Kearaghan, at the ſame time the ſaid Bolton was arreſted, and Application made to the ſaid Sheriff, to ſet him at Liberty, he the ſaid Bolton was kept in Priſon ſeven Days: And then was forced to give Bail to the ſaid John Kelly's Suit, before he could be releaſed.

It is therefore the Opinion of this Committee, that Samuel Eyre, Eſq; High-Sheriff of the Co. Galway, John Kelly, Edward Betagh, Will. Kelly, and William Kearaghan, are guilty of a Breach of the Privilege of this Houſe.

Order thereon.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, do forthwith apprehend and take the Bodies of Samuel Eyre, Eſq; High-Sheriff of the Co. Galway, John Kelly of Feddan, Edward Betagh, Will. Kelly, and William Kearaghan, for a Breach of Privilege by them committed againſt this Houſe, in arreſting of John Bolton, a Servant to the Lord Biſhop of Elphin, and them, and every of them, ſo taken, in ſafe Cuſtody to keep, until the further Order of this Houſe.

Prayers read by the Right Rev. Father in God, St. George Lord Biſhop of Clogher.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Judges be covered.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Orders of the Day be read.

Read accordingly.

Ordered, purſuant to the Order of the Day, that the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam do, in his Place, anſwer the Petition of George Noble, William Weſt, Nath. Putt, Thomas Abbys, Samuel Vere and John Hillar, all Merchants in London.

Petition of the London Merchants againſt the Archbiſhop of Tuam.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Petition of George Noble, William Weſt, Nath. Putt, Thomas Abbys, Samuel Vere and John Hillar, all Merchants in London, be read.

Read accordingly.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam, ſtanding in his Place, anſwers the ſaid Petition accordingly.

Reſolved, on Queſtion, that the Anſwer made by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam, in his Place, to the Petition of George Noble, William Weſt, Nath. Putt, Thomas Abbys, Samuel Vere and John Hillar, all Merchants in London, hath given Satisfaction to this Houſe; that John Hart, in the Petition mentioned, was a menial Servant to his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam, at the time of his the ſaid Hart's being arreſted, and ſome time before. Anſwer deemed ſatisfactory.

The Earl of Mount Alexander, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports, from the Committee of Privileges, to whom was referred what was done in the Diſturbance of the Lord Biſhop of Killaloe's Poſſeſſion, in the Lands of Gortinegarke and Gortfadda, in the Co. Clare; that they met, and do find by the Journal of this Houſe that on 7th March 1704 on Examination of Matthew Bolton, before the Lords of the Committee of Privileges, it appeared, that the Lands of Gortfadda and Gortinegarke in the Pariſh of Kilnemona, Barony of Inchiquin and Co. Clare, have been in the Poſſeſſion of the Lord Biſhop of Killaloe for ſeven Years laſt paſt, and now are; and that he heard, they have been theſe forty Years in the Poſſeſſion of the Biſhops of Killaloe: That by the ſaid Bolton's Evidence, it appeared, that Pierce Butler and his Son Richard Butler, are guilty of a Breach of Privilege of this Houſe, by invading the Lord Biſhop of Killaloe's Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Lands. Report from Committee of Privileges. 7 Mar. 1704.

Upon which an Order was granted to the Serjeant at Arms againſt the ſaid Pierce and Richard Butler.

20th March, 1704. That, upon Examination of Alexander Herne and Matthew Bolton, at the Bar of this moſt Hon. Houſe, it appeared, that, purſuant to the Order of this Houſe, the ſaid Pierce Butler was taken into Cuſtody at Ennis in the Co. Clare: that John Butler, Son to the ſaid Pierce, and ſeveral others, aſſaulted one Howlett Parker, who was aſſiſting the ſaid Herne, and endeavoured to reſcue the ſaid Pierce Butler from the ſaid Herne: that the ſaid Herne brought the ſaid Pierce Butler to Birr in the King's County, at which Place he made his Eſcape.

That thereupon an Order was granted to the Serjeant at Arms, for apprehending the ſaid Pierce Butler, John Butler, Richard Butler and Morgan M'Mahon, for a Contempt by them committed, in endeavouring to reſcue the ſaid Pierce Butler.

1ſt May, 1705. It was further ordered by this moſt Hon. Houſe, that the Serjeant at Arms ſhould apprehend the ſaid Pierce Butler, John Butler, Richard Butler and Morgan M'Mahon, for a Contempt by them committed againſt this Houſe, in endeavouring to reſcue the ſaid Pierce Butler out of the Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe; and that all Mayors, Sheriffs, Coroners, and other her Majeſty's Officers and Subjects whatſoever, be aiding and aſſiſting in the Execution of this Warrant.

The Committee further find, by the Examination of H. Parker, that he knows the Lands of Gortfadda and Gortinegarke, in the Pariſh of Killnemona, Barony of Inchiquin and Co. Clare, were in the Poſſeſſion of the Right Rev. Father in God the Lord Biſhop of Killaloe, for theſe three Years laſt paſt, and were held by Archibald Young the Examinant's Father-in-law, and by the Examinant, by Virtue of a Leaſe from the ſaid Lord Biſhop. This Examinant further ſaith, that he never heard that any other Perſon or Perſons, other than the ſaid Lord Biſhop, laid Claim to the ſaid Lands, till about the 16th or 17th of February laſt paſt, at which time Mr. Pierce Butler, and Richard Butler his Son, drove their Cattle upon the ſaid Lands, alledging the ſaid Lands were their own Lands: That thereupon the Examinant ordered the ſaid Cattle to be drove to the Pound; and the ſaid Mr. Butler and his Son reſcued the ſaid Cattle, inſiſting, the ſaid Lands were their Inheritance; and then threatened to knock this Examinant in the Head. That the ſaid Examinant gave the Lord Biſhop an Account of the Reſcue; upon which his Lordſhip wrote to the Examinant, to go to Mr. Butler, and deſire he would give the Examinant no more Trouble or Diſturbance; and alſo to acquaint him, of the Biſhop's Privilege of Parliament; which he accordingly did: Upon which the ſaid Butler replied, He cared not for the ſaid Lord Biſhop, for that he was not the firſt Biſhop he had knocked down. That the ſaid Butler's Cattle were not on the ſaid Lands, when the ſaid Biſhop's Letter was ſhewn to the ſaid Mr. Butler: But immediately after he drove his Cattle on the ſaid Lands, and ſince that time, he continues to keep his Cattle on the ſaid Lands, as his own Lands. The Examinant further ſaith, that the ſaid Butler then ſaid, That if he the Examinant offered to put his Cattle on the ſaid Lands, he would carry them where he ſhould never ſee them again: And he and his Sons threatened, that if this Examinant offered to ſet his Foot on the Land, they would ſhoot him. And further ſaith, he the ſaid Butler has generally thirty or forty men aſſembled, to prevent the ſaid Examinant from pounding the ſaid Cattle, and to diſturb the Biſhop's Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Lands; that the ſaid Butler told this Examinant, That ſoon he would not leave him a Foot of Land. He further ſaith, that the ſaid Butler told this Examinant, That if he had not told the Biſhop of his diſturbing the Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Lands, he would have ſet him a Leaſe of 21 Years very cheap, and it ſhould coſt him no more than he paid the ſaid Lord Biſhop. That he the ſaid Biſhop would not be there always, and he need not care who had it after he was gone. Saith, that when the ſaid Butler was taken by the Serjeant at Arms' Meſſenger, the ſaid Butler's Son took a Whip, and ſtruck at the ſaid Meſſenger, which the Examinant defended with a Cane; and then the ſaid Butler and his Son ſeized on this Examinant, and took him by the Throat, and ſtruck him ſeveral times, and with a Spit made a Hole in his Coat, and another in his Breeches. He further ſaith, that when the ſecond Order went down to apprehend them, he heard the ſaid Butler was out on his keeping, on the Mountains; and ſaid, "He "did not care for the Parliament, as long as "he could keep out of their Clutches; and "that the Parliament would not long be a "Parliament; and that he would not appear, "till the Parliament was diſſolved." The Examinant further depoſeth, that when he left the Country, which was about the Middle of April laſt, the ſaid Butler continued to diſturb the ſaid Biſhop's Poſſeſſion, and he verily believes the ſaid Butler does ſo ſtill.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Debate on the Report from the Committee of Privileges, in relation to the Diſturbance given the Lord Biſhop of Killaloe in the Poſſeſſion of the Lands of Gortinegarke and Gortfadda, in the Co. Clare, be and is hereby adjourned, until To-morrow Morning.

Meſſage from Commons,

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod acquaints this Houſe, that ſome Members of the Houſe of Commons are at the Door, with a Meſſage from that Houſe.

Ordered, that they be called in.

They come in accordingly, and ſtand at the lower end of the Houſe.

The Lord Chancellor, accompanied with ſome of the Lords, goes to the Bar, uncovered.

The Commons approach the Bar of this Houſe, with three Courteſies.

The Lord Chancellor receives the Meſſage from the Commons; which done, the Commons retire, and the Lords re-aſſume their Places.

with Rape-ſeed Bill.

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, reports, that the Commons, by Dr. Morley Saunders, have ſent up an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for leſſening the Duty on Rape-ſeed to be exported; acquainting, that it paſſed their Houſe, and deſire the Concurrence of this moſt Hon. Houſe.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for leſſening the Duty on Rape-ſeed to be exported, be read the firſt time To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Petition of Mary Vernon, Spinſter, be received.

J. Vernon, Appellant. M. Vernon, Reſpondent.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Petition of Mary Vernon, Spinſter, be read.

Read accordingly.

Ordered, on reading the Petition of Mary Vernon, Spinſter, that the Anſwer of the ſaid Mary Vernon to the Appeal of John Vernon, be received.

Ordered, on Motion, that Rich. Warburton, Eſq; be called in, and aſked ſome Queſtions at the Bar of this Houſe.

Richard Warburton comes in accordingly, and anſwers ſome Queſtions at the Bar of this Houſe, and then withdraws.

Queſtion, touching Mr. Warburton, negatived.

The previous Queſtion being put, Whether the Queſtion ſhould be now put, whether Mr. Warburton hath not trifled with this Houſe, in deferring to take upon himſelf to be Agent to Mrs. Vernon theſe eight Days paſt, having not received any ſubſequent Power from Mrs. Vernon, ſince the Day appointed for the Hearing?

It paſſed in the Negative.

Ordered, on Motion, that ſuch Lords as pleaſe, may enter their Diſſent unto the laſt foregoing Vote.

Proteſt.

I James Viſc. Strabane, having, as a Peer of this Realm, propoſed to have the Queſtion put, Whether Mr. Warburton hath not trifled with this Houſe, in deferring to take upon himſelf to be Agent to Mrs. Vernon, theſe eight Days paſt, he having not received any ſubſequent Power from Mrs. Vernon, ſince the Day appointed for the Hearing. And it having been over-ruled, not to be then put, by means of a previous Queſtion; I do, for the following Reaſons enter this my Proteſtation againſt, and diſſent unto, the ſaid Vote.

1. Becauſe that the ſaid Mr. Warburton, being called to the Bar of this Houſe, on the 16th of this inſtant May, he then produced a Letter of Attorney from Mrs. Mary Vernon, according to which, as he alledged, he had not ſufficient Authority to defend the Cauſe of the ſaid Mrs. Mary Vernon, he not being her Agent as to that Matter; and yet, at the ſame time owned, that he had ſome time paſt retained ſeveral Counſel in the ſaid Cauſe.

2. Becauſe it appears, by the Journals of this Houſe, that the ſaid Mrs. Mary Vernon had Notice of the Summons and Appeal of Mr. John Vernon; and that a Day was appointed for the Reſpondent's anſwering, which Day is elapſed, being Wedneſday the 23d of this inſt. May: And it farther appears, by the Journals of this Houſe of the 24th inſt. that this Cauſe was appointed to be heard on Friday the firſt of June, which ſeveral Proceedings the ſaid Mr. Warburton had conſtant Notice of, and might, in my humble Opinion, have ſaved this moſt Hon. Houſe the Trouble of very long Debates, if he had ſooner took upon himſelf to be Agent to Mrs. Vernon; for the doing of which now he produces no new Authority, but only alledges that he was adviſed thereunto by Counſel. Whereas he owned, at the Bar of this moſt Hon. Houſe, as early as on the 16th Inſt. that he, before then, had Recourſe to Counſel, and retained ſeveral in the ſaid Cauſe, whom he might as well then, and ſeveral Days after, have conſulted, on the Point of venturing to be Mrs. Vernon's Agent, if he had thought it worth his while to have ſaved this moſt Hon. Houſe the Trouble of many ſubſequent Debates, particularly one on the 23d Inſt. at the End of which a Petition of the ſaid Mr. Warburton's was rejected, upon the opening thereof, by a noble Lord on the Earl's Bench; according to which, the ſaid Mr. Warburton would not, even then, take upon himſelf to be Mrs. Vernon's Agent, but argued therein againſt the very Orders of this moſt Hon. Houſe.

3. Therefore, conſidering that this Houſe of Lords is the Higheſt Court of Judicature, wherein her Majeſty can poſſibly ſit in this Kingdom, having in it all her judicial Power, and conſequently no Bounds of Juriſdiction, no Perſon, in my humble Opinion, ought to preſume to entangle Buſineſs, before this moſt Hon. Houſe, with Subterfuges and Evaſions: For howſoever Law is made a Myſtery and Trade, by ſuch as would wrap up the Meaning thereof in tedious Formalities and crabbed Terms of Art, yet it is really founded on Reaſon, and is obvious to common Senſe.

STRABANE.

Sir Humphry Jervis, Knight, Appellant. Harvey Broughton, Clerk, Frances, his Wife, and John Offley, Eſq, Reſpondents.

Ordered, on reading the Order of the Day, that the debating of this Cauſe, be and is hereby adjourned, until To-morrow Morning, at Ten of the clock, and nothing to intervene.

The Lord Chancellor, by Appointment of the Lords, adjourns the Houſe, until To-morrow Morning, at Ten of the clock.

WE proteſt againſt the above Vote, for theſe following Reaſons:

1. Becauſe we do not think the Petition came regularly before this Houſe, and is unparliamentary and unprecedented.

2. Becauſe the Petition, being a Complaint againſt the Lord Chancellor, he was not ordered to anſwer, which we think ought to have been done, according to the common Rules and Practice of this Houſe.

3. That hearing Counſel is, in our Opinion, to have the Prerogative of the Queen called in Queſtion, which this Houſe, being the Queen's great Council, ought not to ſuffer.

Meſſage to Commons, with Concurrence. Ordered, on Motion, that a Meſſage be ſent to the Commons by Dr. Uſher and Dr. White, two of the Maſters in Chancery, who are to acquaint them, that this Houſe agreed to the ingroſſed ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by them, intitled, An Act for the Improvement of the Hempen and Flaxen Manufactures in this Kingdom, without any Amendment.

Dr. Uſher and Dr. White return, and ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, report, that they acquainted the Commons, that this moſt Hon. Houſe had agreed to the ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by them, intitled, An Act for the Improvement of the Hempen and Flaxen Manufactures in this Kingdom, without any Amendment.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Judges do give their Opinion, Whether the Clauſe in the Bill, intitled, An Act for the Improvement of the Hempen and Flaxen Manufactures in this Kingdom, in relation to Tythes, will be of any Prejudice to the Clergy, after the Determination of the firſt three Years, therein mentioned.

Judges' Opinions.

All the Judges give their Opinions ſeverally, that the Clauſe in relation to Tythes will be of no Prejudice to the Clergy, after the Determination of three Years, therein mentioned.

Reſolved, that it was the Intention of this Houſe, at the time of agreeing to an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for the Improvement of the Hempen and Flaxen Manufactures, in this Kingdom, not to leſſen, alter or take away the Right of Tythes of Hemp or Flax, by a Clauſe in the ſaid Bill, relating to the ſame, for any longer Term than for three Years only.

The Earl of Inchiquin and the Lord Baron Cutts, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, report, that they had waited on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to know his Pleaſure, when and where this Houſe, with their Speaker, ſhould attend his Grace with the Addreſs of Thanks to him, for the many good Bills he has procured for the Benefit of this Kingdom; and that his Grace appointed a quarter of an hour after Twelve this Day, at the Caſtle of Dublin.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee appointed to draw up an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, in behalf of Dr. Lemuel Mathews, that a Commiſſion of Delegates may iſſue, purſuant to the Prayer of his Petition; that they met, and had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which was read, in hæc verba:

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs in behalf of Dr. Mathews.

UPON the humble Petition of Lemuel Mathews, Doctor of Divinity, We the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do humbly addreſs your Grace, to intercede with her Majeſty, in the Name of this Houſe, in the moſt effectual Manner, that her Majeſty would be graciouſly pleaſed, by Warrant, to order, impower and require the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, to iſſue a Commiſſion of Delegates, under the Great Seal, in the behalf of the ſaid Lemuel Mathews, to hear and determine his Appeals and Querel of Nullities, in the Proceedings and Sentences againſt him by the late Eccleſiaſtical Commiſſioners at Liſburn in Ireland, by which he was turned out of all his Eccleſiaſtical Freeholds, and alſo excommunicated.

To which the Houſe agrees.

Ordered, on Motion, that this Houſe, with their Speaker, do deliver the Addreſs of this Houſe in favour of Dr. Lemuel Mathews to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, at the ſame time that they preſent the Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace, for the many good Bills he has procured for the Benefit of this Kingdom.

Ordered, on Motion, that a Meſſage be ſent to the Commons, by Dr. Uſher and Dr. White, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this Houſe deſire a Conference with them, on the Subject-matter of the laſt Conference, and have appointed the ſame to be immediately, in the Conference-Chamber.

Meſſage to Commons for Conference.

Ordered, on Motion, that Copies of the following Orders be delivered to the Managers for the Commons, at a preſent Conference with them,

Wedneſday, the 2d of November, 1692.

ALL Lords of Parliament have Privilege of freeing from Arreſts, their menial Servants, and thoſe of their Family; and alſo thoſe imployed neceſſarily and properly about their Eſtates, as well as Perſons: This Freedom to begin forty Days before the Return of the Writ of Summons, and end forty Days after every Prorogation.

Die Sabbati, 17° Februarii, 1704.

Reſolved, that all written Protections, that have been given by any Peer of this Houſe, be and are hereby declared void, and that this Reſolution be poſted on the Doors of this Houſe.

Written Protections annulled.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lords, who were appointed Managers for this Houſe Yeſterday, at a Conference with the Commons, be Managers at a preſent Conference with them.

Dr. Uſher and Dr. White return, and, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, report, that they acquainted the Commons, that this moſt Hon. Houſe deſired a Conference with them immediately, in the Conference-Chamber, on the Subject-matter of the laſt Conference.

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod acquaints this Houſe, that the Managers for the Commons are in the Conference-Chamber.

The Managers for this Houſe withdraw.

They return.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Armagh, ſtanding in his Place, reports from the Managers for this moſt moſt Hon. Houſe, at a Conference with the Commons; that they delivered to the Managers for the Commons, a Paper, agreed to by this Houſe.

Report from Conference.

The Houſe adjourns until One of the clock this Afternoon.

Addreſs of Thanks to Ld Lieutenant preſented.

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, reports, that this moſt Hon. Houſe, with their Speaker, had waited on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, with the Addreſs of Thanks of this Houſe to his Grace, for the many good Bills he has procured for the Benefit of this Kingdom; to which his Grace made Anſwer:

His Anſwer thereto, and

" I thank your Lordſhips for your Addreſs, " and am glad my Endeavours for the Good " of this Kingdom, are to your Lordſhips' " Satisfaction."

on Doctor Mathews's Caſe.

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, reports, that this moſt Hon. Houſe, with their Speaker, had waited on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, with the Addreſs of this Houſe, in behalf of Dr. Lemuel Mathews, that a Commiſſion of Delegates might iſſue, purſuant to the Prayer of his Petition; to which his Grace made Anſwer: He would lay it before the Queen, in the moſt effectual Manner he could.

Ld Lieutenant preſent.

His Grace James Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, enters the Houſe, with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Roſcomon bearing the Cap of Maintenance; the Earl of Londonderry carrying the Sword of State; the Hon. William Fitzmaurice, eldeſt Son to the Lord Baron of Kerry, the Hon. William St. Laurence, eldeſt Son to the Lord Baron of Howth, and the Hon. John Hamilton, ſecond Son to the Lord Viſc. Strabane, bearing the Train; and his Grace, making his Congé to the Cloth of State, ſeated himſelf in the Chair under the Canopy.

Commons, ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, kneeling, confers with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, orders the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to acquaint the Commons, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant commands their Attendance in this Houſe immediately.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Queen, through the whole Courſe of her glorious Reign, has not only ſhewn her great Care for the Preſervation of the Liberties of Europe, but has been always intent on whatſoever may contribute to the Good of all her Subjects; and, to the utmoſt of her Power, has endeavoured to unite them in Love and Affection; and now, in particular, to manifeſt her tender Concern for you, of this her Kingdom of Ireland, ſhe has again called you together, to conſider of ſuch Laws as may be thought neceſſary for the further Proſperity of this Realm: And in all things to provide for the Security of it againſt foreign and domeſtick Enemies: And, in order to the obtaining of theſe Bleſſings, I am commanded by her Majeſty to recommend to you Unanimity amongſt yourſelves; and to inform you, that her Majeſty, conſidering the Number of Papiſts in this Realm, would be glad of an Expedient for the ſtrengthening the Intereſt of her Proteſtant Subjects in this Kingdom. Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

THE publick Service requiring that ſeveral Regiments upon the Eſtabliſhment ſhould be ſent abroad, I am commanded, by her Majeſty, to inform you, that ſhe intends to ſupply the like Number of Forces for the Security of this Kingdom, and I do not doubt, but you will make Proviſion of the neceſſary Supplies for Payment of the Army, as well as for the defraying the Charges of the Government; and that you may have a perfect View of what is owing, I have ordered the proper Officers to prepare and lay before you an exact State of the Revenue.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IN order to the attaining and eſtabliſhing the Safety and Welfare of this Kingdom, I ſhould think myſelf extremely happy, if during my Adminiſtration, all Matters ſhould be conducted with that Temper and Prudence, as may juſtly intitle you to the Continuance of her Majeſty's Affections: For my own Part, though a great Honour to ſerve in this Poſt, I can propoſe no Satisfaction in it, without your Happineſs and Proſperity, the which I ſhall ſincerely endeavour to promote; and hope, but chiefly by your Aſſiſtance, to ſecure the Good of this Kingdom, and ſhew, in our ſeveral Stations, that we are united in our Affections to each other, as well as in Duty to the beſt of Queens.

Ordered, on Motion, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, be taken into the Conſideration of this Houſe To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Clerk of this Houſe, do forthwith cauſe his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed.

Ordered, purſuant to the Order of the Day, that the Addreſs of this Houſe to her Majeſty, be read, Paragraph by Paragraph.

Read accordingly, in hæc verba:

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the Queen.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do with all Humility, congratulate the glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Endeavours for ſecuring, by your Arms abroad, the Liberties of Europe, and the Welfare of your Subjects at home, by uniting Great Britain into one Body, under the ſame Proteſtant Succeſſion to the Throne of all your Dominions.

We are ſenſible how effectual a Means that will prove, to prevent the Attempts of Papiſts from diſturbing the Quiet of your Majeſty's Empire, and particularly of this Kingdom, that has been ſo often endangered by them.

May your Majeſty go on, and extend your Favour to all your Subjects, till none are excluded from ſo great a Bleſſing, but ſuch as, by their own Frowardneſs or Diſaffection to the publick Good, bar themſelves from the general Advantages of your Majeſty's glorious Reign; and do hope your Majeſty's unparalleled Goodneſs and Wiſdom will conquer even thoſe, and make them ſenſible of their true Intereſt.

We, with Joy, obſerve the Aſſurances of your continued Affection to the Church, in putting us of this Kingdom on the ſame Foot, as to Religion, with England, by obliging all your Succeſſors, at their Coronations, to take and ſubſcribe an Oath to maintain and preſerve inviolably the Settlement thereof, in Doctrine, Worſhip, Diſcipline and Government, as by Law eſtabliſhed in this Realm.

We with the ſame Gratitude, acknowledge your Majeſty's tender Concern for our Temporal Happineſs, manifeſted in ſo many Inſtances, particularly in your chooſing for our Chief Governors, thoſe that have ſhewed greateſt Regard for our Proſperity; and for this laſt ſignal Inſtance, in ſending his Excellency the Earl of Pembroke to be your Lieutenant here, whoſe Integrity and Prudence, in managing many great and different Truſts, have been ſo eminent, that they leave no room for us to doubt, but that the like Succeſs will attend his Government here, which has accompanied him in all his other Employments.

Your Majeſty's putting this Kingdom into the Hands of one ſo able to execute your gracious Intentions, is a freſh Evidence, that your Majeſty deſigns yet greater Favours for us.

We, with loyal and chearful Hearts, promiſe your Majeſty, that, to the utmoſt of our Ability, we will contribute to carry on the common Cauſe of Europe, in which your Majeſty is ſo eminently and happily engaged, and all other your Majeſty's pious and generous Undertakings; and that we will avoid, with our greateſt Care, contending among ourſelves about any other thing, but who ſhall be moſt zealous for your Majeſty's Service, and moſt earneſt in our Prayers to GOD, for the long Continuance of ſo great a Bleſſing, as we are convinced your Majeſty's Life is, to the World.

agreed to. To which the Houſe agrees.

Addreſs preſented.

Ordered, purſuant to the Order of the Day, that this Houſe do immediately, with their Speaker, attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the Addreſs to her Majeſty.

The Houſe adjourns until One of the clock.

The Houſe re-aſſumes.

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, reports, that this moſt Hon. Houſe, with their Speaker, purſuant to the Order of this Houſe, had attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, with the Addreſs of this Houſe to her Majeſty, who made an Anſwer: He was well aſſured, that whatever came from this Houſe, would be acceptable to her Majeſty; and that he would take Care to tranſmit the ſame to her Majeſty.

Report from Committee on Petitions of Officers, &c.

The Lord Viſc. Strabane, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee, appointed to conſider of the ſeveral Petitions of And. Lloyd, Eſq; one of the Clerks and Officers attending this moſt Hon. Houſe, and of Charles Baldwin, Eſq; that they met, and do find, that Thurſday the 25th of November, 1703, there was an Addreſs from this Houſe to his Grace the Duke of Ormond, then Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, in behalf of the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, praying, that £1230 ſhould be allowed to the ſaid Officers and Servants, in Conſideration of their Service, and that in the Diſtribution of the ſaid Money, £200 was to be the Share and Proportion of the Petitioner Mr. Andrew Lloyd, They humbly conceive, (that, giving his Oath at the Bar of this Houſe, that he the ſaid Andrew Lloyd hath not received any Part of the ſaid £200) that an humble Addreſs be made to the Lord Lieutenant, that the ſaid Mr. Lloyd be paid the ſaid £200.

The ſame Committee, being appointed to conſider of the Petition of the Clerks and Officers attending this Houſe, have met, and upon inſpecting the Journals, do find that Thurſday the 25th of November, 1703, there was an Addreſs from this Houſe to his Grace the Duke of Ormond, then Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, praying that £1230 ſhould be allowed them, and to the ſaid Andrew Lloyd, in Conſideration of their former Services, and the Service of that Seſſion.

They alſo find upon inſpecting the Journal of the 9th of June, 1705, That this Houſe was of Opinion, that the Sum of £700 ſhould be given to the Officers and Servants attending the Houſe, for their Services during that Seſſion.

They therefore are humbly of Opinion, that the ſaid Petitioners, giving their Oaths at the Bar of this Houſe, that they have only received £307 : 10*s*. in Part of the ſaid Sums of £1230 and £700, that an Addreſs be made to my Lord Lieutenant, that the Remainder of the ſaid Sums be paid to the Clerks, Officers and Servants attending on this Houſe, for their Services in the ſaid Seſſions; and they humbly conceive, that the Honour of this Houſe is concerned, in having their Officers gratified for their Services.

The ſame Committee, appointed to conſider of the Petition of Mr. Charles Baldwin, upon inſpecting the Journal of the 11th of June, 1705, do find, that this Houſe did recommend the ſaid Charles Baldwin to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for a Reward for his Service, in copying and briefing the Tranſmiſſes, under the Great Seal of England, and attending this moſt Hon. Houſe, in comparing the ſaid Tranſmiſſes with the ingroſſed Bills; and are humbly of Opinion, that the ſaid Charles Baldwin, making Oath at the Bar of this Houſe, that he hath received no Conſideration for the ſaid Services, that an Addreſs be made to my Lord Lieutenant, that the ſaid Charles Baldwin be gratified for the ſaid Services.

The ſeveral Clerks, Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, were ſworn and examined, as to what they reſpectively received, as a Gratuity from her Majesty, for their Services, and then this House agreed with the Committee.

Orders thereon.

Ordered, on Motion; that an Address be made from this House to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, praying his Excellency so effectually to recommend to her Majesty, the several Clerks and Officers attending this House, and Andrew Lloyd, Esq; that they may be paid the Remainder of the Sums of £1230, being £922 : 10 and £700 formerly intended for them, by an Address from this House, and also of the Petition of Charles Baldwin, Esq.

Committee for Address concerning Officers, &c.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lords undernamed, or any two of them, be a Committee to draw up an Address to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, praying his Excellency so effectually to recommend to her Majesty the several Clerks and Officers attending this House, and Andrew Lloyd, Esq; that they may be paid the Remainder of the Sums of £1230, being £922 : 10*s.* and £700, formerly intended for them by an Address from this House; and also of the Petition of Charles Baldwin, Esq; and that they do meet in the Committee-Chamber To-morrow Morning, at Nine of the clock.

Further Proceedings on Weynell's Petition.

Ordered, pursuant to the Order of the Day, that this House do immediately resolve themselves into a Grand Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Misbehaviour of Capt. George Camocke, in the undue returning of an Habeas Corpus, issued out of the Court of Queen's-Bench, and the Affront by him given to that Court; and that they have Power to send for Persons, Papers and Records, and report their Opinion to this House.

The House resolves into a Grand Committee of the whole House accordingly.

The House re-assumes.

The Lord Visc. Massareene reports from the Grand Committee of the whole House, to whom the further Consideration of the Misbehaviour of Capt. George Camocke, in the undue undue returning of an Habeas Corpus, iſſued out of the Court of Queen's-Bench, and the Affront by him given to that Court, was referred; that they met, and directed him to report:

THAT the Lord Chief Juſtice Pyne, being aſked, who was by, when Capt. Camocke, came to him, the Lord Chief Juſtice Pyne anſwered, Nobody but Mr. Henry Davis.

That Mr. Henry Davis, being called in and examined, ſaith, that about ſix or ſeven Weeks ſince, he was at the Lord Chief Juſtice Pyne's, when Capt. Camocke was there, and heard him tell the Lord Chief Juſtice, that he heard his Lordſhip had iſſued a Habeas Corpus, or intended to do ſo, for Moſely Weynell his Purſer, but that he was reſolved not to let him come aſhore; then the ſaid Capt. Camocke produced his Articles of War and Inſtructions, and read that Article, which ſays: "It ſhall be Death "for any Man to raiſe a Mutiny," which Weynell had done; and that he was reſolved to have him tried, as ſoon as he could meet with five Captains in any Harbour. That the ſaid Chief Juſtice ſaid, If he would return that for a Cauſe, he would remand the ſaid Weynell; and adviſed the ſaid Captain to let the ſaid Weynell come aſhore, purſuant to the Habeas Corpus: To which Capt. Camocke replied, He would be hanged or die, before he would let him come aſhore. On which the ſaid Chief Juſtice adviſed him to conſult with the Attorney or Solicitor General: And that he heard, that the ſaid Captain did ſo; and that they gave him the ſame Advice. That about three or four Days after, he heard, that the ſaid Captain was ſerved with the ſaid Habeas Corpus in Lucas's Coffee-houſe; that the ſaid Capt. did not carry himſelf with any Inſolence.

That James Moore was called in and examined, who ſays, that there was a Writ of Habeas Corpus put into his Hands by Richard Huyſh the 23d of May laſt, returnable the 24th which he offered to deliver to Capt. Camocke, at the Way into the Coffee-houſe on Cork-hill, which he refuſed to take. Then the ſaid James Moore went into Lucas's Coffee-houſe, and offered it again to him; but the ſaid Capt. refuſed it; then the ſaid Moore laid it on a Chair, juſt by him, and told him what it was.

That likewiſe John Evans, being examined, ſaith, that on Friday the 23d of May laſt, he went on board The Speedwell, about Six at Night, which lay in Poolebeg, within the Perch, to ſee the Purſer; where he ſaw the ſaid Purſer, and that the ſaid Place is within the Place, where the Dart is uſually thrown, which is within the Liberties of the City of Dublin, and that the ſaid Purſer had his Liberty of the Ship, when he ſaw him that Day, and the Day following.

That the ſaid Committee came to the following Reſolutions, which they likewiſe directed him to report:

RESOLVED, that it is the undoubted Right of every free-born Subject of her Majeſty, who is in Reſtraint in any Part of this Kingdom, to have a Writ of Habeas Corpus, in order to his Trial or Enlargement.

RESOLVED, that the Court of Queen's-Bench, in granting a Habeas Corpus to Moſely Weynell, diſcharged their Duty, according to Law and Juſtice.

Committee on Privilege Bill.

Ordered, purſuant to the Order of the Day, that this Houſe do reſolve themſelves into a Grand Committee of the whole Houſe, to conſider further of the Heads of a Bill, for regulating and reſtraining the Privilege of Parliament.

The Houſe reſolves into a Grand Committee of the whole Houſe, accordingly.

The Houſe re-aſſumes.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin reports from the Grand Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the further Conſideration of the Heads of a Bill, for regulating and reſtraining the Privilege of Parliament, was referred; that they had made ſome Progreſs therein, and deſire Leave to ſit again.

Ordered, on Motion, that this Houſe do, on Tueſday next, at Twelve of the clock, reſolve themſelves into a Grand Committee of the whole Houſe, to conſider further of the Heads of a Bill, for regulating and reſtraining the Privilege of Parliament.

The Lord Viſc. Strabane, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee, appointed to draw up an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, praying his Excellency effectually to recommend to her Majeſty, the ſeveral Clerks and Officers attending this Houſe; that they met, and had prepared an Addreſs, which he read, in hæc verba:

Addreſs to the Lord Lieutenant in behalf of Officers, &c.

WE humbly repreſent to your Excellency, that an Addreſs was made on the 25th of Nov. 1703, to the then Chief Governor of this Kingdom, for £1230, to be given, as a Gratuity, to the Officers attending the Houſe of Lords, in Conſideration of their Services; and in regard that the Fees, allowed them, are very ſmall, and no way proportionable to their Labour and Expences, which ſaid £1230 was for their Services, during the five firſt Seſſions after the Revolution.

We further humbly repreſent, that an Addreſs was made the 9th of June, 1705, to the then Chief Governor of Ireland, for the Sum of £700 more, to be given to the ſaid Officers, for their Services, in that Seſſion; which ſaid Sums of £1230 and £700, were to be diſtributed among them, in ſuch Proportion, as was agreed upon by the Houſe.

That of the ſaid Sums, they have only received £307 : 10*s.* as appears to us by their ſeveral Oaths, made at the Bar of the Houſe.

We therefore humbly apply ourſelves to your Excellency, that you will be pleaſed ſo effectually to recommend to her Majeſty the ſaid Officers and Servants, that they may be paid the Remainder of the ſaid Sum of £1230, being 922 : 10*s.* and the ſaid 700, they having ſerved the Houſe with great Diligence.

And we think the Honour of the Houſe is concerned to take Care to have them rewarded.

We humbly repreſent to your Excellency, that Mr. Thomas Carter hath made it appear, by a Certificate under the Hand of Mr. Poultney, Clerk of the Council, that upon Search made in the Council-Office Books, he doth not find any Concordatum iſſued on the Petition of Thomas Carter, Serjeant at Arms attending this moſt Hon. Houſe, as to the ſeveral Sums, diſburſed by him in employing Meſſengers by the Command of this Houſe, during ſeveral Seſſions, amounting in all to 53 : 10*s.* before the 17th Day of December, 1697: By which Certificate, it alſo appears, that the then Petitioner, Thomas Carter, had other Demands for Travelling-Charges, though in regard the Perſons by him employed did not appear to make out the Particulars thereof, the Committee of Council could not take Notice thereof. And the ſaid Thomas Carter depoſeth, that he doth in his Conſcience verily believe, that he and thoſe employed by him have, ſince 1697, expended at leaſt as much more in executing the Orders of this Houſe; for which neither he, nor they, have had any Satisfaction. And we are therefore humbly of Opinion, that Application be made to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that the Caſe of the ſaid Thomas Carter be recommended to her Majeſty, in order to his being reimburſed:

We are further of Opinion, that the ſaid Thomas Carter, Serjeant at Arms to this moſt Hon. Houſe, ſhould have a Reward of £100 for his Services during the five firſt Seſſions after the Revolution.

We further humbly repreſent to your Excellency, that on the 11th of June, 1705, the then Speaker of the Houſe of Lords, was ordered to recommend Charles Baldwin, Eſq; as from that Houſe, to his Grace the late Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, for a Reward for his Service in copying and briefing the Tranſmiſſes of Bills, under the Great Seal of England, and attending the ſaid Houſe, in comparing the ſaid Tranſmiſſes with the ingroſſed Bills; for which the ſaid Charles Baldwin never received any manner of Benefit, as appears by his Examination, on Oath, at the Bar of this Houſe.

We therefore humbly apply ourſelves to your Excellency, that you would be pleaſed to take the Services of the ſaid Charles Baldwin into Conſideration, and to recommend him to her Majeſty, for the Sum of £226 : 10*s.* in ſuch Manner as your Excellency, in your great Wiſdom, ſhall think fit: Which Sum, we are humbly of Opinion, he very well deſerves, the ſaid Tranſmiſſes being very voluminous, conſiſting of 453 Skins of Parchment; and the copying and briefing thereof very troubleſome and chargeable; beſides his conſtant Attendance on the Houſe of Lords, to compare the ingroſſed Bills with the original Tranſmiſſes.

To which the Houſe agrees.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lords undernamed, or any three of them, do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the Addreſs of this Houſe, in favour of the Clerks and Officers of this Houſe.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Petition of Alice Geoghegan, be taken into the Conſideration of this Houſe To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Orders of the Day be read.

Read accordingly.

D. Careen and W. Clarke ordered into Cuſtody.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, do forthwith apprehend and take into his Cuſtody the Bodies of Denis Careen, of St. Dominick's Abbey, Miller, and William Clarke of the ſame, Miller, for a Breach of Privilege by them committed againſt this Houſe, in diſturbing the Poſſeſſion of the Right Rev. Father in God, Dive Lord Biſhop of Cork and Roſſe, in endeavouring to make a Weir on a Branch of the River Ley, which will deſtroy his Lordſhip's Fiſhery.

Report on Butler's Fine.

The Lord Biſhop of Clogher, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee, appointed to conſider what has been done on the Fine of £200, laid on Pierce Butler, (ordered to be eſtreated into the Exchequer by the Clerk of the Houſe) met, and do find the Clerk of the Houſe has eſtreated the ſaid Fine into the Exchequer, and lodged the ſame with the Clerk of the Eſtreats, who iſſued out Proceſs for levying the ſaid Fine, which was only againſt Goods. That the Sheriff of the Co. Clare returned on his Accounts, "No Goods of the ſaid Pierce Butler "to be found;" afterwards Proceſs iſſued out of the Pipe for levying the ſaid Fine, which was againſt Body, Goods and Lands: And the Sheriff of the Co. Clare took an Inquiſition on the ſaid Proceſs, whereby he found Lands to belong to the ſaid Pierce Butler, to the Value of £60 per Ann. which Lands he ſeized, inſtead of levying the Rents; and that ſome Debate did ariſe in the Court of Exchequer, as to the Validity of the ſaid Seizure, ſo that no further Proceeding had been made towards the levying the ſaid Fine. Therefore the Committee are of Opinion, that the Honour of the Houſe is concerned, to ſee the Fines, impoſed by them, ſhould be duly levied; and that an Order ſhould go from this Houſe to the Barons of the Exchequer, requiring them to give ſuch neceſſary Orders, that the ſaid Fine be levied with all Expedition, according to the due Courſe of the Exchequer.

To which the Houſe agrees. agreed to.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Barons of her Majeſty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland, do give ſuch neceſſary Orders, that the Fine of £200, laid on Pierce Butler, for his Contempt of the Juriſdiction of this Houſe, be levied with all Expedition, according to the due Courſe of that Court.

Ordered, purſuant to the Order of the Day, that the rough Draught of the Decree in this Cauſe, be read and ſettled. J. Vernon, Appellant. M. Vernon, Reſpondent.

Read accordingly.

Reſolved, that it be added to the Decree, that if the £1000 be not paid within twelve Months, with Intereſt, that then, upon Application to the High Court of Chancery, the Appellant ſhall be put into Poſſeſſion of the Lands of Clontarf, and the one-third of the Hollybrooks, by Order of the High Court of Chancery; and that the Appellant ſhall continue in the Poſſeſſion thereof, until the ſaid Sum of £1000 and the Intereſt thereof, be fully paid.

Reſolved, that the Decree in this Cauſe be made up in the Words following.

John Vernon, Appellant.
Mary Vernon, John Carter, Thomas Ferris, Anthony Knightſbridge, and — Wolfe, Reſpondents.

THIS Cauſe, upon the Petition and Appeal brought by the Appellant, J. Vernon, againſt a Decree of Diſmiſſion, pronounced in the High Court of Chancery, in this Kingdom, the 14th Day of May, 1686, on a Bill, exhibited in the ſaid Court, by the ſaid Appellant, John Vernon, againſt Edward Vernon, Eſq; (ſince deceaſed, Father of the Reſpondent Mary Vernon) John Carter, Thomas Ferris, Anthony Knightſbridge and Giles Martin, for the Performance of a Truſt or an Agreement between the ſaid Edw. Vernon and John Vernon, (the Father of the ſaid John Vernon, the Appellant) concerning the Town and Lands of Clontarf, in the Co. Dublin, and the iſland of Clontarf, the upper and lower Hollybrooks, and other the Appurtenances thereunto belonging, and againſt the ſeveral Orders, Inrollments and Proceedings, mentioned in the ſaid Appeal, being on Monday day the 11th Day of June, 1705, heard at the Bar of this Houſe. And upon due Conſideration whereof, and of the Anſwer put in to the ſaid Appeal by the ſaid Mary Vernon, Heireſs and only Daughter and Child of the ſaid Edw. Vernon, and of what was urged by the Counſel on all Sides: The Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, on Tueſday the 12th Day of June aforeſaid, ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the ſaid Decree of Diſmiſſion, pronounced in the ſaid High Court of Chancery, and the ſeveral Orders, Inrollments and Proceedings thereupon, ſhould be reverſed and made null and void. And whereas, upon Monday the 14th Day of this inſt. July, 1707, it was ordered, that this Cauſe be further heard, in order to make a final Decree therein; and the ſaid Cauſe accordingly was further heard at the Bar of this Houſe, on Wedneſday the 23d of July, 1707: Upon Conſideration whereof, and of what was offered by Counſel on both Sides, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, this Day, that is to ſay, on Saturday the 26th of July, 1707, Do order, adjudge and decree, that the aforeſaid former Decree of Diſmiſſion of the High Court of Chancery, made the 14th Day of May, 1686, and the ſeveral Orders, Inrollments and Proceedings thereon, be and are hereby reverſed, and made null and void. And do further order, adjudge and decree, that Two-thirds of the ſaid upper and lower Holybrooks, with Two-thirds of the Appurtenances to the ſaid upper and lower Holybrooks belonging, be and are hereby decreed to the Appellant, John Vernon, and his Heirs, from the 1ſt Day of May laſt, freed and diſcharged from all Incumbrances of what Nature ſoever, had, made or ſuffered by the ſaid Edward Vernon, or any other Perſon or Perſons, claiming or that may or ſhall claim, any Eſtate, Right, Title and Intereſt, from, by and under him. And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the ſaid Mary Vernon, Reſpondent, do pay to the ſaid Appellant John Vernon, his Executors and Aſſigns, the Sum of £1000 Sterl. within the Space of twelve Months from the making this Decree, with the Intereſt. And in Caſe the ſame be not then paid, that the ſaid Appellant ſhall, upon Application to the High Court of Chancery, be put into the Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Lands of Clontarf, with the Appurtenances; and the ſaid one-third Part of Holybrooks, by Order of the High Court of Chancery; and that the ſaid Appellant ſhall continue in Poſſeſſion thereof, until the ſaid Sum of £1000, and the Intereſt thereof, be fully paid. And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the ſaid Mary Vernon, Reſpondent, do forthwith pay to the ſaid John Vernon, Appellant, the Sum of £100 for Coſts, by him expended in the ſaid Suit. And the ſaid £1000, hereby decreed to the ſaid Appellant, be charged upon the ſaid Town and Lands of Clontarf, and the ſaid Third Part of the two Holybrooks, with the Appurtenances, in the Reſpondent's Poſſeſſion: And the ſame to remain liable, and as Security, for Payment thereof, at one intire Payment, and lawful Intereſt, till the ſame be fully paid to the ſaid Appellant, from the Day of the Date of this Decree. And that the Perſon of the ſaid Mary Vernon ſhall not be in any wiſe ſubject or liable to the Payment of the ſaid Sum of £1000, and Intereſt, or any Part thereof; but that the ſaid Sum ſhall be, and is hereby, wholly charged upon the ſaid Towns and Lands of Clontarf, with the Appurtenances, and on the ſaid one Third Part of the two Holybrooks, in the Reſpondent's Poſſeſſion. And that the Orders of this Houſe do iſſue, to put the ſaid John Vernon, and his Heirs, into the actual Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Two-thirds of the upper and lower Holybrooks; and, from time to time, to quiet him and them therein accordingly. And that the Reſpondent, Mary Vernon, having the Eſtate in Law, ſhall convey to the Appellant, John Vernon, and his Heirs, two Third Parts of the ſaid upper and lower Holybrooks, with Two-thirds of the Appurtenances, to the ſaid upper and lower Holybrooks belonging, being the Eſtate which is decreed to him by this Houſe: And that this Decree be final and concluſive to all Parties. And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, that nothing in this Decree, made in the Cauſe, wherein John Vernon is Appellant, and Mary Vernon, and others, are Reſpondents, ſhall be conſtrued, or intended, to debar Thomas Carter and other Leſſees of Edward Vernon, or any claiming under him, from recovering, at Law, the Damages from the Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns of the ſaid Edward Vernon, or thoſe claiming under him or them; that he or they ſhall ſuffer by the ſaid John Vernon's being put in Poſſeſſion of the Two-thirds of the ſaid upper and lower Holybrooks.

Thomas Earl of Limerick and William Sherlock, Appellants. Maurice Anneſley, Eſq; Reſpondent.

Ordered, purſuant to the Order of the Day, that the rough Draught of the Decree, in this Cauſe, be read and ſettled.

Read accordingly.

Reſolved, that it be added to the Decree in this Cauſe, that the Cottiers be continued in Poſſeſſion, until May next, paying their Rents to the Appellants, or their Order.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Committee appointed to inquire what Counſel put the Clauſe in favour of Sir William Robinſon and Thomas Carter, Eſq; (not warranted by the Reſolutions of this Houſe, into the rough Draught of the Decree, in the Caſe of John Vernon) be revived; who are to inquire, who put in the Clauſe in the rough Draught of the Decree, in this Cauſe, requiring the Reſpondent to pay the meſne Profits to the Appellants, not warranted by the Reſolutions of this Houſe; who are to meet To-morrow Morning, at Nine of the clock.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Appellants do withdraw the rough Draught of their Decree, and amend the ſame againſt To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, on Motion, that all Decrees hereafter to be made in this Houſe, be drawn up by

by Counſel on both Sides, and peruſed by the Lord Chancellor, before they are offered to the Houſe.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene and the Lord Baron of Santry, be added to the Lords who have the Leave of this Houſe to bring in Heads of a Bill for the better Preſervation of the Game.

Hen. Warren, and Fr. Anneſley, Eſqrs. and Elizabeth Warren, Appellants. Thomas Earl of Limerick and George Mervin, Reſpondents.

Ordered, purſuant to the Order of the Day, that the rough Draught of the Decree, in this Cauſe, be read and ſettled.

Read accordingly.

Reſolved, that it be added to the Decree, in this Cauſe, that the Reſpondent, George Mervin, ſhall have his Corn, now on the Lands of Gibbinſtown, paying according to the Cuſtom of the Country; and that the Cottiers do continue until May next, paying the ſame Rents to the Appellants they were to pay the ſaid Mervin.

Reſolved, that the Decree, in this Cauſe, be made up in the Words following:

Hen. Warren, and Fr. Anneſley, Eſqrs. Executors of the laſt Will and Teſtament of Gilbert Warren, Gent. deceaſed, and Elizabeth Warren, Spinſter, Siſter of the ſaid Gilbert, Appellants. Thomas Earl of Limerick and George Mervin, Reſpondents.

THIS Cauſe, upon the Petition and Appeal, brought by the ſaid Apellants, againſt a Decree of Diſmiſſion, pronounced in the High Court of Chancery in this Kingdom, the 14th Day of February, in the Year of our Lord 1705, on a Bill, exhibited in the ſaid Court by the ſaid Appellants, Henry Warren, Francis Anneſley and Elizabeth Warren, againſt the ſaid Thomas Earl of Limerick and George Mervin, and againſt the ſeveral Orders and Proceedings in the ſaid Appeal mentioned; and upon the Anſwer of the ſaid Thomas Earl of Limerick, and George Mervin, unto the ſaid Appeal. And whereas the ſaid Cauſe was, on Tueſday the 29th Day of July laſt paſt, ordered to be heard at the Bar of this Houſe, on Monday the 4th Day of Auguſt inſt. which Cauſe was accordingly fully heard the ſaid Day, at the Bar of this Houſe. Upon due Conſideration thereof, and of what was offered and urged by the Counſel on both Sides; It is this Day, that is to ſay, Friday the 8th Day of Auguſt, 1707, ordered, adjudged and decreed, by the Right Hon. the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Decree of Diſmiſſion, pronounced in the ſaid High Court of Chancery, and the ſeveral Orders and Proceedings thereupon, ſhall be and are hereby reverſed, and made null and void. And that the ſaid Elizabeth Warren hath a Right of Renewal of the Leaſe of the Lands of Tobberogan and Gibbinſtown, in the Barony of Kilcullen, and Co. Kildare, to her, her Heirs and Aſſigns for ever, purſuant to the Clauſes in the Leaſe, made by William late Earl of Limerick, unto Maurice Warren. And that the Reſpondent Thomas Earl of Limerick ſhall and do accordingly, without any Fine, make a Leaſe of the ſaid Lands unto the ſaid Elizabeth Warren, her Heirs and Aſſigns, for the three Lives, mentioned in the Leaſe of the ſaid Lands, which was made by the late Truſtees, appointed by an Act of Parliament, intitled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majeſty, by Sale of the forfeited and other Eſtates and Intereſts in Ireland, and by a Land-Tax in England, for the ſeveral Purpoſes therein mentioned, unto the Appellants Henry Warren and Francis Anneſley, with a Covenant by the ſaid Earl, his Heirs and Aſſigns, for to renew the ſame, at any time hereafter, unto the ſaid Elizabeth Warren, her Heirs and Aſſigns, on the Death of any of the ſaid Lives, or any other Perſon or Perſons, whoſe Life or Lives ſhall hereafter be put into ſuch Leaſe, ſo to be renewed, on paying ſuch Fine or Fines, as by the ſaid Leaſe, made by the ſaid William, late Earl of Limerick, to the ſaid Maurice Warren, is agreed to be paid. And that the ſaid Lands ſhall be held by the ſaid Elizabeth Warren, her Heirs and Aſſigns, free from all Incumbrances, made by the ſaid William late Earl of Limerick, or him the ſaid Thomas Earl of Limerick. And that the ſaid Thomas Earl of Limerick, ſhall and do forthwith pay unto the ſaid Appellants, the Sum of £10 Sterl. for Coſts by them expended on the ſaid Suit. Saving and reſerving unto the Reſpondent, George Mervin, his Heirs and Aſſigns, the Leaſe, Demiſe or Agreement, made unto him of the ſaid Lands of Tobberogan, by the ſaid Maurice Warren, which ſaid Leaſe, Demiſe or Agreement, ſhall be, and is hereby, confirmed, againſt the Appellants, their Heirs and Aſſigns. And that the Orders of this Houſe do iſſue to the Sheriff of the Co. Kildare, for the time being, to put the ſaid Eliz. Warren, and her Heirs, in the actual Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Lands of Tobberogan and Gibbinſtown, and from time to time to quiet her and them therein accordingly: And that the ſaid George Mervin ſhall have his Corn, now on the Lands of Gibbinſtown, paying according to the Cuſtom of the Country; and that the Cottiers do continue until May next, paying the ſame Rents to the Appellants they were to pay the ſaid Mervin.

Ordered, on Motion, that this Houſe do, To-morrow at Twelve of the clock, reſolve themſelves into a Grand Committee of the whole Houſe, to conſider further of the Heads of a Bill, for regulating and reſtraining the Privilege of Parliament.

The Lord Chancellor, by Appointment of the Lords, adjourns the Houſe until To-morrow Morning, at Ten of the clock.

Reſolved, that the Decree, in this Cauſe, be made up in the Words following:

Thomas Earl of Limerick in the Kingdom of Ireland, and William Sherlock, Appellants. Maurice Anneſley, Eſq; Reſpondent.

THIS Cauſe, upon the Petition and Appeal brought by the Appellants Thomas Earl of Limerick and William Sherlock, againſt a Decree, pronounced in the High Court of Chancery in this Kingdom, the 4th Day of May, 1706, on a Bill, exhibited in the ſaid Court, by the Reſpondent, Maurice Anneſley, againſt the ſaid Appellants, and againſt ſeveral Inrollments, Orders, Injunctions and Proceedings, had thereupon in the ſaid Court, and mentioned in the ſaid Appeal, being on Saturday the 2d Day of Auguſt, 1707, fully heard at the Bar of this Houſe, in Preſence of Counſel learned on both Sides. Upon due Conſideration whereof, and of the Anſwer put in by the Reſpondent Maur. Anneſley unto the ſaid Appeal, and what was urged by Counſel on both Sides: The Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, this Day, that is to ſay, Wedneſday the 6th Day of Auguſt, 1707, Reſolved, That the Leaſe obtained by the Reſpondent, Maurice Anneſley, dated the 18th of February, 1700, of the Town and Lands of Sherlockſtown, in the Barony of Naas, and Co. of Kildare, from the Appellant, Thomas Earl of Limerick, is grounded on iniquitous Conſiderations, the ſaid Maurice Anneſley being then an Agent for the late Truſtees for Sale of the forfeited Eſtates, and other Intereſts in Ireland. And the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, Do further order, adjudge and decree, that the ſaid Decree, and the ſeveral Orders, Inrollments, Injunctions and Proceedings in the ſaid Cauſe, in the ſaid High Court of Chancery, be and are hereby reverſed, and made null and void: And that the intire Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Lands of Sherlockſtown be forthwith reſtored to the Appellants, Thomas Earl of Limerick, and William Sherlock, and their Under-tenants, in the ſame Manner as they were at the time of making or pronouncing of the ſaid Decree, in the ſaid High Court of Chancery, of the 4th of May, 1706; and the Sheriff of the Co. Kildare be and is hereby required forthwith to put the ſaid Appellants, the ſaid Thomas Earl of Limerick, and William Sherlock, and their Under-tenants, into the actual and quiet Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Lands of Sherlockſtown, with the Appurtenances, and from time to time to quiet them therein accordingly. And that the ſaid Maurice Anneſley ſhall have his Corn and Hay, now on the ſaid Lands of Sherlockſtown, paying according to the Cuſtom of the Country; and that the Cottiers do continue in Poſſeſſion of their Holdings, until the 1ſt Day of May next, paying their Rents to the Appellants, or their Order.

Report from Committee on King of Arms' Petition.

The Lord Viſc. Strabane, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee, appointed to conſider of the Petition of Will. Hawkins, Eſq; Ulſter King of Arms of all Ireland, that they met, and directed him to report:

That it is the Opinion of the ſaid Committee, that it will be for the Service of the Peerage of this Kingdom, that immediately after the Deceaſe of any Nobleman, or Noble Woman, by Patent or Deſcent, their Heirs or Executors ſhould make an Entry in the King of Arms' Office of the Death of ſuch Lord or Lady, with the Matches and Iſſues of their Family.

The ſaid Committee is further humbly of Opinion, that the Fees for the entering the Arms, Time of Deceaſe, and Place of Burial, together with the Matches and Iſſues of the Families of any Nobleman or Noble Woman of this Kingdom, by Patent or Deſcent, ought to be according to the following Liſt, and paid by the Heirs or Executors of the deceaſed Perſon.

Ordered, on Motion, that Thomas Doran be ſworn true Anſwer to make to all ſuch Queſtions as ſhall be demanded of him by the Lords of the Committee of Privileges, in relation to a Breach of Privilege committed againſt this Houſe by George Johnſton, John Leviſton, Henry Leviſton, William Leviſton and Samuel Gilleland, in diſturbing the Tenants of his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Armagh.

Thomas Doran is ſworn accordingly.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin reports from the Committee of Privileges, (to whom was referred the Breach of Privilege committed againſt this Houſe by Pierce Butler and Richard Butler and others, in diſturbing the Tenants of the Lord Biſhop of Killaloe) that they met, and directed him to report:

Report on Breach of Privilege.

THAT they find, by the Examination of Howlet Parker of Ballynekilly in the Co. Clare, Gent. aged 27 Years or thereabouts, That he is Tenant to the Lands of Gortſadda and Gortinegarke, belonging to the Biſhop of Killaloe, and that the ſaid Lord Biſhop was quieted in the Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Lands, by the Sheriff of the Co. Clare, by Virtue of an Order of this moſt Hon. Houſe, in the Year 1705: And that about the middle of July, in the ſaid Year, one Teige M'Mahon, Servant to Pierce Butler of Coogy in the ſaid County, came and forbid the Mower, employed by the ſaid Parker, to mow ſome Meadows he had in the ſaid Lands, as the ſaid Mowers informed him the ſaid Parker; and that, when the ſaid Hay was made up in Cocks, the ſaid Pierce Butler, with Richard Butler his Son, Teige M'Mahon and about Two Hundred more, as he judged their Number to be, with Swords and Guns, came and took away the ſaid Hay, and the Scythes of ſome of the Mowers employed by the ſaid Parker; and beat beat ſome of them, and drove them off the ſaid Lands. And that they ſtill diſturb the Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Parker, by driving Cattle on the ſaid Lands, and threaten, that if the ſaid Parker puts any Cattle on the ſaid Lands, they will drive them away into Conaught, and that the ſaid Parker ſhall never ſee them again.

That they likewiſe find, by the Examination of Thomas Marnan of Ballynekilly in the ſaid Co. Clare, Yeoman, aged 40 Years or thereabouts; that he knows the Lands of Gortfadda and Gortinegarke, and that they belong to the Biſhop of Killaloe; and that Mr. Howlet Parker is Tenant to the ſaid Lord Biſhop for the ſaid Lands. That in the Month of September, 1705, the ſaid Marnan was on the ſaid Lands, viewing his Maſter's Cattle feeding on it; and that Pierce Butler of Coogy came to the ſaid Marnan, and threatened, that he would kill him and his Maſter, if he found them on the Land: That the ſaid Marnan told him, That the Sheriff, by Order of this moſt Hon. Houſe, had quieted his Maſter's Poſſeſſion. To which the ſaid Butler anſwered, That he cared no more for the Houſe of Lords, than he cared for the Biſhop; and that he cared no more for the Biſhop, than for his old Shoes. That he was Sheriff, and had Power to give Poſſeſſion; and that the ſaid Pierce Butler cut a Sod, and gave it to John Butler, the ſaid Pierce's Son, in Token of Poſſeſſion; and ſaid, That it was worth forty Poſſeſſions of the Houſe of Lords. That the ſaid Pierce Butler ſeveral times brought thirty or forty Perſons, unknown, to this Deponent, and drove away the Cattle belonging to the Biſhop's Tenants off the ſaid Lands: And that about February, 1705, Richard Butler, Son of the ſaid Pierce Butler, unmercifully beat William Kelly, Tenant to Mr. Parker, and knocked him down, becauſe he, by his Maſter's Command, went to drive to Pound ſome Cattle belonging to the ſaid Butler, that treſpaſſed on the ſaid Lands; and that the ſaid Richard Butler had in Company aſſiſting him, Morgan M'Mahon, Bryan M'Mahon and Denis Horraghy, and three or four other Perſons unknown to the ſaid Deponent; and that they went to the next Hedge, and pulled up Stakes, and brought them on their Shoulders to the Aſſiſtance of the ſaid Pierce: And, when this Deponent told the ſaid Pierce, That he was fined £200 by the Houſe of Lords, he ſaid he valued it not; and that he would get it off for Six-pence: And that in April laſt, he told this Deponent, that he had accordingly got it off for Six-pence, as he had told him before. That February laſt, the ſaid Pierce put his Cattle on the ſaid Land, and employed ſeveral Perſons, Strangers to this Deponent, to keep the ſaid Cattle on the ſaid Lands, by Force; and that they grazed on the ſaid Lands, till the latter End of March, and till the Graſs on the ſaid Lands was eaten up.

That Pierce Butler, Richard Butler, Morgan M'Mahon, Bryan M'Mahon and Denis Horraghy are guilty of the Breach of the Privilege of this Houſe.

To which the Houſe agrees.

Order for apprehending divers Perſons &c.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, do forthwith apprehend and take the Bodies of Pierce Butler, Richard Butler, Morgan M'Mahon, Bryan M'Mahon and Denis Horraghy, for a Breach of Privilege by them committed againſt this Houſe, in diſturbing the Poſſeſſion of the Right Rev. Prayers read by the Right Rev. Father in God, Edward Lord Biſhop of Down and Connor.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee of Privileges, (to whom the Breach of Privilege committed againſt this Houſe by George Johnſton, John Leviſton, Henry Leviſton, William Leviſton, Thomas Doran and Samuel Gilleland, in diſturbing the Lord Primate's Tenants) that they met, and directed him to report from them:

Report on Breach of Privilege.

THAT they find, by the Examination of Bryan Henie, aged about 56 Years, That he has known George Johnſton of Ballynemetha in the Co. Armagh, for 12 Years, and that the Lord Primate has ſome Lands, called Liſſeaugh and Tynan, in the ſaid County; and knew the ſaid Lands 39 Years, and that he knew a Road from Tynan, through a Town-Land, called, Breaghwy, which was reckoned a High-way, and from that Road, another Road to the Town and Bog of Liſſeaugh, and that the Lord Primate's Tenants of Tynan have uſed that Road to bring home their Turf for theſe 39 Years laſt paſt; and that they have no other Road to bring their Turf home, nor any other way from Liſſeaugh to Market, or the Church of Tynan. That on or about the 23d of January laſt, he, the Deponent, was deſired by one Capt. James Manſon to go with him towards the ſaid Bog, that he might be a Witneſs of what he ſhould ſee, and that when they came to a Place where the High-Road joins with the aforeſaid Bye-Road on the Lands of Breaghwy, that leads to the ſaid Bog, belonging to the ſaid George Johnſton, he found John Leviſton, William and Henry Leviſton, Samuel Gilleland and Thomas Doran, making a Ditch acroſs the High-way, by which they turned the Highway near 20 Perches from the ſaid Place where it was before, and ſtopped up the Bye-Road that leads to the Bog and Town of Liſſeaugh; ſo that none of the ſaid Lord Primate's Tenants of Tynan could get to the Bog. That the ſaid Capt. Manſon charged the ſaid John Leviſton, and the reſt, not to ſtop his and the other Tenants' way to their Bog, and to the Church and Market. But the ſaid Leviſton anſwered, That his Landlord the ſaid Johnſton commanded him to make up the ſaid Ditch and ſhut up the Way, and that he durſt not deſiſt; for if he did not obey his Landlord, he durſt not live on his Farm; and that he went on with his Work, and ſtopped up the Way, which has continued ſtopped ever ſince. That the ſaid Capt. Manſon delivered him ſeveral Summonſes from the Houſe of Lords, to ſerve the ſaid John Leviſton, Henry Leviſton, William Leviſton, Thomas Doran and Samuel Gilleland, And that he ſerved John Leviſton, William Leviſton and Thomas Doran, perſonally, on the 15th of September laſt, by leaving the original Summonſes, with them, and keeping Copies, which he delivered to the Clerk of this Houſe; and that Samuel Gilliland and Henry Leviſton refuſed to receive the ſaid Summonſes.

That by the Depoſition of Andrew Rutledge of Tynan, aged 62 Years or thereabouts, That he knows the ſaid Lands of Tynan and Liſſeaugh and Breaghwy, ſince he was ſeven Years old; and that Tynan and Liſſeaugh belong to the Lord Primate of Ireland; and the Lands of Breaghwy belong to George Johnſton; and that he knew a free and open Road from Tynan to Liſſeaugh, through the Lands of Breaghwy, during all that time: That Part of the ſaid Road is the Queen's High-way, and Part the Way uſed by the Tenants of Liſſeaugh to the ſaid High-Road; and that they have no other Way to the Pariſh-Church, nor the Tenants of Tynan to the Bog; and that the Deponent's Father told him, the ſame was their way before the Wars of Forty-one; and that the ſaid Way is now ſtopped up by a Ditch, made acroſs the Queen's High-Road, which turns the ſaid Road from the Place where it always formerly was, during the time that this Deponent knew it, about 18 Perches, as he believes, and that, by that Means, the ſaid Tenants of Tynan have no Way to the Bog; and the Tenants of Liſſeaugh are ſo ſtopped up, that they have no Way to their Pariſh-Church or Market; And that he underſtands, by the Tenants of Tynan and Liſſeaugh, that the ſaid Ditch was made by the Order of George Johnſton.

That, by the Depoſition of Thomas Doran, that he hath known the Town and Lands of Tynan and Liſſeaugh for Eight or Nine Years, and likewiſe the Town of Breaghwy; That the two former belong to the Lord Primate, and the latter belongs to George Johnſton, and that there was a Way from Tynan to Liſſeaugh: That Part of the ſaid Road is the High-way; and that on the Land of Breaghwy, there was a Road from the High-way to Liſſeaugh, which was the only Road from Tynan to Liſſeaugh and the Tenants of Liſſeaugh have no other Way to Church or Market; nor have the Tenants of Tynan any other Way to bring home their Turf, their Bog lying in Liſſeaugh. That in February laſt, George Johnſton employed John Leviſton, in the hearing of the Deponent, and directed him to make up a Ditch, croſs the High-

High-Road, and the other Road that leads to the Bog; and that the ſaid Johnſton laid out with a Line the Way where the Ditch was to paſs, and made Holes in the Ground; and that John Leviſton employed this Deponent, as a Labourer, to aſſiſt at the making the ſaid Ditch, and that the ſaid Ditch accordingly is made; and the High-Way is turned from the Place where formerly it was; and that the Tenants of Liſſeaugh have now no Way to Church, or Market; or the Tenants of Tynan, to their Turf-Bog.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that George Johnſton, John Leviſton, William Leviſton, Henry Leviſton, Thomas Doran and Samuel Gilleland, are guilty of a notorious Breach of Privilege againſt this Hon. Houſe.

agreed to. To which this Houſe agrees.

Orders thereon. Ordered, on Motion, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, do forthwith apprehend and take the Bodies of George Johnſton, John Leviſton, William Leviſton, Henry Leviſton and Samuel Gilleland, for a notorious Breach of Privilege by them committed againſt this Houſe, in diſturbing the Tenants of his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Armagh.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Sheriff of the Co. Armagh, for the time being, do forthwith pull down the Ditch croſs the High-Road on the Lands of Breaghwy, which leads from Tynan to the Bog and Town of Liſſeaugh, belonging to his Grace the Lord Primate of all Ireland; and that the ſaid Sheriff do, from time to time, quiet his Grace and his Tenants in the Uſe, Poſſeſſion and Enjoyment of the ſaid Road.

Ordered, on Motion, that if George Johnſton do not appear in this Houſe, or be taken before Wedneſday next, that then an Addreſs be made to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, for a Proclamation to iſſue againſt the ſaid George Johnſton.

Committee on Butler's Fine revived. Ordered, on Motion, that the Committee appointed to examine and make further Inquiry how the Fine of £200, impoſed by this Houſe on Pierce Butler, happened not to be levied, be revived; and that they do meet immediately after the riſing of the Houſe, and that the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene be added to the ſaid Committee.

The Lord Chancellor, by Appointment of the Lords, adjourns the Houſe until Tueſday Morning next, at Ten of the clock.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, reports from the Managers for this Houſe, at a Conference with the Commons, that the Managers for the Commons, by Will. Conolly, Eſq; delivered a written Paper, which was read, in hæc verba:

Report from Conference.

A BILL, intitled, An Act for the Amendment of the Law, and the better Advancement of Juſtice, being by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, ſent to the Houſe of Commons: The Houſe have read the ſame, and are informed, that your Lordſhips agreed on Heads of a Bill, intitled, An Act for the Advancement of the Law, this Seſſion of Parliament; in which Heads of a Bill, ſo agreed on by your Lordſhips, and ordered by your Lordſhips to be carried to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to be tranſmitted into Great Britain in due Form, there was contained a Clauſe in the Words following:

" That no Copy, Abſtract or Tenor of any " Bill in Equity, do go with a Dedimus, or " Commiſſion for taking the Defendant's An- " ſwer; but, in Lieu and Recompence thereof, " the ſworn Clerks of the Court of Chancery, " ſhall take to their own Uſe, in all Cauſes, " the whole Term-Fee of 3*s*. 4*d*. and alſo the " whole Fee or Fees of and for all ſmall " Writs, made by the ſaid ſworn Clerks."

And that the ſame will appear by the ſaid Heads of a Bill, remaining on Record in the Office of the Clerk of your Lordſhips' Houſe.

They are further informed, that the above-recited Clauſe was wholly omitted out of the Copy of the Heads of a Bill ſo agreed to by your Lordſhips, and delivered to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; by which means the ſaid Clauſe is alſo omitted out of the Bill, now lying before the Houſe of Commons, which was wholly founded on the Heads of the Bill, which aroſe in your Lordſhips' Houſe, and were ſent by your Lordſhips to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and the Kingdom is thereby like to be deprived of the Relief intended for the Subject. Wherefore the Commons have thought fit to lay the ſame before your Lordſhips, believing the ſame to have been done by ſome ſiniſter and indirect Means.

Orders thereon.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Clerk of the Council do forthwith lay before this Houſe, the Heads of a Bill for the Amendment of the Law, and the better Advancement of Juſtice, which went from this Houſe.

Ordered, on Motion, that Mr. John Croker do attend this Houſe To-morrow Morning, in order to be examined as to the Heads of a Bill for the Amendment of the Law, and the better Advancement of Juſtice.

Committee on Pariſh-Bill.

Ordered, on Motion, that this Houſe do immediately reſolve themſelves into a Grand Committee of the whole Houſe, to conſider further of the Bill, intitled, An Act for dividing the ſeveral Pariſhes of St. Andrew's, St. Nicholas without the Walls, and the united Pariſhes of St. Catharine's, St. James's and St. John's of Kilmainham; and for making or erecting a new Pariſh, by the Name of the Pariſh of St. Anne, on the Ground lying between Grafton-ſtreet and Merryon-ſtreet, all ſituate, lying and being in or near the Suburbs of the City of Dublin.

The Houſe re-aſſumes.

Report, &c.

The Lord Biſhop of Ferns reports from the Grand Committee of the whole Houſe, appointed to conſider of the ſaid Bill; that they had made ſome further Progreſs therein, and deſire Leave to ſit again.

Ordered, on Motion, that this Houſe do, To-morrow Morning, reſolve themſelves into a Grand Committee of the whole Houſe, to conſider further of the ſaid Bill.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Clerk of the Council do, To-morrow Morning, at Ten of the clock, lay before this Houſe the Heads of a Bill for the Amendment of the Law, and the better Advancement of Juſtice, which went from this Houſe.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Debate ariſing on the reading the Petition of George Johnſton, be adjourned until To-morrow Morning.

The Lord Chancellor, by Appointment of the Lords, adjourns the Houſe until To-morrow Morning, at Ten of the clock.

Prayers

Prayers read by the Right Rev. Father in God, Edw. Lord Biſhop of Down and Connor.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Judges be covered.

Ordered, on Motion, that Harry Pulteney, Eſq; Deputy Clerk of the Council, now waiting at the Door with the Heads of a Bill for the Amendment of the Law, and the better Advancement of Juſtice, be called in, to deliver the ſaid Heads.

Proceedings on Heads of Law-Bill.

Harry Pulteney, Eſq; comes in accordingly, and delivers in the ſaid Heads of a Bill.

Ordered, on Motion, that Harry Pulteney, Eſq; be ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, true Anſwer to make to all ſuch Queſtions as ſhall be demanded of him by this Houſe, in relation to the ſaid Heads of a Bill.

Harry Pulteney, Eſq; being ſworn, declares the Heads of the Bill, which he now lays on the Table, are the ſame which were read at the Council-Chamber; and that he received the ſame, as he remembers, from one of Mr. Dawſon's Clerks.

Meſſage from Commons,

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod acquaints this Houſe, that ſome Members of the Houſe of Commons are at the Door, with a Meſſage from that Houſe.

Ordered, that they be called in.

They come in accordingly, and ſtand at the lower end of the Houſe.

The Lord Chancellor, accompanied with ſome of the Lords, goes to the Bar, uncovered.

The Commons approach the Bar of this Houſe, with three Courteſies.

The Lord Chancellor receives the Meſſage from the Commons; which done, the Commons retire, and the Lords re-aſſume their Places.

with Bill to prevent Popiſh Solicitors.

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, reports, that the Commons, by Mr. Serjeant Neave, had ſent up an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act to explain and amend an Act, intitled, An Act to prevent Papiſts being Solicitors; acquainting that their Houſe had paſſed the ſaid Bill, and deſire the Concurrence of this moſt Hon. Houſe.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, be read the firſt time.

Read accordingly.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, be read the ſecond time To-morrow Morning.

Further Proceedings on Heads of Law-Bill.

Ordered, on Motion, that John Smith, Eſq; be ſworn, true Anſwer to make to all ſuch Queſtions as ſhall be demanded of him by this Houſe, in relation to the Heads of a Bill for the Amendment of the Law, and the better Advancement of Juſtice.

John Smith being ſworn, declares, that the Heads of the Bill, now laid on the Table by the Clerk of the Council, is the ſame which went from this Houſe; and declares, that he, to the beſt of his Remembrance, examined the ſaid Heads of a Bill with the original, and that it was a true Copy thereof. Saith, that Mr. Saunders and Mr. Geering, two of the Six-Clerks, ſpoke to this Deponent, in relation to a Clauſe about Subpœnas, in Caſes of Injunctions to quiet Poſſeſſions, and about Statute Staples, that they might be added to the Bill; who made Anſwer, He would lay it before the Lords: And being aſked, What became of the original rough Draught of the Heads of the Bill? ſays it was either loſt or miſlaid, ſo that he cannot find the ſame, though he made diligent ſearch for them: And believes, it is the only Paper relating to this Hon. Houſe, that he either loſt or miſlaid ſince he had the Honour of being their Clerk. And being aſked, Whether any Perſon or Perſons had any Communication with him, in relation to the Clauſe about Tranſcripts? he ſaith, That no Perſon or Perſons, directly, or indirectly, ever ſpoke to him about any ſuch Clauſe; nor did he know, that any ſuch Clauſe was in the Engliſh Act, having then never read it through; nor did he know, whether that Clauſe ſhould be in or out of the ſaid Heads of a Bill. And being aſked, When he firſt miſſed the ſaid Heads, declares, that he did not miſs them till Friday the 10th of October inſt. that Mr. Conolly came to this Deponent, and told him, That that Clauſe was miſſing, and that there would be ſomething ſaid in the Houſe about it. Upon which this Deponent went to his Office to ſhew the ſame to the ſaid Mr. Conolly, believing it to be among the other Heads of Bills he had in his Office; but could not find the ſame, which put this Deponent under great Trouble and Concern.

Perſons examined, touching ſaid Heads.

Ordered, on Motion, that Charles Baldwin, Eſq; be ſworn, true Anſwer to make to all ſuch Queſtions as ſhall be demanded of him by this Houſe, in relation to the ſaid Heads of a Bill.

Charles Baldwin, being ſworn, declares, that the Heads of the Bill, now laid on the Table by the Clerk of the Council, is the ſame which was read at the Table in this Hon. Houſe, and agreed to by the Houſe; and, for cauſe of Knowledge, ſaith, that he was directed to fill up the Blanks in the Heads of the Bill, with theſe Words, viz. "Firſt, Michaelmas Term," which he carried out, in order to have the Clerk that wrote the ſaid Heads, to put in thoſe Words, that it might be of the ſame Hand; but the Clerk, not being then in the Office, Mr. Benjamin Boyſe, Journal-Clerk, inſerted thoſe Words in the Blanks; and for further Cauſe of Knowledge, ſaith, That there was at the latter end of the ſaid Bill a Clauſe inſerted, relating to Jurors in the Co. Galway, which was not agreed to by the Houſe: And the Lords, who were appointed to carry the ſaid Heads of the Bill to the Lord Lieutenant, being in haſte, would not ſtay until the Heads of the Bill were tranſcribed over fair; ſo that the ſaid Clauſe was torn off at the End of the laſt Sheet; and knoweth not what became of the Original; but ſaith, he made diligent Search for the ſame, but could not find it.

Ordered, on Motion, that Mr. John Carpenter be ſworn true Anſwer to make to all ſuch Queſtions as ſhall be demanded of him by this Houſe, in relation to the ſaid Heads of a Bill.

John Carpenter ſworn, declares, he did not attend the Committee that Day; but that Mr. Boyſe did; and that he does not know, directly or indirectly, what became of the ſaid Heads of a Bill, nor does he know any thing of the ſaid Clauſe; that he made diligent Search for it, but could not find it.

Ordered, on Motion, that Charles Byrne be called in, and ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, true Anſwer to make to all ſuch Queſtions as ſhall be demanded of him by this Houſe, in relation to the ſaid Heads of a Bill.

Charles Byrne, ſworn, declares, the Copy produced to him was all of his Hand-Writing, except the firſt Sheet; and verily believes, that Copy is a true Copy of the Original; but knows not whoſe Hand the Original was: And ſays, the Original was delivered him by Mr. Smith or Mr. Carpenter; and believes, when it was tranſcribed, both Original and Copy were delivered to Mr. Smith: And being aſked, Whether any one looked over him, or ſpoke to him about a Clauſe, relating to the Six-Clerks, whilſt he was copying the ſame, declared, that he did not remember any one did; but ſaith, one Mr. Bunbury paſſed to and fro, whilſt this Deponent was writing the ſame.

Ordered, on Motion, that Benjamin Boyſe be called in, and ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, true Anſwer to make to all ſuch Queſtions as ſhall be demanded of him by this Houſe, in relation to the ſaid Heads of a Bill.

Benjamin Boyſe, ſworn, declares, he examined the Copy, now on the Table, with the Original, with one John Price, and that he, to the beſt of his knowlege and belief, declares the ſame to be an exact and true Copy in every particular; for that he inter-lined ſome Words therein, to make it agree with the Original; and does not remember or believe any Clauſe relating to Tranſcripts to be in the original Draught: And doth not know what is become of the original rough Draught, and could not find the ſame, though he made diligent Search for it.

Ordered, on Motion, that John Croker be called in, and ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, true Anſwer to make to all ſuch Queſtions as ſhall be demanded of him, in relation to the ſaid Heads of a Bill.

John Croker ſworn, declares, that Mr. Juſtice Coote ordered him to draw a Draught of a Bill, "for Amendment of the Law," by that which paſſed in England; and to leave out ſome Clauſes that were not adapted to, or proper for, this Kingdom; which he accordingly did; and left out ſuch Clauſes as he thought did not relate thereto; and particularly the Clauſe as to Seamen's Wages; but cannot poſitively ſay, whether he left out the Clauſe relating to Tranſcripts; and being afterwards aſked to Anſwer, as to his Belief, Whether he put into the Heads of the Bill, which were ſent to this Houſe, the Clauſe relating to Tranſcripts? He declared, he believed he did not; for that he did not remember any ſuch Circumſtance, as his putting or pinning any Paper to the Copy he prepared for this Hon. Houſe; as he had done in that Copy, he prepared for the Commons, and delivered to Mr. Conolly, believing it a Banter on the Six-Clerks to give them, as an Equivalent, the 3*s*. 4*d*. Termly fee, and the benefit of ſmall Writs, which he believed they had before.

Ordered, on Motion, that Mr. Juſtice Coote be examined, in relation to the ſaid Heads of a Bill.

Mr. Juſtice Coote is examined accordingly.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Clerk of this Houſe do draw up Copies of the ſeveral Examinations, this Day taken, in relation to the Heads of a Bill, "for the Amendment of "the Law, and the better Advancement of "Juſtice," for the Lord Chancellor, who is to report the ſame to this Houſe To-morrow Morning. Order thereon.

Ordered, on Motion, that this Houſe do, To-morrow Morning at Ten of the clock, reſolve themſelves into a Grand Committee of the whole Houſe, to inſpect and conſider the Bill, intitled, An Act for ſettling and preſerving a publick Library for ever, in the Houſe for that Purpoſe built by his Grace Narciſſus, now Lord Archbiſhop of Armagh, on Part of the Ground belonging to the Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin's Palace, near the City of Dublin, and compare the ſame with the Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain. Orders for Committees, &c.

Ordered, on Motion, that this Houſe do, To-morrow Morning, reſolve themſeves into a Grand Committee of the whole Houſe, to conſider further of the Bill, intitled, An Act for dividing the ſeveral Pariſhes of St. Andrew's, St. Nicholas without the Walls, and the united Pariſhes of St. Catherines, St. James's and St. John's of Kilmainham, and for making or erecting a new Pariſh, by the Name of the Pariſh of St. Anne, on the Ground lying between Grafton-Street and Merryon-Street, all ſituate, lying and being, in or near the Suburbs of the City of Dublin.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Debate ariſing on the reading the Petition of George Johnſton, be adjourned until To-morrow Morning.

The Lord Chancellor, by Appointment of the Lords, adjourns the Houſe until To-morrow Morning, at Ten of the clock.

Report on Breach of Privilege.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee of Privileges, to whom the Examination and Conſideration of a Breach of Privilege, committed againſt this Houſe by James Magrath, Sub-Sheriff of the Co. Cavan, and Edward Macternan, in diſturbing the Poſſeſſion of the Right Rev. Father in God, Edward Lord Biſhop of Kilmore, in the Lands of Prabagh, in the Co. Leitrim, was referred; that they met, and find, by the Depoſitions of Owen O'Rorke, aged 40 Years or thereabouts, he has known the Lands of Prabagh, about 24 Years, and that the ſaid Lands are eſteemed to be in the Co. Leitrim, and that they do belong, and are in the Poſſeſſion of, the Lord Biſhop of Kilmore and his Tenants; and that there is an Iron-Mine on the ſaid Lands; and that the late Lord Coloony, before the late Troubles, paid the then Biſhop of Kilmore 200 Weight of Iron for Leave to dig and carry away the ſaid Mine for the Uſe of the Iron-Works of Caſtlefore. That he knows one Magrath, Under-Sheriff of the Co. Cavan, and that the ſaid Magrath did, in the Month of June laſt, enter on the ſaid Land, and that the ſaid Under-Sheriff had in his hand a Writ, which he ſaid was an Injunction; and ordered one Macternan, one Bramſton and one Turlogh M'Kellaghan to go to the Bank, where the ſaid Iron-Mine is digged, and to ſtick a Pick-ax in the ſaid Bank, and did pretend, by that, to quiet the Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Bramſton in the ſaid Mine, by Virtue of the ſaid Writ: That the Deponent told the ſaid Under-Sheriff, that the ſaid Land and Mine belonged to the Biſhop of Kilmore, and was his Eſtate; and that the ſaid Magrath ought not to meddle with the ſaid Poſſeſſion; and that the ſaid Lands were in the Co. Leitrim, and not in the Co. Cavan; and this Deponent ſhewed the ſaid Under-Sheriff the Mears of the ſaid County; and this Deponent heard, that the ſaid Under-Sheriff had £5 for giving or quieting the ſaid Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Bramſton: That this Deponent digged the Mine, and had 2*s.* ℔ Ton for raiſing the ſaid Mine, being employed by Mr. Laurence Crow, Tenant to the ſaid Biſhop of Kilmore, for the ſaid Lands, under Bryan Maguire, immediate Tenant to the ſaid Biſhop, from All-Saints, 1705, to February 1706, and was not diſturbed before the ſaid February; and then the ſaid Bramſton diſturbed the Deponent, and hindered him from working the ſaid Mine, and as aforeſaid the ſaid Magrath executed the ſaid Injunction.

Witneſſes examined.

Walter Walſh, aged 52 Years or thereabouts, being ſworn and examined, ſaith, that he knew the Lands of Prabagh, and that they are in the Poſſeſſion of the Biſhop of Kilmore by his Tenants: That there is an Iron-Mine on the ſaid Lands of Prabagh, and that the ſaid Mine has been wrought, by Leave from the ſaid Biſhop of Kilmore and his Tenants, for five Years laſt paſt; and that the ſaid Lands of Prabagh are in the Co. Leitrim, and that he knew of no Diſturbance of the Biſhop's Poſſeſſion before February laſt: That about that time, one William Bramſton, who formerly raiſed Mine for one Capt. Crow, to whom the Iron-Works of Ballinemore do belong: That the ſaid Bramſton, after he had raiſed Mine for one Year, refuſed to raiſe it for Capt. Crow as cheap as others were content to do it; and that then the ſaid Bramſton went to Lady Beresford's Agent, and got Leave from him to dig Bog-Mine in the Co. Cavan; and on that pretence wrought the Mine belonging to the Biſhop, which is Rock-Mine, and in the Co. Leitrim, alledging it to be Lady Beresford's Mine; and brought an Injunction, as he heard, to quiet the ſaid Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Lady Beresford.

Daniel Dunn of Outragh in the Co. Leitrim, aged 36 Years or thereabouts, being examined, depoſeth, that he knows the Lands of Prabagh, and that they lie in the Co. Leitrim, and in the Poſſeſſion of the Biſhop of Kilmore, by his Tenants: That there is on the ſaid Lands of Prabagh Iron-Mine Banks, which he has known about 13 Years: That the ſaid Mines have been wrought for ſeveral Years by ſeveral Perſons, by the Leave and Appointment of the Biſhop of Kilmore and Tenants; and that the Biſhop or Aſſignees met with no Diſturbance till February laſt; that it happened by means of ſome Difference betwen one Capt. Crow, that holds the Iron-Works of Ballinemore and one William Bramſton, that raiſed Mine for him in the ſaid Iron-Mines, belonging to the Biſhop; becauſe the ſaid Bramſton would not do it ſo cheap for the ſaid Crow, as others would; on which the ſaid Crow refuſed to employ him: And that he was preſent when the ſaid Bramſton brought a Warrant, and ſeized ſeveral of the ſaid Biſhop's Tenants, for working the ſaid Mines: And afterwards that the Deponent heard he brought an Injunction. That in May, 1705, the Deponent became Tenant to the ſaid Lands of Prabagh, and that then the ſaid Bramſton put this Deponent to work on the ſaid Bank of Mine, as belonging belonging to the Biſhop of Kilmore, and Part of the Lands of Prabagh; and he wrought in the ſaid Bank till May laſt; and ſince, one Owen O'Rorke has wrought in it, whom the ſaid Bramſton has diſturbed.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of the ſaid Committee, that James Magrath, Edward Macternan, William Bramſton and Turlogh M'Callaghan are guilty of a Breach of Privilege of this Houſe, in diſturbing the Poſſeſſion of the Lord Biſhop of Kilmore.

To which the Houſe agrees.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, do forthwith apprehend and take the Bodies of James Magrath, Edward Macternan, William Bramſton and Turlogh M'Callaghan, for a Breach of Privilege by them committed againſt this Houſe, in diſturbing the Poſſeſſion of the Right Rev. with Outlawry-Bill

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, reports, that the Commons, by William Weſtgarth, Eſq; had ſent up an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act to ſupply the Defects, and for the better Execution of an Act, intitled, An Act for the avoiding of privy and ſecret Outlawries of his Majeſty's Subjects, in perſonal Actions; acquainting, that it paſſed their Houſe, and deſire the Concurrence of this moſt Hon. Houſe.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, be read the firſt time on Saturday Morning next.

Ordered, on Motion, that Leave be given to Mr. Juſtice Coote to withdraw the Paper, wherein his Examination was taken by the Clerks, there being, as he finds, a Miſtake therein; and that he may give in another, which was done accordingly, in hæc verba:

Juſtice Coote's Examination touching a Bill for Amendment of the Law.

MR. Juſtice Coote, being examined, declares, that ſome ſhort time before the Meeting of the Parliament, he was deſired by my Lord Chief Juſtice Pyne to draw, "Heads of a Bill "for the Amendment of the Law;" and accordingly he made ſome Progreſs therein; and he, hearing afterwards that the Houſe of Commons had appointed a ſelect Committee to bring in Heads of a Bill to the ſame Purpoſe, Mr. Juſtice Coote deſiſted: That ſome few Days afterward, Mr. Conolly, one of the Committee, as he underſtood, for bringing in the ſaid Bill into the Houſe of Commons, and Mr. Juſtice Coote, meeting caſually, they fell on the Diſcourſe of that Bill; and Mr. Conolly, underſtanding that the ſaid Mr. Juſtice Coote had had the Heads of that Bill under his Conſideration, Mr. Conolly deſired Mr. Juſtice Coote to proceed thereon, and communicate the ſame to him. That accordingly, Mr. Juſtice Coote drew more of the Heads; but being obliged to go out of Town, Mr. Juſtice Coote gave the Reſidue to Mr. Croker, Mr. Juſtice Coote's Clerk, to perfect; and withal directed him, in the beſt manner he could, how to frame the remaining Part, and alſo deſired him to communicate the Whole to the Lord Chief Juſtice, and praying to make ſuch Alterations as he ſhould judge requiſite; that done, to give it to Mr. Conolly, with what Expedition he could, that he might not be diſappointed: That after Mr. Juſtice Coote returned from the Country, he aſked Mr. Croker, whether he had given Mr. Conolly the ſaid Heads, who anſwered He had.

Some time after this, the Lord Chief Juſtice Pyne and Mr. Juſtice Coote, ſitting near each other, in the Houſe of Lords, the Lord Chief Juſtice took Notice to Mr. Juſtice Coote, that he had ſeen the Heads of that Bill: He ſeemed to approve the Draft, and whether at that time, or ſome other time in the Houſe, Mr. Juſtice Coote, was deſired by his Lordſhip to prepare the Heads of the ſaid Bill for the Lords, which Mr. Juſtice Coote excuſed himſelf from, in regard he had Bills recommended to him from the Council, and expected more of the like. Whereupon his Lordſhip told Mr. Juſtice Coote, that his Health would not permit him to ſtay in Town; and that he expected to get Leave to be abſent, or Words to that effect; and deſired Mr. Juſtice Coote to make Mr. Croker draw again the Heads of the Bill, which Mr. Juſtice Coote promiſed he would do. After this, a Meſſage was left at Mr. Juſtice Coote's Houſe in the Evening, that the Lord Chief Juſtice deſired to ſpeak with Mr. Juſtice Coote that Night, and the ſaid Mr. Juſtice Coote attended, and his Lordſhip ſpoke then to him again on the ſame Subject, and about ſeveral other Matters, which he deſired Mr. Juſtice Coote to do for him on that Occaſion. Mr. Juſtice Coote ſays, that he deferred awhile from ſpeaking to Mr. Croker, to ſee if he himſelf could find Leiſure to draw the Heads; but finding he could not, he ſpoke to Mr. Croker one Evening, who inſtantly went about it, and drew the Heads of the ſaid Bill in the Night, who gave them to Mr. Juſtice Coote, juſt as he was going into his Coach, who brought them to the Houſe of Lords, and gave them to the Biſhop of Clogher, who had often preſſed for the ſaid Heads. That Mr. Juſtice Coote had not Leiſure to read the ſame, or any Part of them, excepting ſome Clauſes, which he occaſionally read to anſwer a Queſtion, put to him privately by the Biſhops of Clogher and Limerick; and at another time, a Queſtion put to him by the Biſhop of Killaloe. That Mr. Juſtice Coote cannot be poſitive, for the Reaſons aforeſaid, whether the Clauſe in Queſtion was in, or not; but he believes it was not, in regard he remembers Mr. Croker to have had ſome Diffidence with himſelf how to frame it; and Mr. Juſtice Coote thinks it is probable he might, for that Reaſon, have omitted it.

Lord Chief Juſtice Pyne examined.

Ordered, on Motion, that Leave be given to the Lord Chief Juſtice Pyne, to withdraw the Paper wherein his Examination was taken by the Clerk; there being, as he finds, a Miſtake therein, and that he may give in another, which was done accordingly, in hæc verba.

LORD Chief Juſtice Pyne, being aſked, Whether he remembers the Clauſe relating to the Six-Clerks, to be in the Copy of the Heads of a Bill, which he ſaw? Declares, that he ſaw the Clauſe in the Copy, which he peruſed, and and is now with the Commons; but never ſaw that which was prepared for this Houſe, being then gone into the Country. Being aſked, if Mr. Bunbury were with him, about the ſaid Bill? He ſaid, that Mr. Bunbury came to him; and, to the beſt of his Remembrance, ſaid, that it was very hard to have ſuch a Clauſe put into the Bill, which would be ſo prejudicial to them; and that they were not on the ſame foot with the Engliſh Clerks: To which his Lordſhip made Anſwer, It was in the Engliſh Bill; and that he would take Care it ſhould be in this. To which Mr. Bunbury made Anſwer, They muſt oppoſe it.

His Lordſhip further ſaid, he believed it was a Miſtake in Mr. Croker, in leaving out that Clauſe, out of the Heads of a Bill that came into this Hon. Houſe.

Ordered, on Motion, that Leave be given to the Lord Chief Baron to withdraw the Paper, wherein his Examination was taken by the Clerk, there being, as he finds, a Miſtake therein; and that he may give in another, which was accordingly done, in hæc verba:

L. C. Baron delivers Paper

LORD Chief Baron declares, that he was not in this moſt Hon. Houſe, when their Lordſhips ordered the bringing the ſaid Heads of the Bill, for the Amendment of the Law; nor was he in the Houſe, when the ſaid Heads were brought in; nor when the ſame were read in this moſt Hon. Houſe; nor was in the Houſe, when the ſaid Heads were committed; nor did he know what Directions were given by this moſt Hon. Houſe, either on the ordering the ſaid Heads to be prepared, or brought in, or on the Committal of the ſame. He ſaith, that after the ſaid Heads were committed, he coming into this moſt Hon. Houſe, was told by ſome Body, but whom he cannot remember, The Judges were ordered to attend the ſaid Committee, which he did; and in the Committee-Chamber, the printed Act in England was put into his Hands; and the ſaid Heads of the ſaid Bill were then read; and, to the beſt of his Memory, the ſame did agree with the ſaid printed Act, he held, in Subſtance, for ſo much as was contained in the ſaid Heads: And, as he remembers, he then obſerved to the ſaid Committee ſome Clauſe or Clauſes, that were in the ſaid Engliſh Act, were left out in the ſaid Heads, particularly ſomething relating to Seamen; but what the other Clauſe or Clauſes, he then obſerved to have been omitted in the ſaid Heads, he cannot charge his Memory, nor can he remember whether the Clauſe relating to Tranſcripts was either in the ſaid Heads, ſo read; or whether he made any Obſervation to the Committee thereupon. He ſaith alſo, he never ſaw the ſaid Engliſh Act, nor had he any Account or Information of any Clauſe or Clauſes therein, at any time before the ſame was put into his Hands in the Committee-Chamber, as aforeſaid; nor did he know, nor to his Remembrance, was he informed, there was any Clauſe in the ſaid Engliſh Act, relating to Tranſcripts, 'till after the ſame was taken Notice of in this moſt Hon. Houſe.

Proceedings on Lady Clanmaleery's Bill.

Read accordingy.

Ordered, on Motion, that John Mulhallon be called in, and ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, true Anſwer to make to all ſuch Queſtions as ſhall demanded of him by this Houſe. Witneſſes examined.

John Mulhallon comes in accordingly, and is ſworn, and on his Oath declares, that he verily believes the Name of the Lady Clanmaleery, ſubſcribed to the Paper of Conſent for paſſing the ſaid Bill to be the proper Hand-writing of the ſaid Lady Clanmaleery, having often ſeen her Hand, and knows the Name of Mr. Thomas Meredith, ſubſcribed as a Witneſs to the ſaid Conſent, to be the proper Hand-writing of the ſaid Thomas Meredith, he being very well acquainted with the ſaid Meredith's Hand-writing.

Ordered, on Motion, that Henry Dowdall, Eſq; be called in, and ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, true Anſwer to make to all ſuch Queſtions as ſhall be demanded of him by this Houſe.

Henry Dowdall comes in accordingly, and is ſworn, and on his Oath declares, that Mr. Thomas Meredith ſhewed him, in England, my Lady Clanmaleery's Conſent, and told him, that he had ſhewn her Ladyſhip the Heads of the ſaid Bill.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Judges do give their Opinions, Whether the Queen, by any Clauſe or ſaving in the ſaid Bill, be ſecured?

The Lord Chief Juſtice Pyne gives his Opinion, that the Queen is ſecured; with which Opinion all the other Judges concur. Judges' Opinion.

Lady Clanmaleery's Bill,

Ordered, purſuant to the Order of the Day, that the ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for ſettling the Eſtate of Anne Lady Viſcounteſs Dowager of Clanmaleery on Richard Lord Bellew Baron of Duleek; and for raiſing £3000 thereout, for the Portion of Mary Nugent, Niece of the ſaid Lady Clanmaleery, and Wife of Francis Bermingham, eldeſt Son of Edward Lord Baron of Athenry, be read the third time.

Report on Petition of Officers, &c. The Lord Viſc. Mountjoy, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee of Privileges, to whom the Petition of the Servants attending this Houſe was referred; that they met, and find, that notwithſtanding ſeveral Addreſſes have been made to the Government in favour of their Officers and Servants, ſuch Applications have had little or no Effect.

They find further, that by the Money-Bill, agreed to lately by their Lordſhips, effectual Proviſion has been made for the Officers and Servants attending the Houſe of Commons: To which ſaid Money-Bill their Lordſhips have readily and chearfully conſented, though no Proviſion is thereby made for the Officers and Servants of their Lordſhips' Houſe: And having acted in this Matter with ſuch intire Confidence in the Government, their Lordſhips hope it will rather be an Advantage, than a Detriment to their Officers and Servants, in procuring for them the ſeveral Rewards, which they ſo juſtly deſerve, and very much want.

The Committee are therefore come to the following Reſolutions:

Reſolved,

and Reſolutions

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe ought to be rewarded for their Service and Attendance, purſuant to the ſeveral Addreſſes, made by the Houſe to the Government in their Favour.

Reſolved, that they think the Honour of the Houſe concerned, in ſeeing ſuch Rewards and Gratuities given to their Officers and Servants.

Reſolved, that further Application be made to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, effectually to recommend their Officers and Servants, ſo as they may receive ſuch Gratuities and Rewards, as their Services have deſerved.

agreed to. To which the Houſe agrees.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, do wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, with a Copy of the above Report, Reſolutions and the former Addreſs of this Houſe, and acquaint his Excellency, that this Houſe is of Opinion, that the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe ought to be rewarded for their Service and Attendance, purſuant to the ſeveral Addreſſes made by the Houſe to the Government in their favour; and think the Honour of the Houſe very much concerned in ſeeing ſuch Rewards and Gratuities given to them; and earneſtly requeſt his Excellency ſo effectually to recommend them to her Majeſty, as they may receive ſuch Gratuities and Rewards as their Services have deſerved, and as was formerly ordered them by this Houſe.

The Lord Viſc. Mountjoy, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee of Privileges, to whom the Petition of William Hynd, Deputy Serjeant at Arms attending this moſt Hon. Houſe was referred; that they met, and are of Opinion, that the Orders of this moſt Hon. Houſe be repeated to the Barons and other Officers of her Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, requiring them effectually to have the Fines, laid on Pierce Butler by this Houſe, levied to her Majeſty; and that an Addreſs be made from this Houſe to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that £50 thereout be paid to the ſaid William Hynd, Deputy Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, for his great Trouble and Expence, in taking the ſaid Pierce Butler; and that the Remainder be applied, as this Houſe have formerly directed.

P. Butler fined £100 extra. Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the ſaid Pierce Butler, having reſcued himſelf from the Deputy Serjeant at Arms' Meſſengers, and abuſed them in the Execution of their Duty, that the ſaid Pierce Butler be fined in the further Sum of £100 ſterl. and that Application be made to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that he would give further Orders for the enforcing the Execution of the Orders of this Houſe, againſt the ſaid Pierce Butler, and Richard Butler his Son, by iſſuing a Proclamation againſt the ſaid Pierce Butler and Richard Butler, or otherwiſe, as his Excellency ſhall think fit; and that the ſaid Fine of £100 be eſtreated into the Exchequer; And that the Barons and Officers of her Majeſty's Court of Exchequer do cauſe the ſaid £100 to be levied in the ſame Manner as the other £200 are to be levied, and that Application be made to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that the ſaid £100 be divided among the Officers and Servants of this Houſe, towards the Payment of their Fees.

To which the Houſe agrees.

Order thereon. Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, do wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, with a Copy of the above Report and Reſolution, and lay the ſame before his Excellency.

Ordered, on Motion, that Pierce Butler of Coogy in the Co. Clare, Gent. purſuant to the foregoing Report, to which the Houſe agreed, be and is hereby fined £100 ſterl. for contemptuouſly reſcuing himſelf from the Serjeant at Arms' Meſſengers, and abuſing them in the Execution of their Duty; and the Clerk of this Houſe is required to eſtreat the ſame into the Court of Exchequer.

Bill to oblige Proprietors to make Fences. Ordered, purſuant to the Order of the Day, that the ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act to oblige Proprietors and Tenants of neighbouring Lands to make Fences between their ſeveral Holdings, be read the firſt time.

Read accordingly.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, be read a ſecond time To-morrow Morning.

Bill to continue temporary Statutes. Ordered, purſuant to the Order of the Day, that the ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for continuing and perpetuating of divers Laws and Statutes, heretofore temporary, and for amending of the Law, in relation to Butter-Caſks, be read the firſt time.

Read accordingly.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, be read a ſecond time on Monday Morning next.

Bill for Exportation of Corn. Ordered, purſuant to the Order of the Day, that the ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for encouraging the Exportation of Corn, be read the firſt time.

Read accordingly.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, be read the ſecond time To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, on Motion, that this Houſe do, To-morrow Morning, reſolve themſelves into a Grand Committee of the whole Houſe, to conſider further of the Bill, intitled, An Act for ſettling and preſerving a publick Library for ever, in the Houſe for that Purpoſe built by his Grace Narciſſus, now Lord Archbiſhop of Armagh, on Part of the Ground belonging to the Archbiſhop of Dublin's Palace, near the City of Dublin.

Ordered,

Orders on Bills, &c.

Ordered, on Motion, that this Houſe do, To-morrow Morning, reſolve themſelves into a Grand Committee of the whole Houſe, to conſider further of the Bill, intitled, An Act for dividing the ſeveral Pariſhes of St. Andrew's, St. Nicholas without the Walls, and the united Pariſhes of St. Catherine's, St. James's and St. John's of Kilmainham; and for making or erecting a new Pariſh, by the Name of the Pariſh of St. Anne, on the Ground lying between Grafton-ſtreet and Merryon-ſtreet, all ſituate, lying and being in or near the Suburbs of the City of Dublin.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Debate ariſing on the Petition of George Johnſton, be adjourned until To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act to prevent the Diſorders that may happen in the marching of Soldiers, and for the providing Carriage for the Baggage of Soldiers in their March, be read the firſt time To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for explaining and amending two ſeveral Acts againſt Tories, Robbers and Rapparees, be read the firſt time To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for the more effectual preventing the taking away and marrying Children, againſt the Will of their Parents or Guardians, be read the firſt time To-morrow Morning.

His Excellency Thomas Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, enters the Houſe, with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Roſcomon bearing the Cap of Maintenance; the Earl of Cavan carrying the Sword of State; the Hon. Tho. Butler, Eſq; Brother to the Lord Viſc. Ikerrin, the Hon. Charles Caulfeild, Eſq; third Son to the Lord Viſc. Charlemont, and the Hon. George Wandesford, Eſq; Son to the Lord Viſc. Caſtlecomer, bearing the Train; and his Excellency, making his Congé to the Cloth of State, ſeated himſelf in the Chair under the Canopy.

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, kneeling, confers with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, orders the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to acquaint the Commons, that his Excellency commands their Attendance in this Houſe immediately.

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod returns, and acquaints this Houſe, that the Commons are at the Door.

Ordered, that they be called in.

8. An Act for explaining and limiting the Privileges of Parliament.
9. An Act for cleanſing the Port, Harbour and River of Dublin, and for erecting a Ballaſt-Office in the ſaid City.
10. An Act for ſettling the Eſtate of Anne Lady Viſcounteſs Dowager of Clanmaleery on Richard Lord Bellew, Baron of Duleek; and for raiſing £3000 thereout, for the Portion of Mary Nugent, Niece of the ſaid Lady Clanmaleery, and Wife of Francis Bermingham, eldeſt Son of Edward Lord Baron of Athenry.

His

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made an excellent Speech in hæc verba:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

IT is with great Satisfaction I have obſerved your Chearfulneſs in the proſecution of her Majeſty's Service, in this Seſſion of Parliament.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

BY your Unanimity in granting the neceſſary Supplies for the Eſtabliſhment, it appears you had nothing more at heart, than her Majeſty's Service, and the common Safety; and I ſhall not be wanting to repreſent to the Queen your Zeal and Affection for her Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I AM very ſenſible how much your Application has given Diſpatch to the publick Bills; and I muſt deſire the Continuance of it, that the Kingdom may receive the Benefit of ſuch Laws, as are ſtill under your Conſideration.

The Lord Lieutenant retires from this Houſe, attended as he entered.

The Lord Chancellor, by Appointment of the Lords, adjourns the Houſe until To-morrow Morning, at Ten of the clock.

ſſed.

Reſolved, on the Queſtion, that the ſaid ingroſſed Bill do paſs into a Law.

Proteſt.

WE the Lords under-named do diſſent againſt the ſaid Reſolution:

1. Becauſe St. Bride's and other Churches which are appropriate to the Dean and Chapter of St. Patrick's, Dublin, will, as we conceive, be liable to be diſappropriated, the Patrons being obliged, by this Bill, to preſent their Clerk to the Archbiſhop of Dublin, and to his Inſtitution thereupon, and by this Means alſo the Dean of St. Patrick's will loſe his Juriſdiction.

2. Becauſe the Bill impowers Dean Synge to ſet his Manſe-Houſe for three-ſcore Years, and forty Years after the Expiration of that Term, at a ſmall Rent, contrary to Law, and will, as we conceive, be very prejudicial to his Succeſſors, and looks like a Reward to him for having ſuffered Dilapidations, and muſt neceſſitate Non-reſidence in the Manſe-Houſe, contrary to the Intention of the Act of Settlement.

3. We conceive the Miniſter, Church-Wardens and Pariſhioners of St. Audoen's Pariſh, will be injured by making the Bounds of St. Catherine's Pariſh reach to the River Anna Liffey, over againſt the Bowling-Green, whereby Part, at leaſt, of the Ground, known by the Name of Sir William Uſher's Iſland, ever claimed as the Right of St. Audoen's Pariſh, will be taken from them, and will be made Part of the ſaid St. Catherine's Pariſh, without having the Conſent of the Miniſter, Church-Wardens and Pariſhioners of the ſaid St. Audoen's Pariſh.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made an excellent Speech, in hæc verba:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

IT is with great Satisfaction, that I now put an End to this Seſſion of Parliament, wherein you conducted all Affairs with due regard to the Crown, and in it the Good of your Country; and I cannot doubt, but you have a grateful Senſe of the many good Laws the Queen has now given you.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

BEFORE we part, I cannot but obſerve, amongſt all the Qualifications, with which her Majeſty is endowed, her Subjects have been moſt eminently bleſſed by her Majeſty's Vigilance, Moderation and Juſtice; and by practiſing them in your ſeveral Stations: The Firſt, will prevent all foreign Attempts; the Second, by healing your Diviſions, will ſtrengthen the Proteſtant Intereſt, and ſecure your Peace at home: And by the good Adminiſtration of Juſtice, you will ſuppreſs Profaneneſs and Immorality; and altogether make a flouriſhing and happy People, for which I earneſtly recommend them.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, confers with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, acquaints both Houſes, as followeth:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Thurſday the 6th of May next; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thurſday the 6th of May next.

The Lord Chancellor reports the ſame accordingly, in hæc verba:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

HAVING the Honour to be ſent hither by the Queen our Sovereign; and having received her Majeſty's Commands to open to you, her Parliament, the Cauſes of your preſent Meeting, I cannot but think it worth Obſervation, that, notwithſtanding the many weighty and glorious Affairs on which her royal Mind is continually employed; and that it now ſeems, as if HEAVEN had put under her immediate Care the Fate, and the Liberties of the whole Chriſtian World: Her Majeſty doth not, however, fail to have an equal Concern for all that have the Bleſſing to be under her Protection; and, in a particular Manner, her Majeſty lets you, of this Kingdom, ſee the Care ſhe hath for your Welfare and Happineſs, by giving you this Opportunity of meeting together, of adviſing and debating with one another; and of laying before her whatever you ſhall think may moſt conduce to your Intereſt and Advantage. When, at the ſame time, I have Directions to tell you, that her royal Intentions are to conſent to ſuch Bills, as ſhall be thought reaſonable and neceſſary to be tranſmitted to her, for the Eaſe, Happineſs and Security of all her Subjects.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

THE Queen has had ſo much Experience of your conſtant Duty and Affection, that I have her Majeſty's Commands to let you know, ſhe does not at all doubt, but that you will readily and effectually give ſuch Supplies, as ſhall be neceſſary for the Support of her Government; and, that you may have no Cauſe to doubt or to complain, in any particular, her Majeſty hath alſo commanded me to direct the proper Officers, that a perfect State be laid before you of the Revenue, and of all Accounts relating to the Publick, which I have Reaſon to hope, and believe, will be done after ſuch a Manner, as will be to every Gentleman's Satisfaction. I am alſo commanded by her Majeſty to tell you, that although ſhe hath been obliged, by the Nature of this War, and by the Extenſiveneſs of it, to ſend upon other Services, for the common Cauſe, ſome of thoſe Regiments that are upon this Eſtabliſhment, her Reſolutions however are, and you may depend upon it, that others ſhall be forthwith ſent to replace them.

I have likewiſe her Majeſty's Directions, to lay before you the Neceſſity that ſhe thinks there is, of your taking into Conſideration, Whether it will not be for your Service, to put ſome of your Fortifications into a better Condition of Defence? Whether it will not be reaſonable for you, to have a ſufficient Quantity of Ammunition and War-like Stores always beforehand? And whether it will not be abſolutely neceſſary to think of building ſome proper and ſafe Place for the keeping of thoſe Arms and Stores, which you have already, and which you may think fit hereafter, to provide.

Upon all which, I can with the more Confidence inſiſt, becauſe it is moſt certain, that whatever ſhall be paid by you, upon any of theſe Accounts, will be laid out amongſt yourſelves, and will be employed wholly for your own Service, and for your own Security.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I AM obliged and directed to lay before you another Conſideration of infinite Conſequence, and that is to put you in Mind of the great Inequality there is (in reſpect of Numbers) between the Proteſtants and Papiſts of this Kingdom, and of the melancholy Experience you have had of the Good-nature of this Sort of Men, whenever they have had it in their Power to diſtreſs, or to deſtroy you.

Theſe Reflections muſt neceſſarily lead you to think of two Things; the firſt is, ſeriouſly to conſider, whether any new Bills are wanting to enforce or explain thoſe good Laws, which you have already, for the preventing the Growth of Popery; and in the next Place, it makes evident, the Neceſſity there is of cultivating and preſerving a good Underſtanding amongſt all the Proteſtants of this Kingdom: What the moſt proper Methods are, to compaſs ſo deſirable and ſo neceſſary an End, you yourſelves, who have the Opportunities of knowing the Uneaſineſſes of any of your Fellow-Subjects may lie under, are the fitteſt to judge. I will only add, that the Queen, who is all Goodneſs, never had any thing ſo much at her royal Heart, as the bringing to paſs and perfecting the Union of her Subjects of Great Britain.

And I may venture to ſay, that ſhe looks upon her Succeſs, in that great Undertaking, to equal, if not to exceed, any other of the Glories of her Reign.

Her Majeſty now, with the ſame Earneſtneſs, and with the ſame hopes of Succeſs, recommends to you a perfect Union and Friendſhip amongſt yourſelves: and it is therefore to be hoped, that every good Subject and good Proteſtant will endeavour to follow ſo great an Example, and to procure ſo general a Bleſſing.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee, appointed to draw up an Addreſs of Condolance to her Majeſty on the Death of her late royal Conſort Prince George; and alſo to congratulate her Majeſty for the Succeſs of her Arms; that they met, and had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which was read at the Clerk's Table, and agreed to, with ſome Amendments, in hæc verba:

Addreſs of Condolance, &c. to the Queen, reported; and

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave at this our firſt Opportunity of Meeting, to expreſs our hearty Sorrow and Concern, for the Death of your royal Conſort: We of this Kingdom of Ireland, are more particularly ſenſible of the Loſs of that moſt excellent Prince; and his Memory will ever be precious among us, for his many Favours to us, and eſpecially his hazarding his Perſon here, for our late happy Deliverance.

We at the ſame time congratulate your Majeſty, on the continual Succeſſes of your Councils and Arms, whereby the Balance of Europe is now put into your Hands, to the great Joy of your Subjects, the Terror of your Enemies, and the Security of all your Allies.

It is next, under GOD, to your Majeſty's wiſe and ſteady Conduct, that we owe all theſe Bleſſings, together with the deſirable Proſpect of a happy and laſting Peace: And we do promiſe ourſelves, that it will be the peculiar Glory of your Majeſty's Reign, to have have delivered our Proteſtant Brethren abroad from Oppreſſion; to have reduced the exorbitant Power of France to proper Limits; and eſtabliſhed, for ever, our excellent Conſtitution, in Church and State.

We return our moſt humble Thanks to your Majeſty, for ſending his Excellency the Earl of Wharton (a Perſon of ſo great Wiſdom and Experience) to be our Chief Governor; and likewiſe for the gracious Aſſurances, which, in your Majeſty's Name, he has given us from the Throne, of your royal Favour, and Intentions of conſenting to any Bills, which may conduce to the Happineſs and Welfare of this Kingdom.

We do, with the utmoſt Sincerity, aſſure your Majeſty, of an inviolable Fidelity to your Perſon and Government; and that we will, on all Occaſions, ſupport and maintain your undoubted Right to the Crown of this Realm, and the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line, againſt all Pretenders whatſoever, as the ſame is now eſtabliſhed by Act of Parliament.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee, appointed to draw an Addreſs of Thanks to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, for his Speech; that they met, and prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which was read.

Clauſe in Addreſs of Thanks to Ld Lieutenant

The previous Queſtion being put, Whether the Queſtion ſhould be now put, that a Clauſe (in theſe Words, viz. "We humbly repreſent "to your Excellency, that we cannot but "eſteem the Church, as by Law eſtabliſhed, "to be the main Bulwark of the Proteſtant "Intereſt in this Kingdom, yet in order to re"move any Pretence of Uneaſineſs, which "may ſeem to affect our Fellow-Subjects, we "are willing to conſent to give them the ſame "Indulgence, and on the ſame Terms, as "they have in England, when it comes before "us in a Parliamentary way,") ſhould be added to the ſaid Addreſs?

negatived; It paſſed in the Negative.

Which ſaid Addreſs, being again read over, and ſome Amendments made thereto, the ſame and is agreed to by the Houſe, in hæc verba:

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

original Addreſs agreed to.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return our hearty Thanks to your Excellency, for your Speech from the Throne, and for inviting us to prepare ſuch Heads of Bills, as may conduce to our Happineſs and Security; and we do acknowledge her Majeſty's Care of us, in ſending your Excellency to be our Chief Governor.

We gratefully receive your Excellency's Aſſurance, that other Regiments ſhall be forthwith ſent to ſupply the Place of thoſe employed elſewhere, and are thankful for the Hopes given us, that the Revenue of this Kingdom ſhall be expended in it.

Your Excellency's Care of our Safety, with relation to the Fortifications and Stores of War, is very acceptable to us all, and a moſt ſeaſonable Service to this Kingdom.

We ſhall, with all poſſible Readineſs, join in any new Bills, to enforce the Laws againſt Popery, and cultivate and improve a good Underſtanding amongſt Proteſtants.

We humbly repreſent to your Excellency, that we cannot but eſteem the Church, as by Law eſtabliſhed, to be the beſt Bulwark of the Proteſtant Intereſt in this Kingdom, againſt all the Attempts and Deſigns of Papiſts: And we humbly conceive, that all our Fellow-Subjects are treated with ſo much Tenderneſs, under her Majeſty's moſt gracious Government, that we hope they never will have juſt Reaſon to complain of any Uneaſineſs, but find it their true Intereſt, to join in ſupporting our happy Conſtitution, in Church and State.

We are ſenſible, her Majeſty may, with Juſtice, account it one of the greateſt Glories of her Reign, to have brought to paſs the Union of her Subjects of Great Britain: And, on this Occaſion, we beg Leave to hope, in due time, her Majeſty will perfect this great Work, by bringing her Kingdom of Ireland, alſo, into the Union. And we depend upon your Excellency's Goodneſs, that, as you have been ſo conſiderable an Inſtrument in effecting the one, you will, likewiſe, contribute your good Offices, to accompliſh the other. And until this can be effected, we will uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to anſwer her Majeſty's and your Excellency's Expectations, in preſerving and cheriſhing a perfect Union of Affections amongſt ourſelves.

Ordered, on Motion, that this Houſe, with their Speaker, do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, with both the foregoing Addreſſes.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, do wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to know his Pleaſure, when and where this Houſe, with their Speaker, may attend him with the ſaid Addreſſes.

Report of Committee on Officers. &c.

The Ld Viſc. Strabane, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee, appointed to examine what Benefit the ſeveral Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, have received, by the ſeveral Addreſſes made by this Houſe in their behalf, to the ſeveral Chief Governors; that they met, and came to ſeveral Reſolutions.

The Report being read, the ſame was agreed to by the Houſe, and follows, in hæc verba:

THE Committee, appointed to examine what Benefit the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe have received, by the ſeveral Addreſſes made by this Houſe in their behalf, have met, and do find, that the Money addreſſed for by this moſt Hon. Houſe is:

| | £. | s. | d. |
|---|---|---|---|
| By their Addreſs of the 25th of November, 1703, — — — — — | 1230 | 0 | 0 |
| By their Addreſs of the 9th of June, 1705, — — — — — — | 700 | 0 | 0 |
| By their Addreſs of the 1ſt of Auguſt, 1707, — — — — — — | 433 | 10 | 0 |
| By their Addreſs of the 29th of October, 1707, — — — — — — | 750 | 0 | 0 |
| In all — — | £3113 | 10 | 0 |

They alſo find, that the following Application was made to the Lord Lieutenant, by the Lord Chancellor, purſuant to the Order and Reſolutions of this Houſe, on the 24th of October, 1707.

That, notwithſtanding ſeveral Addreſſes have been made to the Government in favour of of their Officers and Servants, ſuch Applications have had little or no Effect.

They find further, that by the Money-Bill, agreed to lately by their Lordſhips, effectual Proviſions have been made for the Officers and Servants attending the Houſe of Commons; to which ſaid Money-Bill their Lordſhips have readily and chearfully conſented, though no Proviſion is thereby made for the Officers and Servants of their Lordſhips' Houſe: And, having acted in this Matter with ſuch intire Confidence in the Government, their Lordſhips hope it will rather be an Advantage, than a Detriment, to their Officers and Servants, in procuring for them the ſeveral Rewards, which they ſo juſtly deſerve, and very much want.

This Committee therefore come to the following Reſolutions.

Reſolutions thereon,

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe ought to be rewarded for their Service and Attendance, purſuant to the ſeveral Addreſſes, made by the Houſe, to the Government in their favour.

Reſolved, that they think the Honour of the Houſe concerned, in ſeeing ſuch Rewards and Gratuities given to their Officers and Servants.

Reſolved, that further Application be made to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, effectually to recommend their Officers and Servants, ſo as they may receive ſuch Gratuities and Rewards, as their Services have deſerved.

To which the Houſe agrees.

agreed to; and ſent to Lord Lieutenant.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, do wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, with a Copy of the above Report, Reſolutions and the former Addreſs of this Houſe; and acquaint his Excellency, that this Houſe is of Opinion, that the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe ought to be rewarded for their Service and Attendance, purſuant to the ſeveral Addreſſes made by the Houſe, to the Government, in their favour; and think the Honour of the Houſe very much concerned, in ſeeing ſuch Rewards and Gratuities given to them; and earneſtly requeſt his Excellency ſo effectually to recommend them to her Majeſty, as they may receive ſuch Gratuities and Rewards, as their Services have deſerved, and as was formerly ordered them by this Houſe.

All which, being laid before his Excellency, he was pleaſed, on the 30th of October, 1707, to give the following Anſwer by the Lord Chancellor, viz.

" That he would lay them before the Queen " as effectually as he could, and uſe his utmoſt " Endeavours to get the Rewards of this " Houſe, deſigned for them, paid to them."

They find that, notwithſtanding all theſe ſeveral Applications, there hath been no more than £307 : 10*s.* actually paid to the ſaid Officers and Servants.

They further find a Letter from her Majeſty, counter-ſigned by the Lord High-Treaſurer of Great Britain, bearing date the 18th of November, 1708, for £750 more, to be paid the ſaid Officers and Servants in full of all their Pretenſions, on account of their ſaid Services, as well in the laſt as all preceding Seſſions of Parliament.

All which Matters, being maturely conſidered by this Committee, they are come to the following Reſolutions:

New Reſolutions propoſed.

That the two afore-mentioned Sums of £307 : 10*s.* and £750, falling ſhort £2056 of the Sums your Lordſhips thought fit to apply for.

Reſolved, that they are of Opinion, that the whole Sum of £3113 : 10*s.* is but a competent Reward for the ſaid Officers and Servants, for their Service and Attendance, in the ſeveral Seſſions of Parliament ſince the Revolution, before the preſent Seſſion.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Honour of the Houſe is nearly concerned to have the aforementioned Sum paid their Officers and Servants; and therefore, that an humble Addreſs to the Queen be drawn up, deſiring her to take the ſame into her gracious Conſideration, and that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant may be deſired to tranſmit the ſame.

The ſaid Committee, in purſuance of the Order of this moſt Hon. Houſe, of the 13th inſt. have conſidered what is fit to be given the Officers and Servants attending this moſt Hon. Houſe; and are humbly of Opinion, that according to the Precedents in your Journal, the following Sums be given to them for this preſent Seſſion,

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| To the Clerk — — — | £200 | 0 | 0 |
| To the Clerk-Aſſiſtant — | 100 | 0 | 0 |
| To the Reading-Clerk — | 80 | 0 | 0 |
| To the Serjeant at Arms — | 50 | 0 | 0 |
| To the Journal-Clerk — — | 36 | 0 | 0 |
| To the Yeoman-Uſher — — | 20 | 0 | 0 |
| To the four Door-keepers — | 40 | 0 | 0 |
| To the four Meſſengers — | 20 | 0 | 0 |
| To the Fire-maker and Sweeper of this Houſe — — — | 4 | 0 | 0 |

As to the Reward for the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, they find ſuch Variety in the Journals, that they have thought fit to report it ſpecially, in the following Manner:

Mr. Andrew Loyd, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, by the Journal of the 25th of November, 1703, was to have £200 for his Attendance, in two Seſſions of Parliament.

Capt. Humphry Gore was to receive for the Seſſion in 1703, £112: In the Seſſion of 1705, the then Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod was to receive £150. Laſtly, we find, that in 1707, the then Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod was to receive £200 for the Service of that Seſſion.

Orders thereon.

Ordered, on Motion, that £150 be given to the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod for his Attendance this preſent Seſſion.

Ordered,

Ordered, on Motion, that the Committee appointed to examine what Benefit the ſeveral Officers and Servants attending this Houſe have received by the ſeveral Addreſſes, made by this Houſe, do draw up an Addreſs to her Majeſty in the behalf of the ſaid Officers and Servants.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſame Committee do conſider what is fit to be given to Charles Baldwin, Eſq; for his Service in copying and briefing the Tranſmiſſes of Bills, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and attending this Houſe, in comparing the ſaid Tranſmiſſes with the ingroſſed Bills, for the laſt Seſſion of Parliament and this preſent Seſſion.

The Lord Viſc. Strabane, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee, appointed to draw up an Addreſs to her Majeſty in behalf of the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, that they met and had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which was read.

The Queſtion being put, Whether the Houſe agree with the Committee, in the Clauſe relating to Charles Baldwin, Eſq?

It paſſed in the Negative.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Matter relating to Charles Baldwin, Eſq; be re-committed to the ſaid Committee, who are to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten of the clock, and that all the Lords who come, ſhall have Voices.

Juſtice Coote Leave to attend Commons.

Ordered, on Motion, that Mr. Juſtice Coote have the Leave of this Houſe to attend a Committee of the Houſe of Commons.

Heads of Bill for poſthumous Children.

The Lord Viſc. Bleſſinton, purſuant to the Order of this Houſe, brings in Heads of a Bill to enable poſthumous Children to take Eſtates, as if born in their Fathers' Life-time.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be read To-morrow Morning.

The Lord Chancellor, by Appointment of the Lords, adjourns the Houſe until To-morrow Morning, at Eleven of the clock.

Heads of Bill on Coin, &c.

The Lord Biſhop of Clogher, purſuant to the Order of this Houſe, brings in Heads of a Bill for the better preventing the counterfeiting the current Coin of this Kingdom.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be read.

Read accordingly.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be read again on Thurſday Morning next.

The Lord Viſc. Strabane, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee, appointed to examine what Benefit the ſeveral Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, have received by the ſeveral Addreſſes, made by this Houſe; and to draw up an Addreſs to her Majeſty in behalf of the ſaid Officers and Servants; and to conſider the Matter relating to Charles Baldwin, Eſq; that they met, and came to a Reſolution in favour of the ſaid Charles Baldwin.

To which the Houſe, with ſome Amendments, agrees, as follows, in hæc verba:

THAT they are humbly of Opinion, that Charles Baldwin, Eſq; ought to be rewarded for his Services, in copying and briefing the Tranſmiſſes of Bills, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and giving perſonal Attendance on this moſt Hon. Houſe, to compare the ingroſſed Bills with the original Tranſmiſſes; and are humbly of Opinion, that he deſerves £226; and ought to be comprehended in the Addreſs to her Majeſty for the ſame.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid whole Addreſs, as now amended, be read over.

Read accordingly, and agreed to by the Houſe, in hæc verba:

Most gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the Queen, on Officers, &c.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do moſt humbly repreſent to your Majeſty, that having maturely conſidered, that the Fees received by the Officers and Servants attending our Houſe, are very ſmall, and bear no Proportion to their Labour and Expences, have made ſeveral Addreſſes from time to time, to the Chief Governors of this Kingdom, in their behalf, deſiring that the Sum of £3113 : 10*s.* ſhould be given to the ſaid Officers and Servants, for their Attendance and Service, in the ſeven ſeveral Seſſions of Parliament held in this Kingdom ſince the Revolution.

That, as appears by their ſeveral Oaths, made at the Bar of this Houſe the 17th of July, 1707, the ſaid Officers and Servants had then received only £307 : 10*s.* and that on the 18th of Nov. laſt, there iſſued a Letter from your Majeſty, ſigned by the Lord High-Treaſurer of Great Britain, for the Sum of £750 more, to be paid the ſaid Officers and Servants, in full of all their Pretenſions, for Attendance and Services.

That, finding by our Journals, greater Rewards have been formerly given, on the like Occaſions, than we have herein applied for, we preſume to lay it before your Majeſty, as our unanimous Opinion, that the aforementioned Sum of £3113 : 10*s.* is but a moderate Reward for our Officers and Servants; and that, we humbly conceive, the Honour of our Houſe is nearly concerned to have thoſe Rewards paid to them.

We further humbly repreſent to your Majeſty, that in the laſt Money-Bill agreed to by this Houſe, effectual Proviſion was made for the Officers and Servants attending the Houſe of Commons, to which Money-Bill we did readily and chearfully conſent, though no Proviſion was thereby made for the Officers and Servants of our Houſe: And having acted in this Matter with ſuch intire Confidence in the Government, we hope it will rather be an Advantage than a Detriment, to our Officers and Servants, in obtaining for them the ſeveral Rewards, which they ſo juſtly deſerve, and very much want.

We alſo humbly apply ourſelves to your Majeſty, in favour of Charles Baldwin, Eſq; for his Service the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, and this preſent Seſſion, in copying and brieſing the Tranſmiſſes of Bills, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and giving conſtant Attendance on the Houſe of Lords, to compare the ſaid Tranſmiſſes with the ingroſſed Bills, which are of late voluminous, and the copying and brieſing thereof very troubleſome and chargeable; beſides his conſtant Attendance on the Houſe of Lords, to compare the ingroſſed Bills with the original Tranſmiſſes: And we are humbly of Opinion, he may deſerve the Sum of £226, which we humbly pray your Majeſty, may be paid him.

We likewiſe humbly repreſent to your Majeſty, that it is our humble Opinion, and Deſire, that the Sum of £700 be given to our Officers and Servants, for their Labour and Attendance in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, do, as from this Houſe, wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, with the ſaid Addreſs; and requeſt, that his Excellency would be pleaſed to tranſmit the ſame to her Majeſty.

The Lord Chancellor, by Appointment of the Lords, adjourns the Houſe until To-morrow Morning, at Eleven of the clock.

1. A Clauſe for removing the Pariſh-Church of Carrowgallen, in the Dioceſe of Kilmore, to a more convenient Place.

2. A Clauſe for uniting ſeveral Pariſhes in the Dioceſe of Elphin.

3. A Clauſe for changing the Scite of ſeveral Churches in the Dioceſe of Cloyne.

4. A Clauſe for removing the Pariſh-Church of Drumgah, in the Dioceſe of Dromore, to a more convenient Place.

5. A Clauſe for removing the Pariſh-Churches of Kibcony and Shankill, in the Dioceſe of Dromore, to more convenient Places.

6. A Clauſe for uniting ſeveral Pariſhes in the Dioceſe of Leighlin.

Upon which the Committee came to the following Reſolution, which their Lordſhips directed him to report:

RESOLVED, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the ſaid ſeveral Clauſes will be better provided for by the Heads of a Bill for that Purpoſe.

That their Lordſhips had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill to them referred, and agreed to the ſame, with ſeveral Amendments, which he was directed to report likewiſe to your Lordſhips.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be read To-morrow Morning.

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod acquaints this Houſe, that the Commons are in the Conference-Chamber.

The Managers for this Houſe withdraw.

They return.

Report from Conference.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin reports from the Managers for this Houſe, at the Conference, that they received a written Paper from the Managers for the Commons, which was read, in hæc verba:

" THE

Paper delivered by Commons.

" THE Commons have at all times been, " and always will continue, desirous to keep a " good Correspondence with the Lords, which " as they never intended to interrupt by their " Answer to the Message of the Lords (sent by " Mr. Conolly, the 3d Day of June, 1709) so " they conceive their Answer is taken in a " Sense different from their Meaning: To " which they are willing to impute the Sur- " prise the Lords express in the Paper, de- " livered at a Conference on the 4th Day of " June, 1709, and their Lordships apprehend- " ing the Answer of the Commons not to be " such as is usual on such Occasions.

" The Commons think their Answer to the " Message of the Lords, imports no Acknow- " ledgement, that Benjamin Wilks or Laurence " Hore are menial Servants to the Lord Bishop " of Cloyne. And although they give intire " Credit to the Affirmation of their Lordships, " mentioned in the Message of the Lords of " the 31st Day of May, 1709, yet they assure " their Lordships, that on the 21st Day of May, " when the said Persons were ordered to be " summoned, the said Wilks was complained " of as a publick Officer and Register: And it " appeared to the Commons, that the said " Wilks was a publick Officer and Register of " the Consistory-Court of Cloyne, and also " Deputy Register of the Consistory-Court of " Cork and Ross; and resided in Cork, 13 " Miles distant from Cloyne, where the Lord " Bishop lives, and out of his Diocese: And " that Laurence Hore was not only an Ap- " paritor of the Consistory-Court of Cloyne, " but Bailiff to the Sheriff of the Co. Cork; so " as on the 21st Day of May, 1709, they could " not know them to be menial Servants to " the Lord Bishop of Cloyne. And although " the Commons did not, in their Summons, " mention them to be Officers, yet, as soon as " they received their Message from the Lords, " (of the 31st Day of May, intimating the said " Wilks and Hore to be menial Servants of " the Lord Bishop of Cloyne) they notified to " their Lordships, that they proceeded against " the said Wilks and Hore, only as acting in " their respective Offices of Register and Ap- " paritor, against a Member of their House, " in Violation of the Privileges thereof: And " have no Complaint nor Intent to proceed " against them, or either of them, in any " other Capacity; and therefore concluded, " that their proceeding in that Manner against " the said Wilks and Hore, for violating the " Privileges of the Commons, in their Offices " of Register and Apparitor, could give no " Cause of Offence to the Lords, although the " said Hore and Wilks should have been at " that time menial Servants to the Lord " Bishop, which did not appear to them, at " the time of issuing such Summons; nor did " they enquire into the same, they apprehend- " ing it to be the equal Right of each House " of Parliament, to determine who are menial " Servants of their respective Members.

" The Commons, by expressing themselves " so fully on this Occasion, have manifested " their earnest Desire and Resolution to pre- " serve a good Understanding between both " Houses of Parliament; and cannot doubt " but that the Lords will concur, on their " Part, toward the Attainment of so desireable " an end; and the rather, considering with " what Temper and Regard towards the " Lords, the Commons have acted, in not " nicely weighing the Import of some Ex- " pressions in the Lords' Paper, delivered at " the Conference of the 4th of June, 1709, lest " the same might minister Occasion of Resent- " ment: But they cannot omit adding, that " each House of Parliament is equally and " only the Judge of the Privileges of their " respective Houses, and whether the same " be violated or not; and that the same are " not to be taken into Consideration else- " where."

Committee on Commons' Paper.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lords undernamed, or any five of them, be a Committee to take into Consideration the said written Paper, and report their Opinion thereon; and that they do meet To-morrow Morning, at Nine of the clock and that all the Lords of this House who come, shall have Voices.

Ordered, purſuant to the Order of the Day, that this Houſe do immediately take into Conſideration the Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, in behalf of the Maſters in Chancery, which was accordingly done and agreed to by this Houſe, in hæc verba:

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs in behalf of the Maſters in Chancery.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, having conſidered, that the Maſters in Chancery are conſtant Attendants on the Houſe of Lords: That the Salary, allowed to each of them on the Eſtabliſhment, is but £20 a Year, and their Fees very inconſiderable, are humbly of Opinion, that their Salaries ought to be augmented to £100 a Year, at leaſt, for each of them; to bear ſome proportion to the Dignity and Truſt of their Employments. And we intereſt ourſelves the more readily in this Matter, becauſe we find, by our Journals, that an Augmentation was made to the Salaries of the Judges, who are likewiſe Aſſiſtants to the Houſe of Lords, by an Application from this Houſe.

We therefore earneſtly requeſt your Excellency, effectually to recommend this our humble Addreſs to her Majeſty.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Archbp of Tuam, the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene and the Lord Viſc. Charlemont, do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Addreſs.

The Lord Biſhop of Killaloe reports from the Committee, appointed to conſider what Anſwer ſhould be ſent the Commons to the Meſſage brought up by Mr. Tho. Brodrick, relating to the Fees of both Houſes, on paſſing private Bills; that they met, and agreed to an Anſwer, which was read, and, with ſome Amendments, agreed to by the Houſe, in hæc verba:

Anſwer to Commons concerning Fees, &c.

THE Lords have always been very deſirous to keep a good Correſpondence with the Commons, and had immediately returned an Anſwer to the firſt Meſſage, ſent by the Commons by Mr. Thomas Brodrick, relating to the Fees of both Houſes, in paſſing of private Bills, and did ſend out to call in the Member that brought up that Meſſage, to receive the Lords' Anſwer accordingly; but found that he had withdrawn himſelf, contrary to the uſual Method and Cuſtom of Parliament.

Otherwiſe there had been no need of reminding the Lords in that Particular; but the Lords do now readily agree to a Conference with the Commons, upon the Subject-matter of their Meſſage, in the Conference-Chamber, and appoint the ſame to be immediately.

Ordered, that Dr. Stone and Dr. White, two of the Maſters in Chancery, do carry the ſaid Meſſage to the Commons To-morrow Morning.

I James Lord Viſc. Strabane, do proteſt againſt the ſaid Vote, becauſe the Conference moved for, was in order to a Parliamentary-way of ſecuring the Payment of the ſeveral Sums, which on the 16th of laſt May this moſt Hon. Houſe was unanimouſly of Opinion to be but a moderate Reward, for the Service and Attendance of the Officers and Servants of this Houſe, in all the ſeveral Seſſions of Parliament ſince the Revolution.

L. Strabane's Proteſt.

Whereas relying upon Hints of Promiſes, without ſo much as an Explanation, from whom, is not, in my humble Opinion, a ſufficient Motive to induce a Lord, who is not let into the Secret, to venture thereon the Honour of the Houſe, expreſſed by an unanimous Vote, "to be nearly concerned to have "the afore-mentioned Sums paid to the ſaid "Officers and Servants."

STRABANE.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lords undernamed, or any three of them, be a Committee to draw an Addreſs of Thanks to her Majeſty for what Money ſhe hath already ordered to be paid the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe; and that further Application be made to her Majeſty for the Remainder of the Money heretofore addreſſed for; and that they meet on Tueſday Morning next, at Nine of the clock, and that all the Lords that come, ſhall have Voices.

Committee to prepare an Addreſs of Thanks to the Queen.

The Lord Chancellor reports an Anſwer from her Majeſty, to the Addreſs of this Houſe, in favour of the Maſters in Chancery: That upon the Application that hath been made to her Majeſty, at the Requeſt of this Houſe, that the Salaries of the Maſters in Chancery may be augmented to £100 a Year, at leaſt, for each of them, her Majeſty hath been graciouſly pleaſed to direct this Anſwer:

"That her Majeſty will conſider of this "Addreſs, when her Majeſty ſhall make a "new Eſtabliſhment for the Kingdom of "Ireland."

The Queen's Anſwer on Maſters in Chancery.

The previous Queſtion being put, Whether the Queſtion ſhould be now put, That an Addreſs of Thanks ſhould be given to her Majeſty, for her Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe, in favour of the Maſters in Chancery?

Previous Queſtion on a Vote of Thanks.

I James Lord Viſc. Strabane do proteſt againſt the ſaid Vote: Becauſe her Majeſty, having been graciouſly pleaſed to name the Time ſhe took for conſidering of the Addreſs of this moſt Hon. Houſe, in behalf of the Maſters in Chancery. It, in my humble Opinion, imports a favourable Diſpoſition in our gracious Queen to grant, then, the Lords' Requeſt: In Confidence whereof, I was for returning an Addreſs of Thanks to her Majeſty, being encouraged thereunto by the like Zeal, ſhewn by ſeveral Lords, upon ſuch an Occaſion juſt before.

To the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs of Thanks to the Queen.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Majeſty our moſt humble Thanks for the Regard your Majeſty hath been pleaſed to ſhew to our Addreſs of the 25th of November, 1703, in behalf of the Officers and Servants attending our Houſe, by granting the £1230, the Sum for which the Lords' Houſe did then addreſs, and ordering it to be paid the reſpective Officers and Servants: and we likewiſe acknowledge your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in that your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to direct that for every Seſſion, ſince held, there be paid and allowed the ſaid Officers and Servants, the Sum of £500 for each.

But we humbly beg Leave to lay before your Majeſty, that by the Addreſsof our Houſe of the 17th of May, 1709, we repreſented it as our unanimous Opinion, that the Sum of £3113 : 10*s.* was but a moderate Reward for our Officers and Servants; and that we conceived the Honour of the Houſe to be nearly concerned to have thoſe Rewards paid to them.

And we humbly repreſent to your Majeſty, on Review of that Affair, and full Conſideration of the Attendance and Pains that neceſſarily are incident to the Execution of the Offices of this Houſe, and of the ſmall Advantages that accrue to thoſe that execute them; that it is for your Majeſty's Service, and neceſſary for the Diſpatch of the Buſineſs of this Houſe, that what remains unpaid of the ſaid Sum of £3113: 10s. may be given to the ſaid Officers and Servants; and £700 for their Labour and Attendance in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

And we, with the greater Confidence, make this Addreſs, becauſe, in the preſent Money-Bill before us, a greater Sum is allowed to the Officers of the Houſe of Commons, for this Seſſion, though fewer in number.

And we alſo beg Leave to renew our Application to your Majeſty, in behalf of Cha. Baldwin, Eſq; who hath, by himſelf and Clerks, copied and briefed all the Bills tranſmitted under the Great Seal of Great Britain, which were voluminous and very long, and given a conſtant Attendance on this Houſe to compare the Copies and Ingroſſments of the ſaid Bills with the original Tranſmiſſes, which hath been an extraordinary Trouble and Charge; for which, we are of Opinion, that he doth deſerve the Sum of £226, which we humbly again pray your Majeſty, may be paid him.

Report on Archdeacon Mead's Caſe.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin reports from the Committee of Privileges, to whom the Petition of Archdeacon Dominick Mead was referred, relating to a Breach of Privilege, committed by arreſting the menial Servant of the ſaid Archdeacon, being a Member of the Lower Houſe of Convocation; that they have inſpected the Journals and Acts of Parliament, relating to the Privilege of Convocation, and do find by the Act of Parliament, paſſed in Ireland, 3d Edward IV. Chap. 1. that the Proctors of the Clergy have the ſame Privileges of Parliament, as the Lords and Members of the Houſe of Commons.

Acts of Parliament and

And by the Act, paſſed in England, but in Force in Ireland, the 8th of Henry VI. Chap. 1. fo. 232, the Clergy, called the Convocation, and their Servants and Families that come with them, have the ſame Privileges, as the great Men and Commonalty of the Realm.

They alſo find, that by the Statute of the 28th of Henry VIII. Chap. 12, the Votes of the Proctors in Parliament are taken away, but not their Aſſiſtants or Privileges.

Precedents adduced.

They find likewiſe by the Journal of the Lords' Houſe, 20th March, 1634, Page 60, that a Warrant iſſued againſt Samuel Clark and Thomas King, for their Contempts, in invading the Privileges of the Houſe, in proſecuting a Suit againſt William Burley, Chaplain in Ordinary to the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Ranelagh, the Houſe being made acquainted, that the ſaid Clark and King were both Members of the Lower Houſe of Convocation: It was ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, by Conſent of the ſaid Lord Viſc. Ranelagh, that the Matter ſhould be committed to that Houſe to be proceeded in, where the Lord Ranelagh would make his Proceedings known; and, in the mean time, that the ſaid Clark and King were to be ſet at Liberty.

That by the ſaid Journal of the 24th of March, 1639, Page 102, they likewiſe find, that the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam moved in behalf of Archdeacon Floyd, that was a Member of the Lower Houſe of Convocation, was in Reſtraint for Debt, not in Execution, deſired the Privilege of the Houſe, on Security to reſtore his Perſon at the End of the Parliament, if he compounded not. That it was referred to the Committee of Privileges, and Parties ſent for. That the 26th March, fo. 104, in the ſaid Journal, the Lords of the Committee of Privileges entered into a Debate of the Matter touching the ſaid Archdeacon Floyd, being a Member of the Convocation-Houſe, then in the Cuſtody of George Bentley, a Purſuivant, for a Debt due by him. That upon a Queſtion, put by the Lord Lambart, Whether the Houſe might take any Cognizance of the Members of the Convocation-Houſe; and, whether they were Members of the Lords' Houſe, or not; and upon the Lord Biſhop of Waterford's ſaying, He was a Member of the Dioceſe of Tuam, the Lord Chief Juſtice being deſired, declared, that there was an expreſs Statute in Point, that the Prelates, being called to the Convocation-Houſe, themſelves and Servants have Privilege; and that the whole Houſe of Convocation ſhould have the ſame Privilege: And further declared, that the next Queſtion would be, From whence this Privilege doth ariſe; Whether from themſelves, the Houſe of Commons, or from the Upper Houſe of Parliament? And reſolved, it could not be from themſelves; for that they have neither Officers or Priſons for puniſhing Offenders, in that kind: From the Houſe of Commons it cannot; for they have Privileges, only for themſelves and their Servants: So that the ſame muſt neceſſarily ariſe from the Upper Houſe, who have Officers to ſend for, and Priſons to impriſon Delinquents in that kind. That Lord of Ormond moved, Whether he ought to be privileged, being committed before the forty Days before Parliament? To which Lord Lowther declared, That Members of Convocation, being committed upon a meſne Arreſt, and not in Execution, before the forty Days before Parliament, he was to give Security to pay the Debt, or to render himſelf to Priſon again, at the End of forty Days after Parliament; but if committed within the forty Days, he was to be ſet free, without ſuch Security. That the Lords ordered the ſaid Archdeacon Floyd to be brought before their Lordſhips, who produced the Warrant whereon he ſtood committed: Whereupon the Lords thought fit to releaſe him, giving Security to pay the Debt, or render his Body to Priſon at the End of forty Days after Parliament; which their Lordſhips concluded to report to the Houſe. That on the 28th of March, the ſame was reported to the Houſe.

That the 30th of March, 1640, Page 108, two Lords were appointed to acquaint his Excellency the Ld Lieutenant with the Archdeacon's Privilege. That the 31ſt of March, 1640, Page 115, they find an Order for diſcharging the ſaid Archdeacon, he giving Security to pay the ſaid Debt, or return to Priſon after the ſaid forty Days.

That

That by the Journal, of the 12th of November, 1640, Page 142, Robert Nayler, Dean of Limerick, petitioned the Houſe, he being a Member of Convocation, and intitled to Privilege: That one Chriſtopher Croker ſerved him with ſome Writs out of the Exchequer; whereupon the Lords referred the ſaid Complaint to the Committee of Privileges: That the Houſe was that Day prorogued to the 26th of January following.

They further find, by their Journal of the 10th of November, 1662, Page 353, That upon reading the Petition of Dr. Hugh Gore, ſetting forth, that he was a Member of the Convocation, and poſſeſſed of certain Glebes belonging to his Vicarage of Clonmell, he was diſturbed of the Poſſeſſion by one Richard Perrott, Richard Hamerton and Francis Hopkins: It was ordered, that the ſaid Parties ſhould forbear diſturbing his Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Glebes, or appear at the Bar of the Houſe, within five Days after Sight of the ſaid Order, to ſhew Cauſe to the Contrary.

Reſolutions propoſed. Whereupon the ſaid Committee have come to the following Reſolutions:

RESOLVED, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Members of Convocation ſitting the Convocation, and forty Days before and after the Sitting thereof, are intitled to the Privilege of Parliament.

RESOLVED, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Houſe of Lords is the proper Judicatory, to which the Members of Convocation ought to apply, when their Privileges of Parliament are invaded.

and RESOLVED, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that this Houſe do take the ſaid Members into their Protection.

RESOLVED, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Caſe of Archdeacon Mead be referred to the Committee of Privileges, to examine the Truth of the Allegations thereof, and that his Witneſſes be ſworn at the Bar of the Houſe.

agreed to. To which the Houſe agrees.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Committee of Privileges do meet To-morrow Morning, at Nine of the clock, to examine the Matter in the Petition of Archdeacon Dominick Mead.

Meſſage from Commons, The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod acquaints this Houſe, that ſome Members of the Houſe of Commons are at the Door, with a Meſſage from that Houſe.

Ordered, that they be called in.

They come in accordingly, and ſtand at the lower end of the Houſe.

The Lord Chancellor, accompanied with ſome of the Lords, goes to the Bar uncovered.

The Commons approach the Bar of this Houſe, with three Courteſies.

The Lord Chancellor receives the Meſſage from the Commons; which done, the Commons retire, and the Lords re-aſſume their Places.

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, reports, that the Commons, by William Conolly, Eſq; had ſent up a Meſſage, acquainting, that their Houſe had agreed to the ingroſſed Bill, ſent down by this Houſe, intitled, An Act for the better preventing the counterfeiting the current Coin of this Kingdom, without any Amendment. with a Bill.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Orders of the Day be read

The Lord Viſc. Maſſareene reports from the Committee, appointed to draw an Addreſs to her Majeſty, in favour of the poor Palatines; that they met, and agreed to an Addreſs, which was read, in hæc verba:

Addreſs in behalf of poor Palatines.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave to lay before your Majeſty, the Caſe of the poor Proteſtant Palatines, which your Majeſty has been pleaſed to order to be ſent into this Kingdom, whoſe Circumſtances we have at Heart, with all poſſible Compaſſion and Chriſtain Charity, and whom we are ready, according to our Ability, to aſſiſt and relieve. But we humbly, at the ſame time, repreſent to your Majeſty, that this Kingdom is greatly impoveriſhed by Decay of Trade, and a great Scarcity of Proviſions. That many Thouſands who formerly kept Houſes, and were able to relieve the Poor, are themſelves become Objects of Charity: That great numbers of the Nobility and Gentry, and ſuch as have the moſt beneficial Employments, civil and military, live out of the Kingdom, who were beſt able to contribute to this good Work; and many of thoſe who remain in it, have contracted Debts, by the Hardſhips put on them by the late Truſt for Forfeitures, being put to vaſt Expences, in defending their Claims, and purchaſing the Eſtates, formerly paid for. All which, being conſidered,

We humbly beſeech your Majeſty, to be pleaſed to allow them a Subſiſtence out of your Revenues of this Kingdom, as has been done by your Majeſty, and your glorious Predeceſſor, to the French Refugees, till ſuch time as theſe poor People, by their Induſtry and the better Circumſtances of the Realm, may be ſettled and put in a way of ſubſiſting: Which ſeaſonable and royal Charity will add to the Glories of your Majeſty's Reign; induce your Parliament here to make good to your Majeſty, what ſhall be expended, and bring down the divine Bleſſings on your Majeſty, your Government and People.

To which the Houſe agrees.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Earl of Mount Alexander and the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Addreſs.

Report on the Gentleman-Uſher's Petition.

The Lord Viſc. Maſſareene reports from the Committee, appointed to take into Conſideration the Petition of Thomas Poget, Eſq; Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod; that they met, and find the Fees of the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and Yeoman-Uſher, for the Lords firſt ſitting in Parliament, to be ſettled in the Journal of the 6th of December, 1695.

Fees ordered.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and the Clerks and other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, do receive from all Lords at their firſt ſitting, their Fees, as they are ſettled in the Journal of the 6th of December, 1695; as well for all Lords newly-created, as thoſe who come in by Deſcent; and for all Archbiſhops and Biſhops tranſlated to other Archbiſhopricks and Biſhopricks.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin reports from the Committee of Privileges, in relation to the Breach of Privilege committed againſt this Houſe by Hugh Neſbit; that they met, and came to the following Reſolution:

THAT Mr. Nemo being ſworn at the Bar of the Houſe, who, on producing to him the Affidavit, formerly produced in the Houſe, ſaith, That he knows the Hands of Mr. Wadman and Mr. Campbell; and that he believes, that the ſaid Affidavit is the Hand-writing of the ſaid Campbell; and the Name *Tho. The Lord Lieutenant made an excellent Speech, in hæc verba:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THE Buſineſs of this Seſſion (for which her Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed to call you together) being now over, it muſt be a Satiſfaction to every good Subject, that it is concluded ſo much to the Honour of her Majeſty, and to the Advantage of the Publick. You cannot but be abundantly ſenſible of, and thankful for, her Majeſty's infinite Goodneſs, in having, with ſo much Readineſs, given her royal Aſſent and Approbation to ſuch Bills (which have been tranſmitted from her Parliament here) as might any ways conduce to the Advantage and Security of this Kingdom; and particularly to the Bill for explaining and amending the Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery.

And I am directed to lay this before you, as an Inſtance of her Majeſty's Good-will and Affection towards you, and of her Concern for the Welfare of this Kingdom, the Continuance of which I have her Majeſty's Commands to aſſure to you.

Her Majeſty is further pleaſed to ſignify that She is extremely well ſatisfied with the Diſpatch you have given to the Buſineſs, that hath been before you, and with the zealous Expreſſions you have made of your Duty and Loyalty to her Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government.

I am alſo commanded to give her Majeſty's Thanks to you, Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons, for the Supplies that you have granted.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Seaſon of the Year, making it neceſſary for you to repair into the Country, I need not put you in mind, that the good Laws, now paſſed, will be of little Advantage to you, unleſs Life be given to them, by a juſt and impartial Execution: That will now, in a great Meaſure, depend upon yourſelves, who, I am ſure will, in your ſeveral Stations, ſhew the ſame Concern for the publick Service, that you have done here in another Capacity. And I make no Queſtion, but that you underſtand too well the true Intereſt of the Proteſtant Religion in this Kingdom, not to endeavour to make all ſuch Proteſtants as eaſy as you can, who are willing to contribute what they can, to defend the Whole, againſt the common Enemy.

It is not the Law now paſſed, nor any Law that the Wit of Man can frame, will ſecure you againſt Popery, whilſt you continue divided amongſt yourſelves: It being demonſtrable, that, unleſs there be a firm Friendſhip and Confidence amongſt the Proteſtants of this Kingdom, it is impoſſible for you either to be happy or to be ſafe. And I am directed to declare it to you, as her Majeſty's fixed Reſolution, that as her Majeſty will always maintain and ſupport the Church, as by Law eſtabliſhed, ſo it is her royal Will and Intention, that the Diſſenters ſhall not be perſecuted or moleſted, in the Exerciſe of their Religion.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, confers with the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, acquaints both Houſes, as followeth:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Thurſday the 30th of March next, and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thurſday the 30th of March next. Parliament prorogued.

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod returns, and acquaints this Houſe, that the Commons are at the Door.

Ordered, that they be called in.

They preſent their Speaker, who makes a Speech,

The Commons appear at the Bar, with their Speaker, John Forſter, Eſq; her Majeſty's Attorney General, who makes a Speech in the Words following:

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

IN Obedience to your Excellency's Commands, the Commons proceeded to the Choice of a Speaker, and have been pleaſed to elect me.

I am very ſenſible, that a long Experience in Parliamentary Affairs, and a great Capacity for publick Buſineſs, are the neceſſary Qualifications of a Speaker.

And I am ſo conſcious of my own Inability in both thoſe Reſpects, for ſo great a Charge, that I muſt humbly deſire your Excellency to direct the Commons to elect ſome other Perſon, amongſt the many learned and experienced Members of their Houſe, who is better qualified to fill their Chair.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, confers with his Excellency; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, acquaints the Houſe of Commons, as followeth:

Mr. Attorney,

ALTHOUGH you have argued exceeding well againſt yourſelf, and have, with great Art, endeavoured to make out your own Inſufficiency, yet I am commanded by his Excellency to tell you, that all you have offered, doth not in the leaſt incline him to diſſent from the Commons, in the Election they have made of you for their Speaker. is approved of, and

His Excellency, from the Experience he hath had of your Knowledge, Prudence and Judgment, and your Readineſs, upon all Occaſions, to exert yourſelf for the Service of the Publick, is fully ſatisfied, that you want no Accompliſhment to qualify you for the Diſcharge of your Duty, in the Poſt to which you are now choſen.

He believes the Commons very well conſidered their own Service, in the Choice they have made; and is of Opinion, they could not have made a better.

This Opinion he is confirmed in, by the Unanimity of the Commons in it, which hath moſt probably proceeded from the great Aſſurance they have of your Sufficiency, derived from their own Experience and Obſervation, during the time you ſat a Member with them.

His Excellency, therefore, diſallows your Excuſe, confirms the Election made by the Commons, requires you to ſubmit to it, and to betake yourſelf chearfully to the Execution and Diſcharge of that important Truſt they have repoſed in you.

Then the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, makes the following Speech:

IT is my Duty to acquieſce in your Excellency's Approbation of the Choice of the Commons; and my great Satisfaction, to conſider, I have the Honour to be choſen by a Houſe, who have ſo often diſtinguiſhed their Duty to the Crown, and Affection to their Country: Who have ſhewn a juſt Regard for the ſingular Wiſdom and Piety of her Majeſty, which adorn the Throne, and for the eminent Worth and Abilities of your Excellency, who repreſents her. again addreſſes the Lord Lieutenant.

Theſe are happy Diſpoſitions for Harmony and Agreement in our Debates, and for uniting our Councils; for the ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt of this Nation, and promoting her Majeſty's Service, with an Affection becoming the many great and valuable Bleſſings we enjoy under her moſt auſpicious Reign.

I ſhall not preſume to detain your Excellency longer, than humbly to demand, in the Name, and on the behalf of the Commons, that they may have Freedom of Speech in their Debates; and that their Perſons, Goods and Attendants may be unmoleſted.

That

That if in any thing I ſhall miſtake or miſrepreſent their Meaning, when I ſhall, by their Directions, attend your Excellency, I may have Liberty to make a further Declaration of the Senſe of the Houſe, and obtain Pardon for my Error.

That, as often as the publick Good ſhall require it, I may, by their Direction, have free Acceſs to your Excellency's noble Perſon.

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, kneeling, confers with his Excellency; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, acquaints the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, as follows:

Prayers read by the Right Rev. Father in God, Peter Lord Biſhop of Cork and Roſſe.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Judges be covered.

Viſcount Fitzwilliam takes the Oaths, &c.

Richard Lord Viſc. Fitzwilliam of Merryon, delivered his Writ, in the accuſtomed Manner, to the Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, who delivered the ſame to the Clerk of the Houſe; and afterwards took and ſubſcribed the ſeveral Oaths, and Declaration.

Ld Tyrawly introduced.

Charles Lord Baron of Tyrawly, being attended from without the Bar by the King of Arms and Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and introduced between the Lord Baron of Kinſale and the Lord Baron of Kerry, delivered his Writ and Patent, in the accuſtomed Manner, to the Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, who received the ſame, and gave them to the Clerk of the Crown to be read, which was accordingly done; and then took and ſubſcribed the ſeveral Oaths, and Declaration; and was afterwards conducted to the Barons' Bench, by the Lords that introduced him.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Chancellor do report his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

The Lord Chancellor reports the ſame accordingly, in hæc verba:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

HER Majeſty hath, out of her great Care of you, and Goodneſs towards you, called you again together, and given you now another Opportunity of conſulting amongſt yourſelves, of whatever you ſhall judge to be neceſſary for your own Happineſs and Security. Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

The Diſpatch that was given the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, to the publick Buſineſs, the Care that was taken of the true Intereſt of the Kingdom; and the hearty Zeal and dutiful Affection, that was expreſſed for her Majeſty's Perſon and Government, were ſo acceptable, that it is with Satisfaction, her Majeſty now calls you together again.

And the Readineſs with which her Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed to give her royal Aſſent to thoſe Bills, which you thought proper to tranſmit to her, ought to give you an Aſſurance, that her Goodneſs will not deny any thing to you, that can be judged neceſſary to make you eaſy and happy.

And I have now her Majeſty's Leave and Directions to let you know, that ſhe will readily conſent to any good Laws, that will conduce to thoſe Ends.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I am commanded to tell you, that her Majeſty is not unmindful of the Chearfulneſs with which you gave the Supply the laſt Seſſion of Parliament; and her Majeſty doth not at all doubt, but that you will now, with the ſame Affection provide ſuch Supplies, as ſhall appear to be neceſſary for ſupporting the Eſtabliſhment, and complying with thoſe Applications you yourſelves have made to her Majeſty; and for carrying on that Work, and providing thoſe Stores, which have been judged proper for the Defence of the Kingdom.

The

The State of all which I have directed to be fully and faithfully laid before you, and make no Queſtion, but it will be done to your Satisfaction.

It is with ſome Concern, that I take Notice to you, that there is yet one Regiment wanting of thoſe, which are paid upon this Eſtabliſhment; but the publick Service made it abſolutely neceſſary to recal a Regiment that was under Orders, and ready to embark for this Kingdom; and you may be aſſured, that another will be ſent as ſoon as it is poſſible.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I HAVE but one thing more in Command to recommend to you, which is, that Union amongſt yourſelves, which her Majeſty hath ſo much at her Heart, and hath ſo often put you in mind of: There wants nothing but this, to make you very happy and very ſecure.

The Eſtabliſhed Church cannot but be moſt flouriſhing and ſafe, under the Influence of her Majeſty, who, through the whole Courſe of her Life, hath been the brighteſt Ornament of that holy Religion, which ſhe profeſſes.

And our Civil Rights and Liberties muſt be ſecure, under a Queen, who, from the Beginning of her Reign to this Day, hath ſo glorioufly eſpouſed and vindicated, not only the Rights of her own People, but the Liberties of all Europe.

This ſhould prevail with us all, to have no other Diſpute or Emulation amongſt us, but to ſtrive, who ſhall ſhew moſt Duty and Loyalty towards her Majeſty, and moſt Zeal for the Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lords undernamed, or any five of them, be a Committee to draw up an Addreſs of Thanks to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, for his Speech; who are to meet this Afternoon at Five of the clock, in the Committee-Chamber.

Report of Committee for Addreſs.

The Lord Biſhop of Clogher, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to her Majeſty, and an Addreſs to the Lord Lieutenant; that they met, and prepared Addreſſes accordingly, which were read.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Addreſs to her Majeſty, be re-committed to the ſame Committee, who are to withdraw immediately.

The Lord Biſhop of Clogher, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee, to whom the Addreſs to her Majeſty, was re-committed; that they met, and agreed thereto, which was read, and, with ſome Amendments, agreed to by the Houſe, in hæc verba:

Addreſs to the Queen.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, truly ſenſible of the great and ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under your auſpicious Reign, do, with grateful Hearts, return our humbleſt Thanks to your Majeſty, for the many good Laws obtained the laſt Seſſion; and the Opportunity now given us, of meeting again, to conſult of what elſe may be neceſſary for the Security and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

We cannot but reflect with Pleaſure on our own Condition; that, while moſt of the neighbouring Nations are ſtruggling under the Preſſures of War, or groaning under the heavier Yoke of Tyranny, and imploring your Majeſty's Protection, we (who happily feel the nearer Influences, are encouraged, by your princely Care and Goodneſs, to ſtudy and contrive Laws for our Safety and our Eaſe) are called together chiefly for our own Good, and to promote the nobleſt Ends, the Peace and Plenty of our Country.

We beg Leave alſo to take this Occaſion of congratulating your Majeſty, on the glorious Succeſſes of the laſt Campaign, under your great General the Duke of Marlborough, and the happy Beginnings of this; which give all your Majeſty's good Subjects, the delightful Proſpect, either of a victorious War, or a ſpeedy and honourable Peace.

And, to promote (as far as in us lies) the great Ends which your Majeſty ſeems to have ſo much in view, we do faithfully promiſe to improve and cultivate Union among ourſelves, and to contribute all our beſt Endeavours to ſtrengthen the Proteſtant Intereſt, and to maintain the Proteſtant Succeſſion.

And, as the Security of our eſtabliſhed Church, and the Protection of our Civil Rights and Liberties are the moſt valuable Bleſſings we poſſeſs, ſo, from the Experience we have of your Majeſty's exemplary Piety, Juſtice, and conſtant Care of both; we promiſe ourſelves that they ſhall ſtill continue ſafe and flouriſhing under your moſt gracious Government and Adminiſtration.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Addreſs to the Lord Lieutenant, be re-committed to the ſame Committee, who are to withdraw immediately.

The Houſe re-aſſumes.

The Lord Biſhop of Clogher, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee, to whom the Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, was re-committed; that they met, and agreed thereto, which was read, and with ſome Amendments, agreed to by the Houſe, in hæc verba:

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant

AS we return our hearty Thanks, for your Excellency's Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, ſo we eſteem it a great Inſtance of her Majeſty's unparalleled Goodneſs towards us, that we are now again called together, under your Excellency's Adminiſtration, to conſider of ſuch Things as may be for our further Happineſs and Security.

We take this Opportunity of acknowledging your Excellency's Care and Vigilance, in promoting thoſe good Laws we have obtained, for the Suppreſſion of Popery, and Security of the Proteſtant Intereſt among us; and for the Aſſurance you are pleaſed to give us, of her Majeſty's royal Intention to conſent to any good Laws, which may conduce to make us eaſy and happy. And we return our hearty Thanks for the Repreſentation you were pleaſed to make to her Majeſty, of the Diſpatch that was given to the publick Buſineſs, in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament; the Care that was taken of the true Intereſt of the Kingdom, and that hearty Zeal and dutiful Affection, that we expreſſed for her Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

We are now met in the ſame Temper and Diſpoſition, ready to give the utmoſt Demonſtration we are capable, of all theſe, in this Seſſion likewiſe. And there is nothing we ſhall have more at heart, than the approving ourſelves, in all things, to our gracious Sovereign, particularly in promoting that Union among ourſelves, ſo affectionately recommended to us, in her Name: In all Obedience and Loyalty to her Sacred Majeſty: In a moſt unfeigned Affection to her Perſon and Government, and with all dutiful Behaviour to your Excellency, whom ſhe hath placed over us.

We are fully perſuaded, that the eſtabliſhed Church will continue moſt ſafe and flouriſhing, under the Influence of her Majeſty: And, as her Majeſty is the brighteſt Ornament of that holy Religion ſhe profeſſes, ſo is ſhe, under

GOD,

God, the great Stay and Support of it: As ſhe is likewiſe of the Civil Rights and Liberties of her People. And there is nothing we wiſh for more, than that all her Subjects may have the ſame Tenderneſs for her royal Prerogative; ſince nothing is more apparent, than that the Peace and Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms, depends entirely upon the Continuance of theſe two, in a juſt Balance and Equality.

It is with all Thankfulneſs to God, and Gratitude to her Majeſty, the glorious Inſtrument, that we do, in the Sincerity of our Hearts, own and acknowledge the manifold Bleſſings of her auſpicious Reign: And do pray, that as no Monarch ever had a better Right and Title to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, ſo that God would eſtabliſh her in defeating the Subtilty and Contrivances of all her ſecret and profeſſed Enemies; in granting her a long and proſperous Reign over us. And that He would preſerve to theſe Nations, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law eſtabliſhed, this being the only viſible Means of perpetuating our happy Conſtitution, both in Church and State.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Earl of Kildare the Lord Viſc. Charlemont, and the Lord Biſhop of Clogher, do forthwith wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to know his Pleaſure, when and where this Houſe, with their Speaker, ſhall attend him with the Addreſs to her Majeſty, and the Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant for his Speech.

The Houſe re-aſſumes.

The Earl of Kildare, the Lord Viſc. Charlemont, and the Lord Biſhop of Clogher, report, that, purſuant to the Order of this moſt Hon. Houſe, they waited on his Excellency the L^d^ Lieutenant, to know his Pleaſure, when and where he would be attended with the Addreſs to her Majeſty, and the Addreſs to his Excellency; who appointed Five of the clock this Afternoon, at the Caſtle of Dublin.

Order for preſenting Addreſſes.

Ordered, on Motion, that this Houſe, with their Speaker, do, at Five of the clock this Afternoon, wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Addreſſes, at the Caſtle of Dublin.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Conſideration of the Breach of Privilege, complained of to be committed by Edmond Malone ſen. on the Lands of Kilgarvan in the Co. Weſtmeath, belonging to the Lord Biſhop of Meath, be and is hereby referred to the Committee of Privileges.

The Lord Chancellor, by Appointment of the Lords, adjourns the Houſe until Thurſday Morning next, at Ten of the clock.

Die Martis, 27° Junii, 1710.

By the Right Hon. the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled.

AFTER hearing Counſel upon the Petition and Appeal of William Trench and John Trench, from an Order, or Decree, of the Court of Exchequer, bearing Date the 28th Day of June, 1708, made in a Cauſe there depending, betwen Michael Stanley, Plaintiff, and the ſaid William Trench and John Trench, Defendants.

And praying, that the ſaid Order might be reverſed, as alſo upon the Anſwer of the ſaid Michael Stanley, put in to the ſaid Petition and Appeal, and due Conſideration being had of what was offered thereupon; It is ordered and adjudged, by the Right Hon. the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled: That that Part of the ſaid Order and Decree, whereby the Appellants (then Defendants) were ordered and decreed to account with the Reſpondent (the Plaintiff in the ſaid Cauſe) for the yearly Value of the Lands in the Article mentioned, from the Time of the Perfection thereof; and alſo, that Part of the ſaid Order and Decree, which directs, that the Plaintiff ſhall allow unto the Appellants the Sum of £100, in the ſaid Articles mentioned, to have been paid; and likewiſe the Money paid to the ſaid Dodwell by the ſaid Frederick Trench, with Intereſt for the ſame, from the Time of the reſpective Payments thereof made. And alſo that Part of the ſaid Order and Decree, (which directs the Chief-Remembrancer of the ſaid Court to audit and ſtate an Account between the Appellants and Reſpondent accordingly) be and are hereby reverſed. And it is further ordered and adjudged, that the Lands in the Articles mentioned, ſhall be held and enjoyed againſt the ſaid Michael Stanley, his Heirs and Aſſigns, as a Purchaſe, and not as a Mortgage. And it is further ordered and adjudged, that the Sum of £230, to be repaid by the ſaid Dodwell, his Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall be paid to the Appellants. And it is likewiſe ordered and adjudged, that as to the Lands of Clonecaltry, and the Account directed thereon; and that Part of the ſaid Order and Decree, which directs, That no more ſhall be allowed than £100, Contents of the Judgment, with Coſts therein mentioned, without any Intereſt for the ſame. And alſo, that Part of the ſaid Order and Decree, which requires the ſeveral and reſpective Tenants of the ſaid Lands of Clonecaltry to bring in and lodge with the Chief-Remembrancer of the ſaid Court, their ſeveral and reſpective Rents, that are, or ſhall become, due from them thereout, be and are hereby reverſed. And it is further ordered and adjudged, that the Reſpondent do, and ſhall, account for the Intereſt of the Sum of £100, being the Contents of the Judgment and the Coſts from the Time the ſaid Lands were extended thereon: And that the Appellants be forthwith put into Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Lands of Clonecaltry.

To which the Houſe agrees.

Royal Aſſent given to 17 Bills.

The Lord Chancellor calleth to the Clerk of the Crown to do his Duty, who, ſtanding on the left Side of the Clerk's Table, reads the Titles of the ſeveral Bills following; and as he reads the Title of each Bill, the Lord Chancellor, kneeling to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and then ſtanding up, makes a Sign to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who, ſtanding on the Side oppoſite to the Clerk of the Crown, pronounces the royal Aſſent to each Bill, ſeverally:

1. An Act for granting to her Majeſty, an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes.
2. An Act to enforce ſuch Acts as have been made for the Improvement of the Linen Manufacture, and for a further Regulation of the ſame.
3. An Act for bringing an Appeal in Caſe of Murder, notwithſtanding the Statute of the 10th of King Henry VII. whereby Murder is made High-Treaſon.
4. An Act for the further explaining and putting in Execution, An Act for planting and preſerving Timber-Trees and Woods.
5. An Act for taking away the Benefit of Clergy, in certain Caſes; and for taking away the Book, in all Caſes; and for repealing Part of the Statute for tranſporting Felons.
6. An Act for amending and making perpetual, An Act intitled, An Act to prohibit Butchers from being Graziers, and to redreſs ſeveral Abuſes in buying and ſelling of Cattle, and in the ſlaughtering and packing of Beef, Tallow and Hides.
7. An Act for the better ſecuring of Rents, and to prevent Frauds committed by Tenants.
8. An Act for the amending of the High-ways and Roads in this Kingdom, and for the Application of the ſix Days Labour.
9. An Act for the Relief of inſolvent Debtors, now in Confinement.
10. An Act to prevent the maiming of Cattle.
11. An Act for uniting ſeveral Pariſhes and building ſeveral Pariſh-Churches in more convenient Places.
12. An Act for the rendering more effectual the ſeveral Proviſions made by former Acts, for Payment of the Debts of James late Duke of Ormond, and of the preſent Duke of Ormond, and for other Purpoſes therein expreſſed.
13. An Act for veſting Part of the Eſtate of the Lord Viſc. Grandiſon in the Kingdom of Ireland, in Truſtees, to be ſold for Payment of a Debt charged thereon.
14. An Act for confirming to the Right Hon. Frances Counteſs of Newburgh, Wife of Richard Lord Bellew, the Proviſions formerly made for the Jointure of the ſaid Counteſs, and confirming certain Eſtates and Uſes, limited by a certain Indenture, herein mentioned, and for providing Portions for the younger Daughters of the ſaid Richard Lord Bellew, and the Counteſs of Newburgh.
15. An Act for the Relief of Suſanna Catherina Nugent.
16. An Act for the enabling Samuel Raymond of Ballyloughrane, in the Co. Kerry, Eſq; to mortgage or ſell certain Lands in the ſaid Co. Kerry, and Co. Cork, for the Payment of his Debts.
17. An Act for the enabling Henry Stoughton of Ratow, in the Co. Kerry, Eſq; and Sarah his Wife, on behalf of themſelves and Ant. Stoughton, Son and Heir of the ſaid Henry, an Infant, to mortgage certain Lands and Tenements in the Co. Kerry, for the Payment of Debts.

The Lord Lieutenant made an excellent Speech, in hæc verba:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THIS Seſſion of Parliament hath been ſo happily carried on, and is now brought to ſo good a Concluſion, that the whole Kingdom muſt be well pleaſed, to find themſelves repreſented by an Aſſembly of Men, who have acted with ſuch Wiſdom and Temper, and who, in all their Proceedings, have appeared ſo thoroughly to underſtand, and ſo much to have at Heart, the true Intereſt of their Country.

And I am directed, in her Majeſty's Name, to declare to you, her entire Satisfaction, in your dutiful Conduct, and in the Diſpatch you have given to the Buſineſs, that hath been before you.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I AM particularly commanded to return to you, her Majeſty's Thanks for the Supplies you have ſo readily and ſo chearfully granted; and I have Power and Directions, in her Majeſty's Name, to aſſure you, that thoſe Supplies ſhall (with the utmoſt Care) be employed to the Purpoſes, for which they were intended.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I HAVE her Majeſty's further Commands, to aſſure you all, of her Good-will towards you, and of her Concern for the Good and Welfare of the whole Kingdom; and have nothing nothing now to add, but to recommend to you, that you will, in your ſeveral Stations, take Care to have a due Execution of thoſe good Laws, which have been made for your Security; to cultivate that Union and good Underſtanding amongſt yourſelves, which is ſo neceſſary to your Preſervation; and to do, what in you lies, to ſupport your Religion and Conſtitution, and to tranſmit them to your Poſterity.

It is with a great deal of Pleaſure, that I flatter myſelf, from the Addreſſes and Applications you have made, that the Adminiſtration in my Hands hath been to your Satisfaction; and I muſt take this Opportunity to aſſure you, that I look upon myſelf as obliged, in Juſtice, in Intereſt and in Gratitude, to endeavour, not only by thoſe juſt Repreſentations which I ſhall make to her Majeſty, but by all other Methods, that may be in my Power, to promote the true Intereſt of this Kingdom; to remove any Difficulties that at any time you may lie under, and to give the beſt Aſſiſtance, I can, towards your Happineſs and Proſperity; the Advancement of your Trade, and the Security of your Religion, Laws and Liberties.

Parliament prorogued.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, confers with the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, acquaints both Houſes, as followeth:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Thurſday the 8th of March next, and this Parliament is prorogued to Thurſday the 8th of March next accordingly.

A PROCLAMATION.

Con. Phipps, Canc? R. Ingoldſby.

Whereas the preſent Parliament now ſtands prorogued to the 18th Day of June inſt. We have thought fit, that the ſame be further continued, by Prorogation, from that Day until Monday the 9th Day of July next; and that it ſhall then ſit to do Buſineſs. We do therefore hereby publiſh and declare, that the ſaid Parliament be, and accordingly the ſaid Parliament is, hereby prorogued to Monday the 9th Day of July next, and that the ſame ſhall then ſit for the Diſpatch of Buſineſs.

Whereof, we give this Notice, to the end, the Members of either Houſe of Parliament, may not fail to give their Attendance, on the ſaid 9th Day of July next.

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

HER Majeſty, being graciouſly pleaſed that her Subjects of this Kingdom, ſhould participate in the happy Influences of her Government, has taken this moſt early Occaſion to call you together; to teſtify her Affection, and Care of your Welfare; and to aſſure you, that ſhe will ſtill continue the ſame tender Regard for you, which ſhe has already ſhewn in ſo many remarkable Inſtances.

By remitting the Twentieth-Parts, and granting the Firſt-Fruits for buying in Impropriations, her Majeſty has not only conferred a Mark of her Grace and Favour on the preſent Clergy, but has provided for the Maintenance of greater Numbers of them, when, by the good Laws made againſt the Popiſh Religion in her Majeſty's Reign, the Church ſhall be enlarged.

And her Majeſty has given an Inſtance of her Royal Bounty to the College of Dublin, in Compliance with an Application made in their behalf, laſt Seſſion of Parliament.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

THE publick Accounts, which are ordered to be laid before you, will demonſtrate how careful her Majeſty has been, to ſave you ſeveral Heads of Expence; and therefore has conſidered of a leſs chargeable way of ſecuring the Arms and Ammunition, than was formerly propoſed; and the ſame publick Accounts will inform you, that as her Majeſty's great Expeditions, by Sea and Land, have occaſioned the withdrawing ſeveral Troops from hence, and putting them on other Eſtabliſhments; ſo, whatever hath been ſaved thereby, has been applied to the publick Service of this Kingdom. And her Majeſty, having hitherto taken all proper Methods for the Eaſe of her Subjects, does judge it neceſſary, for their Safety and Protection, to replace, on her Eſtabliſhment here, ſo many more Troops as will complete the Number of her Forces; and doubts not, but that you will make Proviſion accordingly; as alſo for the re-building, in proper Places, the ſeveral publick Offices, which the late Fire has deſtroyed.

And her Majeſty, conſidering how much the Eſtates and Properties of her Subjects of this Kingdom depend upon the Records thereof, doth earneſtly recommend to you, the making Proviſion to prevent the great Miſchiefs, both publick and private, which may ariſe by the Loſs of thoſe, conſumed in the late Fire, and to preſerve ſuch as are remaining.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I AM commanded by her Majeſty, to aſſure you, that ſhe will ſtill continue to preſerve the Church of Ireland, as by Law eſtabliſhed; ſecure the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover; maintain and ſupport the Proteſtant Religion; and the Rights and Properties of all her Subjects.

And as her Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed to ſignify her Readineſs to concur with you, in any thing that may be for your Safety and Proſperity, ſo ſhe has not the leaſt doubt, but that you will proceed in the Matters, which ſhall come before you, with ſuch Temper, Unanimity and Diſpatch, as may render this a happy Seſſion to her Majeſty, and her People.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Clerk of this Houſe do forthwith cauſe his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed.

Committee to draw up an Addreſs to the Queen;

Ordered, on Motion, that an Addreſs of Thanks be made to the Queen's moſt excellent Majeſty; and that the Lords undernamed, or any five of them, be a Committee to draw the ſaid Addreſs, who are to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten of the clock.

The Houſe re-aſſumes.

Ordered, purſuant to the Order of the Day, that the Addreſs of Thanks to her Majeſty be reported by the Lord Viſc. Charlemont.

Reported accordingly, and read, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by this Houſe, with ſome Amendments, in hæc verba:

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the Queen.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, with moſt grateful Hearts, acknowledge the many Bleſſings, we and all your Majeſty's Subjects have enjoyed, through the Piety and Juſtice of your Majeſty's Reign.

We every Day receive freſh Inſtances of your royal Goodneſs, and we have ſcarcely Time to return Thanks for paſt Favours, before we have new ones conferred upon us.

Your Majeſty's early Care hath even prevented our own Endeavours to free this Nation from that Load of Debt, which the bringing over Numbers of uſeleſs and indigent Palatines, at a Time of extreme Dearth and Poverty; the projecting of a ſtately and expenſive Arſenal, and other Devices, had brought upon us.

Your Majeſty has, by an unparalleled Bounty, augmented the Revenues of the Church, by leſſening your Majeſty's own; whereby the Number of the Clergy will be increaſed, to the greater and better Inſtruction of the People committed to their Charge.

Your Majeſty has alſo extended your royal Favour to the College of Dublin, and at ſuch a Juncture, as muſt teſtify to the World, that what your Majeſty beſtowed, was not given to promote thoſe Principles, upon which it was firſt applied for, but to encourage Univerſity-Education, the Neglect and Diſuſe of which, we firmly believe, hath, of late, been a great Means and Occaſion of the Growth of Ignorance and Profaneneſs, Infidelity, and all thoſe looſe and wild Notions and Tenets, which have induſtriouſly been ſpread amongſt us, to the endangering of the State, and the undermining the Foundation of all Religion.

Heaven, as a Reward to your Majeſty's many Virtues, hath bleſſed your Majeſty's Arms with a conſtant Succeſs, and defeated the Deſigns of your Majeſty's Enemies every where; and Providence hath inclined and directed your royal Heart, to make thoſe neceſſary Alterations in the Management of your Majeſty's Affairs at home, which have already had the good Effect, to quiet the Minds of your loyal Subjects; and, we doubt not, but that they will farther tend to the intire Security of your Majeſty's Government, and the Preſervation of the Conſtitution in Church and State.

We, for our Parts, in Return for the many Graces and Favours we have received, do ſolemnly promiſe to defend and ſupport your Majeſty's Throne; and, to the utmoſt of our Abilities, make the Crown, deſcended to your Majeſty from your royal Anceſtors, to flouriſh upon your ſacred Head; and with our utmoſt Care, ſhall endeavour to preſerve your Prerogative, and thoſe Powers with which God hath intruſted your Majeſty from being leſſened or invaded, upon any factious Pretences whatſoever.

We ſhall, upon all Occaſions, be ready to ſhew our Zeal for the Preſervation and Encouragement of the Church of Ireland, as by Law eſtabliſhed, of which, to our Comfort, we own ourſelves Members; and the Welfare and Proſperity of which we, to our Joy, find your Majeſty hath ſo much at Heart.

And, that both theſe may be tranſmitted down, ſafe and ſecure, unto Poſterity, we ſhall ſteadily adhere to the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as ſettled in the illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

In the mean time, may Almighty God, in anſwer to the Prayers of your People, continue to watch over and preſerve your Majeſty, and grant you long and proſperouſly to reign over us, and at laſt reward your Majeſty, with an immortal Crown!

The Lord Chancellor, by Appointment of the Lords, adjourns the Houſe until To-morrow Morning, at Ten of the clock.

Reported accordingly, and read, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by this Houſe; and that this Letter be ſent to all the Lords in Town, to be ſigned (if they pleaſe,) and dated this Day, and that the Superſcription be:

To the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

which is in hæc verba:

May it pleaſe your moſt ſacred Majeſty,

Letter of Thanks, to the Queen.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, moſt humbly crave Leave to return our moſt hearty Thanks for your Majeſty's great Indulgence to this your Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland, in replacing his Grace James Duke of Ormond, in the Government over us.

Your Majeſty has been pleaſed to intruſt the very Perſon to diſpenſe your royal Goodneſs, whom we have earneſtly wiſhed for, from Experience of his equal and gentle Adminiſtration, when formerly our Governor: A Perſon, whoſe noble and publick Spirit, having no ſiniſter, no private Ends in view, is uncapable of deſigning any thing derogatory from your Majeſty's Crown and Dignity, or vexatious to your good Subjects, in their moſt tender Intereſts.

Your Majeſty, having been thus gracious to this Kingdom, by chooſing one to repreſent your royal Perſon, adorned with ſuch lively Images of your Majeſty's own innate and princely Virtues, your Majeſty's Prerogative is not only ſafe in the Loyalty, his Grace derives by Inheritance from his Anceſtors; but your Majeſty's People too, in the Steadineſs of a true and juſt Patriot of his Country; and the Church, as by Law eſtabliſhed, in his known and conſtant Zeal for its Doctrine, Diſcipline and Worſhip.

The Great Intereſts of your Majeſty's Crown and People, being thus ſecured, we have nothing more to pray, but for a Continuance of theſe Bleſſings, under your Majeſty's moſt glorious and auſpicious Reign; and, with all Humility and Gratitude, beg Leave to ſubſcribe ourſelves,

From the Houſe of Lords, Dublin, 18 Julii, 1711. Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful moſt loyal, and moſt obedient Subjects.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, do ſend the Letter, directed to the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, to the Secretary of State in Great Britain, in order to be delivered to her Majeſty.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Speech, be reported by the Lord Viſc. Charlemont.

Reported accordingly, and read, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by this Houſe, with ſome Amendments, in hæc verba:

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do, with all Reſpect, ſincerely and affectionately congratulate your Grace, on your Return to your native Country, long deſired by us, and your being reinſtated in the Government of this Kingdom.

With all Duty and Gratitude, we acknowledge her Majeſty's tender Regard and Concern for our Welfare, in many ſignal Inſtances; in none none more particularly, than in ſending your Grace to govern this Kingdom.

We are fully aſſured, that her Majeſty's moſt graciouſly remitting the Twentieth Parts and granting the Firſt-Fruits for buying in Impropriations; as alſo, her royal Bounty to the College of Dublin, will effectually tend to the preventing the further Growth of Popery, the promoting the Intereſt of the eſtabliſhed Church, the Encouragement of Learning, and the more plentiful Maintenance of the Clergy in this and ſucceeding Ages. And we are very ſenſible, how much we are indebted to your Grace's particular Care and Mediation herein; nor could the Notice of her royal Favours be conveyed to us by a more acceptable Hand.

And, if there could be any Addition made to thoſe Aſſurances, we have at all Times received of her Majeſty's tender Regard to the eſtabliſhed Church, and the Rights and Properties of her Subjects, it would be by her Majeſty's appointing your Grace to be her Vicegerent in this Kingdom, who have ſignalized yourſelf, at all Times, by your Zeal for the Intereſt of the eſtabliſhed Church, by your Courage and Conduct againſt the common Enemy of the Proteſtant Religion, and by your repeated and ſucceſsful Endeavours to promote the Trade and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, do wait on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to know his Pleaſure, when and where this Houſe, with their Speaker, may attend him with the Addreſs of Thanks to her Majeſty; and alſo the Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his excellent Speech.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Yeoman-Uſher of this Houſe have Leave to be abſent for an Hour.

The Houſe re-aſſumes.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Complaint made by the Right Rev. The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin reports from the Committee of Privileges, to whom the Matter relating to printing and publiſhing Petitions, before the ſaid Petitions are offered to this Houſe, was referred; that they met, and find the following Order amongſt the Standing Orders of this Houſe.

(N° 7.) 30th July, 1707.

"For preventing ſcandalous and frivolous "written and printed Caſes on Appeals and "Writs of Error.

No Caſe, unſigned to be received.

"No Perſon whatſoever, ſhall preſume to "deliver any written or printed Caſe, or Caſes, "to any Lord of this Houſe, unleſs ſuch Caſe, "or Caſes, ſhall be ſigned by one or more of "the Counſel, who attended the hearing the "Cauſe in the Courts below, or ſhall be of "Counſel at the hearing in this Houſe."

That the ſaid Committee ordered the Doorkeeper to be called before them, who being aſked, Who gave him the printed Petitions? Anſwered, that the Petitioner Huſſey delivered them to him.

The Petitioner, being called in, acknowledged, that he delivered them to the Doorkeeper; and being aſked, Whether he informed the Biſhop of Dromore, that he deſigned to petition againſt him, before he printed and publiſhed the Petitions, confeſſed, That he printed and publiſhed them, before Application was made to the ſaid Lord Biſhop.

Whereupon the ſaid Committee came to the following Reſolution:

Proceedings on Huſſey's Petition.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of the ſaid Committee, that the printing and publiſhing the Petition of James Huſſey is a Breach of the above Order.

The previous Queſtion being put, Whether the Queſtion ſhall be now put, that the Houſe agree with the Committee?

It paſſed in the Negative.

Ordered, on Motion, that James Huſſey do appear at the Bar of this Houſe, To-morrow Morning, at Eleven of the clock, and be reprimanded by the Lord Chancellor, for printing and publiſhing his Petitition, before his Petition was preferred to this Houſe.

Report on Breaches of Privilege againſt Bp of Cloyne. The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee of Privileges, to whom was referred the Complaint made by the Right Rev. Father in God, the the Lord Biſhop of Cloyne, of a Breach of Privilege, committed againſt him by Capt. Edw. Corker, and others, his Servants and Tenants, have met, and find, by examinining the Lord Biſhop of Cloyne, that there was Wreck brought out of the Sea by his Lordſhip's Tenants, on his Land; and that all ſuch Wrecks belong to him, as Biſhop of Cloyne; that Capt. Edward Corker acknowledged to his Lordſhip, That he, and others by his Orders, took the ſaid Wreck: That the ſaid Lord Biſhop ſent ſeveral of his Servants and Tenants, to bring home the ſaid Wreck with Carriage; but they returned, and informed him the ſaid Lord Biſhop, that Capt. Corker hindered them, and carried it away himſelf, which the ſaid Corker afterwards acknowledged to the ſaid Biſhop, that he had ſo done.

The ſaid Lord Biſhop further informed their Lordſhips, that the Bog of Cloyne is his Property, and belongs to him, in right of his Biſhoprick: That no Perſon has any Right to cut Turf on the ſaid Bog, but thoſe that have it by Leaſe or Permiſſion from his Lordſhip: That ſeveral Perſons cut Turf on it, without any Licence from him: That the ſaid Biſhop ordered the ſaid Turf to be ſeized: That there was a Rule made in the Manor-Court, ſeven Years ago, that if any cut Turf on the ſaid Bog, without the ſaid Lord Biſhop's Licence, he ſhould forfeit 20*s.* according to the antient Cuſtom of the Manor. That, notwithſtanding the ſaid Seizures and Rules, the Turf was reſcued, and forced away; and, as his Lordſhip was informed, that the Perſons that carried the ſaid Turf away were, Maurice Kearin, Roger Davys, James Burch, William O'Neil, Dermot Kiſſane, William Quirk, John Quirk, Henry Harrington, John Donovan, John Kennally, Garret Slaney, Robert Slaney and James Donovan.

That his Lordſhip went on the ſaid Bog, about the middle of June laſt, and ſaw the ſaid Capt. Corker on Horſeback, ſpeaking to the Treſpaſſers, that were then cutting the Bog; and, as his Lordſhip believes, encouraging them: The Reaſon of his Belief was, that the ſaid Capt. Corker has told him, that he would cut Turf in the ſaid Bog; and ſaid, he had a Right ſo to do; and that the ſaid Treſpaſſers told him the ſaid Lord Biſhop, when he forbade them to proceed in cutting the ſaid Bog, That Capt. Corker had bid them to cut Turf on the ſaid Bog, and that he would defend them in doing ſo, though he ſpent all to a Horſe, on which he rode.

The ſaid Lord Biſhop further informed their Lordſhips, That the ſaid Bog is of a great Value to him; and that, if it be cut and deſtroyed, as practiſed by the ſaid Treſpaſſers, it will ſoon deſtroy the Town of Cloyne, and will be ſome Hundred Pounds ℔ Ann. Damage to the Biſhoprick of Cloyne.

That their Lordſhips further find, by the Examination of John Burgeſs, that he ſaw Capt. Corker's Tenants cutting Turf in the Bog of Cloyne, about a Month ago; that the Names of the Perſons he ſaw cutting the Turf were Roger Davys, Maurice Kearin, and three more, whoſe Names he the ſaid John Burgeſs, doth not know: That he, the Examinant, with Capt. Ruddock, a Juſtice of the Peace in the Co. Cork, Laurence Hore, Bailiff to the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Cloyne, and Thomas Parker, Servant to his Lordſhip, ſpoke to the ſaid Maurice Kearin, and to the reſt of the Treſpaſſers, and forbade them, in the ſaid Biſhop's Name, to proceed any further in cutting and deſtroying the ſaid Bog, without Licence from the ſaid Lord Biſhop: That the ſaid Kearin anſwered, He had Orders from Capt. Corker to cut Turf there, and that he would not deſiſt for any body; and that the reſt conſented to what Kearin ſaid, and proceeded in their cutting and deſtroying the ſaid Bog; and that the like Prohibition was made three ſeveral Days by the Examinant, and the other Perſons abovenamed, and the like Anſwer returned.

That they further find, by the Examination of Thomas Parker, that he has known the Bog of Cloyne about a Year; and that he believes, and it is reputed to be the Property of the Lord Biſhop of Cloyne: That he, with Capt. Ruddock, Laurence Hore, John Burgeſs and Mr. William Cummin, Steward to the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Cloyne, were ſent by the ſaid Biſhop to the ſaid Bog, about two Months ago, to hinder ſome Treſpaſſers, that were cutting Turf on the ſaid Bog; and that they found one Maurice Kearin, James Donovan, John Donovan, Roger Davys and Robert Slaney, Tenants, as he believes, to Capt. Corker, cutting Turf, and deſtroying the ſaid Bog; and that Capt. Ruddock and Laurence Hore forbade them to cut any Turf there; becauſe the ſaid Bog belonged to the ſaid Lord Biſhop: To which the ſaid Kearin anſwered, in the Name of himſelf and the aforeſaid Treſpaſſers, That they came there by Capt. Corker's Order, and durſt not deſiſt; and therefore were reſolved to proceed, which they accordingly did: And that this Examinant went ſeveral times on the ſaid Meſſage, with ſome of the above-named, and had the ſame Anſwer.

That the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Cloyne produced ſeveral Examinations, ſworn before Capt. Ruddock, a Juſtice of Peace in the Co. Cork, to the Purport aforeſaid; whereupon their Lordſhips came to the following Reſolutions:

Reſolutions of Committee thereon.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Lord Biſhop of Cloyne has made out an undoubted Poſſeſſion of the Bog of Cloyne in his Lordſhip, and his Predeceſſors.

Reſolved, that it is likewiſe the Opinion of this Committee, that Capt. Corker has diſturbed the Poſſeſſion of the Biſhop of Cloyne, by entering upon the Bog of Cloyne, belonging to the ſaid Lord Biſhop, and cutting Turf in it, without the ſaid Lord Biſhop's Licence, and forcing away his Royalty, and by ſo doing, is guilty of a Breach of Privilege againſt this Houſe.

Reſolved,

Reſolved, that it is likewiſe the Opinion of this Committee, that Maurice Kearin, John Donovan, William Quirk, Roger Davys, Robert Slaney and James Donovan, are guilty of a Breach of Privilege by entering on the Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Biſhop of Cloyne, and cutting Turf on the ſaid Bog, in Oppoſition to the Biſhop of Cloyne's Orders.

agreed to. To which the Houſe agrees.

Order thereon. Ordered, on Motion, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, do forthwith apprehend and take the Bodies of Capt. Edward Corker, Maurice Kearin and William Quirk, for a Breach of Privilege by them committed againſt this Houſe, in diſturbing the Poſſeſſion of the Right Rev. Father in God, Charles Lord Biſhop of Cloyne.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Committee of Privileges, do view the Journals of this Houſe, and report what has been heretofore the Uſage of this Houſe, on Proceedings relating to Breaches of Privilege; and what Methods are fit to be taken for the future, to bring Perſons complained of to Puniſhment.

Ordered, on reading the Order of the Day, that the reading of the Standing Orders of this Houſe, appointed for this Day, be adjourned until To-morrow Morning.

The Lord Chancellor, by Appointment of the Lords, adjourns the Houſe until To-morrow Morning, at Ten of the clock.

Report on Protections.

THE Lord Viſc. Fitzwilliam reports from the Committee of Privileges, appointed to examine and report what Protections are entered, and which of them are valid; that they met, and find four Protections entered in the Clerk's Book, as given by the Right Hon. Theobald Lord Viſc. Mayo, whereof three, viz. thoſe to Nicholas Bourk, Marcus Lynch and Bryan Ward, his Lordſhip diſowns; and ſays, that his Hand and Seal are forged; the fourth, viz. that to Col. William Bourk, his Lordſhip does own; but upon View of the Certificate, his Lordſhip ſays, that the Sign Manual is not of his writing, but was ſigned by ſome other by his Lordſhip's Directions: But the Committee have directed me to report, That their Lordſhips are of Opinion, that the ſame ſhould be ſuperſeded, as likewiſe one other to Capt. Waſhington Shirley.

The ſaid Committee likewiſe find one Protection more of the Lord Viſc. Mayo's, viz. to Luke Dillon, a Perſon reputed to be worth about £1200 ℔ Ann. which Protection his Lordſhip likewiſe diſowns, and ſays, his Hand is forged; and one other Protection, to Peter Browne, Eſq; which his Lordſhip owns he gave, dated the 13th of July, 1711; but finding the Perſon not qualified by the Rules of the Houſe, his Lordſhip has ſince recalled it.

The Committee likewiſe find one hundred and one Protections granted by the Right Hon. the Earl of Roſcomon, all ſigned by his Lordſhip, ſince Privilege of Parliament laſt came in, but recalled by his Lordſhip the 18th of July, 1711, and likewiſe nine more, which his Lordſhip did inſiſt upon as being given to his Servants: But your Lordſhips' Committee have ordered me to report, That it is their Opinion, that they ſhould be all ſuperſeded, as Perſons not qualified under the Title of menial or hired Servants.

The

The ſaid Committee likewiſe find, one Protection given by the Lord Biſhop of Elphin to John French Fitz-Nicholas, whom his Lordſhip does declare to be his hired Servant.

The Committee likewiſe find, one Protection granted by the Right Hon. the Lord Altham to Aaron Lambert, whom his Lordſhip does declare to be his hired Steward; and one other to John Offley, who was formerly his Lordſhip's Servant; but being ſince turned out of his Lordſhip's Service, his Lordſhip does not inſiſt on it.

The Committee likewiſe find, ſix Protections granted by the Right Hon. the Earl of Granard; but his Lordſhip does not inſiſt, that they are his menial or hired Servants.

They likewiſe find, one Protection given by the Lord Biſhop of Down, to Thomas Piers, his Lordſhip's Chaplain, which the ſaid Committee does allow of.

The Committee likewiſe find, a Protection given by the Lord Kingſton to Richard Steed; but his Lordſhip being abſent, cannot report in that Matter.

The ſaid Committee, having examined John Carthy; he owns, he was once an Attorney, but now is my Lord Roſcomon's Servant: He ſays, he never took Money for procuring Protections, or taking off any; but owns he has, for Services done, without explaining what.

The Committee likewiſe find, two Protections granted by the Lord Viſc. Caſtlecomer, which this Committee do allow to be good.

The Committee likewiſe find, one Protection granted by the Lord Biſhop of Derry to Matt. Freeman, who being his Lordſhip's Servant, this Committee are of Opinion, is good.

The ſaid Committee likewiſe find, one Protection granted by the Lord Santry, to Patrick Connor; but he being ſince diſcharged his Lordſhip's Service, the Committee are of Opinion, the ſame ought to be ſuperſeded.

The Committee likewiſe find, one Protection ſuppoſed to be granted by the Lord Viſcount Mount Caſhell, to William Hill; but his Lordſhip having declared, that his Hand and Seal are forged, this moſt Hon. Houſe has already ordered the ſaid William Hill to be taken into Cuſtody.

Whereupon the ſaid Committee came to the following Reſolutions:

Reſolutions. Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that no Lord ought to give written Protections to any Perſons, other than their menial hired Servants, and ſuch as are neceſſary, either about their Perſons or Eſtates; and that they ought to be very ſparing, even on thoſe Occaſions.

Reſolved, that it is likewiſe the Opinion of this Committee, that for any Lord to give a written Protection to any Perſon, not qualified as aforeſaid, is obſtructing the Courſe of Juſtice, is a Proſtitution of the Honour of the Houſe of Lords, and deſerves the Cenſure of their Lordſhips.

Reſolved, that it is likewiſe the Opinion of the ſaid Committee, that thoſe Reſolutions be printed and publiſhed, that the World may know the Senſe of this moſt Hon. Houſe, in relation to written Protections.

To which the Houſe agrees. agreed to.

Heads of Charity-Bill. The Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam reports from the Committee appointed to inſpect and conſider of the Heads of a Bill, for the better ſecuring of what is given to pious and charitable Uſes; that they met, and, with ſome Amendments, agreed thereto.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be read a third time.

Report on Biſhop of Raphoe's Caſe.

THE Lord Altham reports from the Committee of Privileges, to whom was referred the Complaint of the Right Rev. Father in God, John Lord Biſhop of Raphoe; that they met, and report, that their Lordſhips find, by their Journals of the 25th of Auguſt, 1709, a Report from the Committee of Privileges, in the Words following:

'Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this 'Committee, that ſome Matters alledged in 'the Lord Biſhop of Raphoe's Letter to the 'Right Hon. the Lord Viſc. Strabane, and read 'in the Lords' Houſe, particularly Mr. Hugh Neſbit's ſaying, "That he cared not a Snuff "for the Privilege of Parliament," are Breach-'es of the Privilege of the Lords' Houſe.

'Reſolved, that it is likewiſe the Opinion 'of the ſaid Committee, that on Proof of the 'ſaid Allegations, the Perſons complained of, 'ought to be proceeded againſt, as uſual.'

I am likewiſe directed by their Lordſhips to report, that by the Examinations of William Campbell of Raphoe, Clerk, taken before the Committee, it fully appears to the Committee, that Mr. Hugh Neſbit ſpoke the Words in the ſaid Letter mentioned, viz. "That he cared "not a Snuff for the Privilege of Parliament;" upon which the ſaid Committee came to the following Reſolution.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Mr. Hugh Neſbit is guilty of a Breach of Privilege of this Houſe, and ought to be ſent for into Cuſtody.

Ordered, on Motion, that Mr. Hugh Neſbit be forthwith taken into Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe. Order thereon.
